Case No. 3:24-cv-00649-RGJ

Judge Rebecca Grady Jennings

CLASS ACTION

PLAINTIFFS' UNOPPOSED MOTION FOR FINAL APPROVAL OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT AND APPLICATION FOR ATTORNEYS' FEES, COSTS AND SERVICE AWARDS

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that Plaintiffs, Christopher Russo and Shannon Cobb, individually, and on behalf of the putative class, respectfully move the Court pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(e) for an Order granting final approval to the nationwide Class Action Settlement Agreement reached with Defendant OP Pharmacy, LLC a/k/a One Point Patient Care, LLC ("Defendant" or "OnePoint") and granting Class Counsel's Application for Attorneys' Fees, Costs, and Service Awards. Plaintiffs are concurrently submitting a memorandum of law that addresses the final approval factors, a supporting declaration from the Settlement Administrator, and a Final Approval Order.

Class Counsel conferred with counsel for OnePoint, who confirmed that OnePoint does not oppose Final Approval and takes no position on the fee and Service Award requests.

Dated: August 10, 2026

Respectfully submitted:

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiffs¹ respectfully request that the Court grant Final Approval to the nationwide Class Action Settlement Agreement reached with Defendant OP Pharmacy, LLC a/k/a One Point Patient Care, LLC (“Defendant” or “OnePoint”) and grant Class Counsel’s Application for Attorneys’ Fees, Costs, and Service Awards.

Following entry of the Preliminary Approval Order (“PAO”), ECF No. 44, the Settlement Administrator successfully implemented the Court-approved Notice Program. It has been overwhelmingly positive: while the Claims Period remains open until October 8, 2026, there have been 825 Claims filed as of July 31, 2026. See concurrently filed Declaration of Cameron R. Azari (“Azari Decl.”) ¶ 32. Claims will continue to be received and processed through the October 8, 2026, Claim Form Deadline, and in Class Counsel’s experience, the number Claims submitted tends to increase exponentially as the Claims Form Deadline approaches.

Additionally, as of July 31, 2026, no Settlement Class Members timely requested to be excluded, nor have any individuals objected to the Settlement. Azari Decl. ¶ 30. While the Opt-Out Period and Objection Period both run until August 24, 2026, it speaks volumes that not a single Member of the Settlement Class has requested to opt out from or objected to the Settlement, especially considering the approximately 528,452-person Settlement Class population.

The proposed Settlement should receive Final Approval because it meets the applicable Sixth Circuit criteria for being fair, reasonable, and adequate. It provides substantial relief that includes two Cash Payment options: (1) Cash Payment A – Documented Losses, which includes a Cash Payment of up to $3,500 per Settlement Class Member and requires the submission of reasonable documentation for losses related to the Data Incident; or (2) Cash Payment B –

Alternative Cash, which includes a pro rata Cash Payment of approximately $100 and requires no submission of documentation.

The Settlement is the product of litigation and negotiations that included exchange of substantial confirmatory discovery with OnePoint and a formal mediation session with Bennett G. Picker of the Stradley Ronon law firm. The Court's decision to grant Preliminary Approval of the Settlement here necessarily entailed a determination that the Settlement meets Sixth Circuit approval standards and was likely to warrant Final Approval. Wilson v. Anthem Health Plans of Kentucky, Inc., No. 14-cv-0743, 2019 WL 6898662, at *3 (W.D. Ky. Dec. 18, 2019) (citations omitted). Nothing has changed from the record upon which this Court previously granted Preliminary Approval that would merit a different conclusion here.

Additionally, as discussed further infra, Class Counsel have diligently prosecuted this matter on a contingency fee basis for nearly two years. Accordingly, Plaintiffs request the Court approve an award of attorneys' fees in the amount of $705,000 (i.e., one-third of the Settlement Fund), costs and expenses in the amount of $23,770.55, and Service Awards in the amount of $2,500 for each Class Representative ($5,000 total), as provided by the Settlement Agreement entered into between Plaintiffs and OnePoint.

For these reasons and those that follow, Plaintiffs request that the Court enter an order granting the Settlement Final Approval and granting Class Counsel's Application for Attorneys' Fees, Costs, and Service Awards. OnePoint does not oppose Final Approval and takes no position on the fee and Service Award requests.

II. PROCEDURAL AND FACTUAL HISTORY

The Court is aware of the facts and circumstances surrounding this Litigation and the Settlement. For the purposes of brevity and efficiency, Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the Procedural and Factual History sections outlined in the Motion for Preliminary Approval (“MPA”), ECF No. 30-1 at 2-3.

III. OVERVIEW OF THE SETTLEMENT

A. The Settlement Class

The proposed Settlement Class is defined as follows:

All living individuals residing in the United States whose Private Information may have been accessed during the Data Incident, including those individuals who were sent a notice by OnePoint that their Private Information may have been impacted in the Data Incident.

SA ¶ 61. Excluded from the Settlement Class are (a) parents, subsidiaries, directors and officers of Defendant, and any entity in which Defendant has a controlling interest;; and (b) the Judge assigned to the Action, that Judge’s immediate family, and Court staff; (c) all persons who submit a timely and valid Request for Exclusion from the Settlement Class; and (d) any person found by a court of competent jurisdiction to be guilty under criminal law of initiating, causing, aiding or abetting the criminal activity occurrence of the Data Incident, or who pleads nolo contendere to any such charge. Id.

A. The Settlement Benefits

As discussed at length in the Motion for Preliminary Approval, the primary feature of the Settlement is the Settlement Fund. MPA at 4. It will be used to pay Valid Claims for either: (1) Cash Payment A – Documented Losses, which includes a Cash Payment of up to $3,500 per Settlement Class Member and requires the submission of reasonable documentation for losses related to the Data Incident; or (2) Cash Payment B – Alternative Cash, which includes a pro rata Cash Payment of approximately $100 and requires no submission of documentation. SA ¶¶ 70-71.

All payments are to be paid out of the $2,115,000.00 non-reversionary Settlement Fund. SA ¶ 17. If a Settlement Class Member does not submit a Valid Claim or opt-out of the Settlement, the Settlement Class Member will release his or her Claims against OnePoint without receiving a Settlement Class Member Benefit. SA ¶ 70.

B. The Release

In exchange for the Settlement Class Member Benefits and consideration provided under the Settlement Agreement—and subject to the Court’s Final Approval—Plaintiffs and Settlement Class Members (excluding those who timely and validly opted out) will release any Claims against OnePoint that were or could have been asserted related to Data Incident. SA § XIII. The Action will also be dismissed with prejudice.

C. Notice and Settlement Administration; Objections and Opt-Outs

1. Notice Program

On June 2, 2026, pursuant to the Preliminary Approval Order, Defendant provided the Settlement Administrator with the Class List. Azari Decl. ¶ 23. Thereafter, the Settlement Administrator implemented the Notice Program which consisted of sending double Postcard Notices with a detachable Claim Form to Settlement Class Members for whom the Defendant maintained physical addresses. Id. ¶ 24. A Long Form Notice was available on the Settlement Website or by mail upon request from a Settlement Class Member. Id. Lastly, a Settlement toll free telephone line was established for Settlement Class Members to obtain answers to frequently asked questions. Id. ¶ 28.

As of July 31, 2026, the Settlement Administrator sent 488,947 Postcard Notices to those Settlement Class Members for whom Defendant maintained physical addresses. Azari Decl. ¶ 24. Also as of July 31, 2026, individual direct Notice efforts (i.e., mailings) have reached approximately 74% of the identified Settlement Class, and this reach is further enhanced by the Settlement Website. Id. ¶¶ 19, 36.² Settlement Class reach is expected to continue to increase through Final Approval.

The Settlement Website (<https://www.OnePointSettlement.com/>) was established and went live following Preliminary Approval. Id. ¶ 27. It serves as a portal for Settlement Class Members to submit Claim Forms to the Settlement Administrator and contains detailed information about the Action, including important documents such as the Claim Form, operative Complaint, Long Form Notice, Settlement Agreement, Motion for Preliminary Approval, Preliminary Approval Order, and this motion which will promptly be posted. Id.

Additionally, the Settlement Administrator established a toll-free telephone number for Settlement Class Members to call for Settlement information and/or to request a Long Form Notice and Claim Form. Id. ¶ 28. As of July 31, 2026, there have been 478 calls to the toll-free number, representing 1,110 minutes of use. Id.

A postal mailing address and email address were also established and are available to contact the Settlement Administrator to request additional information or ask questions. Id. ¶ 29.

2. Claim Process

The Claim Process was structured to ensure that all Settlement Class Members had adequate time to review the Settlement terms, compile documents supporting their respective Claims, and decide whether to submit a Claim, opt-out of, or object to the Settlement. Id. ¶¶ 38-39. Settlement Class Members may continue to submit Claim Forms online or by mail prior to the ² This an outstanding result. See Federal Judicial Center, Judges' Class Action Notice and Claims Process Checklist and Plain Language Guide, at 3 (2010), www.fjc.gov/sites/default/files/2012/NotCheck.pdf (“A high percentage [of the class] (e.g., between 70-95%) can often reasonably be reached by a notice campaign.”); see also In re Restasis Antitrust Litig., 527 F. Supp. 3d 269, 273 (E.D.N.Y. 2021) (citation omitted) (observing that “a notice plan that reaches between 70 and 95 percent of the class is reasonable”).

October 8, 2026 Claim Form Deadline. As of July 31, 2026, the Settlement Administrator, Epiq, has received 825 Claim Forms (805 online and 20 paper). Id. ¶ 32. Claims will continue to be received and processed through the October 8, 2026, Claim Form Deadline, and in Class Counsel’s experience, the number Claims submitted tends to increase exponentially as the Claims Form Deadline approaches. Class Counsel will update the Court at the Final Approval Hearing as to the number of Claims.

3. Objections and Opt-Outs

The Objection and Opt-Out Periods end on August 24, 2026. Id. ¶ 30. As of July 31, 2026, there are no objections and no opt-out requests. Id. Plaintiffs will update the Court at the Final Approval Hearing if anyone objects or about any additional opt-outs.

IV. THE COURT SHOULD GRANT FINAL SETTLEMENT APPROVAL

A. Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e) and Sixth Circuit Standards for Final Approval

“Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(e) provides that the claims of ‘a class proposed to be certified for purposes of settlement’ can be settled ‘only with [a] court’s approval.’” Thompson v. Seagle Pizza, Inc., No. 20-cv-0016, 2022 WL 1431084, at *3 (W.D. Ky. May 5, 2022) (quoting Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)). “Approval of a class action settlement involves two-stages: (1) ‘The judge reviews the proposal preliminarily to determine whether it is sufficient to warrant public notice and a hearing’; and (2) ‘If so, the final decision on approval is made after the hearing.’” Green v. Platinum Restaurants Mid-Am. LLC, No. 14-cv-0439, 2022 WL 1240432, at *2 (W.D. Ky. Apr. 27, 2022) (quoting Ann. Manual Complex Lit. (Fourth) § 13.14 (2019)).

At the preliminary approval stage, the Court considered the factors set forth in Rule 23(e)(2) and the traditional factors for class action settlement approval in the Sixth Circuit, and concluded that it “will likely be able to approve” the Settlement under Rule 23(e). PAO at 12. Final approval requires analysis of the same factors the Court previously considered at the preliminary approval stage. The Court should confirm and make final its finding that the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate.

Rule 23(e)(2) sets forth the following factors to assist the Court in making this determination: (A) the class representatives and class counsel have adequately represented the class; (B) the proposal was negotiated at arm's length; (C) the relief provided for the class is adequate, taking into account: (i) the costs, risks, and delay of trial and appeal; (ii) the effectiveness of any proposed method of distributing relief to the class, including the method of processing class-member claims; (iii) the terms of any proposed award of attorney's fees, including timing of payment; and (iv) any agreement required to be identified under Rule 23(e)(3); and (D) the proposal treats class members equitably relative to each other." Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(2)(A)-(D).

"[I]n considering whether to approve the parties' proposed settlement, [courts] in the Sixth Circuit should look to both the factors found in Rule 23 as well as the Sixth Circuit's traditional factors." Doe v. Ohio, No. 91-cv-00464, 2020 WL 728276, at *3 (S.D. Ohio Feb. 12, 2020), report and recommendation adopted, No. 91-cv-0464 (S.D. Ohio Mar. 2, 2020) (citations omitted). In the Sixth Circuit, courts also analyze the following "traditional factors":

(1) the risk of fraud or collusion; (2) the complexity, expense and likely duration of the litigation; (3) the amount of discovery engaged in by the parties; (4) the likelihood of success on the merits; (5) the opinions of class counsel and class representatives; (6) the reaction of absent class members; and (7) the public interest.

Green, 2022 WL 1240432, at *4 (citation omitted).

B. The Settlement Is Fair, Reasonable, and Adequate Under the Rule 23 and Sixth Circuit Factors

Application of the Rule 23(e)(2) and the Sixth Circuit considerations demonstrates that the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate, and is in the best interests of the Settlement Class.

1. The Rule 23 Factors Support Final Settlement Approval

a. Rule 23(e)(2)(A): The Class Representatives and Class Counsel Have Adequately Represented the Class

Under Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(2)(A), the Court considers whether the class representatives and class counsel “adequately represented the class.” Plaintiffs and Class Counsel have done so here. Class Counsel have handled this matter on a contingency basis for nearly two years to date, including conducting a mediation session with a respected mediator. Class Counsel are highly experienced attorneys who expended significant time and resources investigating, litigating, and securing the Settlement in this case, and they are well versed in the facts of the case and applicable law. See Joint Declaration of Class Counsel in Support of Unopposed Motion for Preliminary Approval (“MPA Decl.”), ECF No. 30-3, ¶¶ 18-19, 23, 27.

Their adequacy is further demonstrated by the extraordinary results achieved here. Class Counsel placed the interests of Class Members first and acted commendably in securing a relatively early, excellent Settlement, without unnecessary expenditure of time or placing undue burden on the court system.

Further, Class Counsel’s work will not end following Final Approval of the Settlement; they will continue to oversee implementation of the Settlement, supervise the Claims Process, and communicate with Settlement Class Members. Class Counsel pride themselves on ensuring that the Claims Process is properly handled.

The Class Representatives also served a vital role in achieving these results. Among other things, they: (i) provided important information and assisted in Class Counsel’s investigation of the factual basis for the claims; (ii) were involved in the drafting of the complaints; (iii) regularly consulted with Class Counsel during the course of the mediations; (iv) provided guidance and approved all of the negotiated relief; and (v) reviewed and approved the Settlement. MPA Decl.

¶¶ 9, 22, 45. They have cooperated with Class Counsel and stayed abreast of all litigation activity. This factor supports Final Approval.

b. Rule 23(e)(2)(B): The Proposed Settlement Is the Product of Arm’s-Length Negotiations Among Experienced Counsel³

Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(2)(B) addresses whether the proposal was negotiated at arm’s length. The Settlement Agreement is the product of a mediation session with experienced class action mediator Bennett Picker of the Stradley Ronon law firm. These negotiations were conducted at arm’s length, in good faith, by experienced counsel. MPA Decl. ¶ 16. The Parties did not discuss or negotiate the issue of attorneys’ fees or Plaintiffs’ Service Awards until after there was agreement on all material terms of the Settlement. Id. ¶¶ 17, 24. This factor supports the fairness of the Settlement. See, e.g., Bert v. AK Steel Corp., No. 02-cv-0467, 2008 WL 4693747, at *2 (S.D. Ohio Oct. 23, 2008) (“participation of an independent mediator in settlement negotiations virtually insures that the negotiations were conducted at arm’s length and without collusion between the parties”).

c. Rule 23(e)(2)(C)(i): The Relief Under the Proposed Settlement Is Adequate, Taking Into Account the Costs, Risks, and Delay of Trial and Appeal⁴

In determining whether the class-wide relief is adequate under Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(2)(C), the Court considers “the costs, risks, and delay of trial and appeal”; “the effectiveness of any proposed method of distributing relief to the class, including the method of processing class-member claims”; “the terms of any proposed award of attorney’s fees, including timing of payment”; and “any agreement required to be identified under Rule 23(e)(3).” Each of these supports Final Approval of the Settlement.

³ This factor overlaps with the first traditional factor (“the risk of fraud or collusion”).

While this case was settled before it was fully litigated, the Parties had a detailed understanding of their respective arguments and defenses during this process. OnePoint has vigorously denied liability from the outset and would have continued to take this position had litigation continued. To prevail, Plaintiffs would have had to withstand OnePoint's motion to dismiss, obtain class certification, likely defend a certification order on appeal under Rule 23(f), survive likely motions for decertification and for summary judgment, and prevail at trial and any subsequent appeal. Plaintiffs and Class Counsel recognize there was an indisputable risk associated with each successive stage of this data breach Action. Historically, data breach cases face substantial hurdles in surviving even the pleading stage. See, e.g., Hammond v. The Bank of N.Y. Mellon Corp., 2010 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 71996, at *2–4 (S.D.N.Y. June 25, 2010) (collecting cases). Even cases implicating extremely sensitive data, as in the instant case, have been found wanting at the district court level. In re U.S. Office of Pers. Mgmt. Data Sec. Breach Litig., 266 F. Supp. 3d 1, 19 (D.D.C. 2017) (finding that the factual allegations in the complaints were insufficient to establish standing), reversed in part, 928 F.3d 42 (D.C. Cir. June 21, 2019) (holding that plaintiff had standing). As another court observed in finally approving a settlement with similar class relief, “[d]ata breach litigation is evolving; there is no guarantee of the ultimate result . . . [they] are particularly risky, expensive, and complex”). Fox v. Iowa Health Sys., 2021 WL 826741, at *5 (W.D. Wis. Mar. 4, 2021).

In contrast to the uncertainty and delays attendant to protracted litigation, the Settlement “provides a significant, easy-to-obtain benefit to class members.” In re Haier Freezer Consumer Litig., No. 11-cv-02911, 2013 WL 2237890, at *5 (N.D. Cal. May 21, 2013); see also Ebarle v. Lifelock, Inc., No. 15-cv-00258, 2016 WL 234364, at *8 (N.D. Cal. Jan. 20, 2016) (settlement that provides immediate benefits to class members has value compared to the risk and uncertainty of continued litigation). Specifically, the Settlement Agreement will establish a $2,115,000 non-reversionary all cash Settlement Fund that will be used to provide the following benefits to Settlement Class Members: (i) reimburse Out-of-Pocket Losses up to $3,500.00 for expenses incurred as a result of the Data Incident, and (ii) in the alternative to the documented loss payment, distribute a pro rata Cash Payment of approximately $100 from the Settlement Fund. SA ¶¶ 70-71. This is a substantial recovery and benefit for the Class.

d. Rule 23(e)(2)(C)(ii): The Relief Provided for the Class Is Adequate, Taking Into Account the Effectiveness of Any Proposed Method of Distributing Relief to the Class, Including the Method of Processing Class Member Claims

The method of distributing relief and the Claims Process is also fair, reasonable, and adequate, and “facilitates filing legitimate claims;” it is not “unduly demanding” in any respect. Rule 23(e)(2)(C)(ii); 2018 Adv. Comm. Notes. While a Claim is required for both reimbursement payments, the Claim Form is simple and straightforward. See SA ¶ 22; SA, Ex. 3.

The plan of allocation is straightforward and is the result of extensive negotiation between highly competent counsel, with the input of an experienced data breach class action mediator. MPA Decl. ¶¶ 16, 39-42. As set forth above, the Settlement proposes two forms of monetary relief, each of which requires submission of a Claim Form. SA ¶¶ 70-71. All Claims will be processed by the Settlement Administrator, with the oversight of Class Counsel. See id. ¶ 91. Requiring Claim Forms and documentation to receive reimbursement of out-of-pocket costs is standard and regularly approved. See, e.g., In re Whirlpool Corp. Front-Loading Washer Prods. Liab. Litig., No. 08-WP-65000, 2016 WL 5338012, at *14 (N.D. Ohio Sept. 23, 2016) (approving the use of claim forms to pursue a claim for reimbursement of out-of-pocket expenses).

Here, the Settlement provides for a fair, reasonable, and adequate method of distributing relief. All payments are to be paid out of a $2,115,000.00 non-reversionary Settlement Fund. This method of processing Settlement Class Member Benefits merits Final Approval.

e. Rule 23(e)(2)(C)(iii): The Relief Provided for the Class Is Adequate, Taking Into Account the Terms of Any Proposed Award of Attorneys' Fees, Including Timing of Payment

Finally, the amount of attorneys' fees and litigation expenses and costs being sought are reasonable, justified, and should be awarded for the reasons discussed in Section V.A-B infra. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(2)(C)(iii). The amounts and timing of these payments are fair, reasonable, and adequate. The Parties discussed fees and expenses only after all material terms of the Settlement were agreed upon. See Joint Declaration of Class Counsel in Support of Plaintiffs' Unopposed Motion for Final Approval of Class Action Settlement and Application for Attorneys' Fees, Costs, and Service Awards ("Joint Fee Decl.") attached as Exhibit A at ¶ 11.

All these terms are routinely found reasonable and adequate by courts in class action settlements. See, e.g., Manners v. Am. Gen. Life Ins. Co., No. CIV.A. 3-98-0266, 1999 WL 33581944, at *28 (M.D. Tenn. Aug. 11, 1999) ("The Court finds that the fee and expense negotiations were conducted at arm's length, only after the parties had reached agreement on all terms of the Settlement. There is no evidence in this case that the Settlement, or the fee and expense agreement, was in any way collusive. Under these circumstances, the Court gives great weight to the negotiated fee in considering the fee and expense request.").

Moreover, as explained in Section V.A-B infra, the agreed fee amount represents a small fraction of the estimated value of the Settlement and represents a modest 1.89 multiple of Class Counsel's lodestar. Fee Decl. ¶ 18. The requested fee and expenses, as well as the multiplier, are within the range typically held to be reasonable in this Court and other courts in the Sixth Circuit.

f. Rule 23(e)(2)(C)(iv): There Are No Side Agreements Required to Be Identified Under Rule 23(e)(3)

Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(3) requires settling parties to “file a statement identifying any agreement made in connection with the proposal.” Here, there are no “side agreements” concerning this Settlement. Fee Decl. ¶ 14.

g. Rule 23(e)(2)(D): The Settlement Treats Class Members Equitably Relative to Each Other

The proposed Settlement also treats Settlement Class Members equitably relative to each other, as required by Rule 23(e)(2)(D). All Class Members are eligible for the same treatment under the Settlement. Namely, each Settlement Class Member will have the opportunity to receive either reimbursement for their documented losses stemming from the Data Incident or to receive a pro rata Cash Payment. See SA ¶ 70-71. In sum, the Settlement ensures that all Settlement Class Members will be treated equitably relative to each other.

These common-sense distinctions among Settlement Class Members are reasonable and appropriate, and courts routinely approve such relief. See e.g., Fulton-Green v. Accolade, Inc., No. 18-cv-0274, 2019 WL 4677954, at *8 (E.D. Pa. Sept. 24, 2019) (approving settlement in a data breach where “the settlement treats each class member individually” because “[e]ach and every class member can receive a reimbursement specific to their losses”); In re Nexus 6P Prods. Liab. Litig., No. 17-cv-02185, 2019 WL 6622842, at *9 (N.D. Cal. Nov. 12, 2019) (approving settlement plan that “divides claimants into different groups based on the relative size of their potential claims and distributes funds based on these groups”); Burrow v. Forjas Taurus S.A., No. 16-21606-CIV, 2019 WL 4247284, at *10 (S.D. Fla. Sept. 6, 2019) (the court found that the settlement treated class members equitably where settlement class members received the benefit of an enhanced warranty service automatically). This factor supports Final Approval of the Settlement.

2. The Sixth Circuit Factors Support Final Approval

a. The Risk of Fraud or Collusion

“Courts presume the absence of fraud or collusion in class action settlements unless there is evidence to the contrary.” Green, 2022 WL 1240432, at *4 (quoting Thacker v. Chesapeake Appalachia, L.L.C., 695 F. Supp. 2d 521 (E.D. Ky. 2010)). Furthermore, “the participation of an independent mediator in the settlement negotiations virtually assures that the negotiations were conducted at arm’s length and without collusion between the parties.” Ditsworth v. P & Z Carolina Pizza, No. 20-cv-00084, 2021 WL 2941985, at *3 (W.D. Ky. July 13, 2021). There is no fraud or collusion here. The Parties reached the Settlement through almost two years of negotiations and with the assistance of a respected mediator. No discussion of attorneys’ fees, litigation expenses and costs, and Service Awards occurred until after the Parties reached agreement on all material terms of the Settlement. Joint Fee Decl. at ¶ 11.

b. The Complexity, Expense and Likely Duration of Litigation

As discussed above, the Parties have evaluated the risks, delay, and complexity of this litigation. This Court has recognized that “most class actions are inherently complex and settlement avoids the costs, delays, and multitude of other problems associated with them.” Ditsworth, 2021 WL 2941985, at *3 (quoting In re Teletronics Pacing Sys., Inc., 137 F. Supp. 2d 985, 1013 (S.D. Ohio 2001)). Had the Parties not efficiently resolved the matter, it may have been years before trial and there was a risk of non-recovery. This factor supports Final Approval. See Wilson, 2019 WL 6898662, at *5.

c. The Amount of Discovery Engaged in by the Parties

“In considering whether there has been sufficient discovery to permit the plaintiffs to make an informed evaluation of the merits of a possible settlement, the court should take account not only of court-refereed discovery but also informal discovery in which parties engaged both before and after litigation commenced.” Ditsworth, 2021 WL 2941985, at *3 (citation omitted). “[T]he absence of formal discovery is not unusual or problematic, so long as the parties and the court have adequate information in order to evaluate the relative positions of the parties.” Id. As discussed above, OnePoint produced, and Class Counsel reviewed, numerous documents that were responsive to Plaintiffs’ requests for information relevant to the Settlement. MPA Decl. ¶¶ 8-9. This point supports Final Approval of the Settlement.

d. The Likelihood of Success on the Merits

“In evaluating settlements, courts are not required to reach any ultimate conclusions on the contested issues of fact and law which underlie the merits of the dispute, for it is the very uncertainty of outcome in litigation and avoidance of wasteful and expensive litigation that induce consensual settlements.” Ditsworth, 2021 WL 2941985, at *2 (internal quotations and citation omitted). Based on Class Counsel’s experience in similar cases, the Settlement Fund provides a favorable resolution to Plaintiffs’ claims in light of the risks of continued litigation. MPA Decl. ¶ 34.

e. The Opinions of Class Counsel and Class Representatives

“‘The endorsement of the parties’ counsel is entitled to significant weight, and supports the fairness of the class settlement.’” Green, 2022 WL 1240432, at *5 (quoting UAW v. Ford Motor Co., No. 07-cv-14845, 2008 WL 4104329, at *26 (E.D. Mich. Aug. 29, 2008)). Here, “the experienced attorneys on each side, after assessing the relative risks and benefits of litigation, believe that the settlement is fair and reasonable.” Wilson, 2019 WL 6898662, at *6. All Plaintiffs and Class Counsel support the Settlement here. MPA Decl. ¶¶ 43-46.

f. The Reaction of Absent Class Members

As discussed supra, the reaction of the Settlement Class has been outstanding. In a Settlement Class comprised of 528,452 Members, no requests for exclusion and no objections have been received as of July 31, 2026. Azari Decl. ¶ 30. While requests for exclusion and objections are common and even to be expected, the absence of any here speaks volumes to the quality of the Settlement. See Dick v. Sprint Commc'ns Co. L.P., 297 F.R.D. 283, 297 (W.D. Ky. 2014) (“A certain number of ... objections are to be expected in a class action.... If only a small number of objections are received, that fact can be viewed as indicative of the adequacy of the settlement.”) (quoting In re Cardizem CD Antitrust Litigation, 218 F.R.D. 508, 527 (E.D. Mich. 2003)).

On the other hand, 825 Claim Forms have been submitted to date. Azari Decl. at ¶ 32. Claims will continue to be received and processed through the October 8, 2026, Claim Form Deadline, and in Class Counsel’s experience, the number Claims submitted tends to increase exponentially as the Claims Form Deadline approaches. This factor supports Final Approval.

g. The Public Interest

“[T]here is a strong public interest in encouraging settlement of complex litigation and class action suits because they are ‘notoriously difficult and unpredictable’ and settlement conserves judicial resources.” Wilson, 2019 WL 6898662, at *5 (internal quotation marks and citation omitted). Here, Settlement is favored for exactly those reasons. Should this litigation proceed absent Settlement, it is likely that this case would drag out for years and require significant effort and expense on behalf of both the Parties—and more importantly for this factor—both this Court and likely the Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals will be saved from expending further public funds adjudicating this matter. Given the substantial conservation of judicial resources the Settlement creates, this factor weighs in favor of Final Approval.

Thus, all applicable fairness factors weigh in favor of Final Approval.

C. The Court Should Confirm Certification of the Settlement Class⁵

Since the Court granted Preliminary Approval of the Settlement, nothing has changed that should or would affect the Court’s determination on certification of the Settlement Class at the final approval stage. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(1)(B)(i)-(ii) (notice to the settlement class at the preliminary approval phase should be based on a finding that doing so “is justified by the parties’ showing that the court will likely be able to . . . approve the proposal under Rule 23(e)(2); and certify the class for purposes of judgment on the proposal”) (emphasis added). For brevity, Plaintiffs hereby incorporate the arguments set forth in ECF Nos. 41 and 42.

1. The Class Members Are Too Numerous to Be Joined

Class certification requires the class to be so numerous that their joinder would be “impracticable.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a)(1). There are approximately 528,452 Settlement Class Members in the United States, including Puerto Rico and other territories. Numerosity is readily satisfied. See, e.g., Marcus v. BMW of N. Am., LLC, 687 F.3d 583, 595 (3d Cir. 2012) (noting that classes exceeding 40 are sufficiently numerous); Curry v. SBC Commc’ns, Inc., 250 F.R.D. 301, 310 (E.D. Mich. 2008) (“In most cases, a class in excess of forty members will do.”).

2. There Are Common Questions of Law and Fact

Rule 23 next requires the presence of common questions of law or fact. Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a)(2). Commonality may be shown when the claims all “depend upon a common contention,” with a single common question sufficing. Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. v. Dukes, 564 U.S. 338, 350 (2011). The common questions in this case include, inter alia, whether OnePoint was negligent in and whether express or implied contracts were breached due to OnePoint’s handling of Class Members data in the lead up to the Data Incident, whether the OnePoint utilized appropriate data security practices leading up to the Incident, and whether OnePoint provided adequate notice to the Class. These questions are common to the Settlement Class, capable of Class-wide resolution, and “will resolve an issue that is central to the validity of each one of the claims in one stroke.” Id. at 350.

Because each of Plaintiffs’ claims were brought under Kentucky state law, Plaintiffs maintain that there is no need for a claim-by-claim analysis applied to the many state-specific causes of action in Speerly. Nevertheless, Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the claim-by-claim analysis provided in ECF No. 42.

3. Plaintiffs’ Claims Are Typical of the Class’s Claims

A class representative’s claims must be typical of those of other class members. Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a)(3). Typicality assesses “whether a sufficient relationship exists between the injury to the named plaintiff and the conduct affecting the class, so that the court may properly attribute a collective nature to the challenged conduct.” Sprague v. Gen. Motors Corp., 133 F.3d 388, 399 (6th Cir. 1998). Plaintiffs satisfy the typicality requirement where their claim “arises from the same event or practice or course of conduct that gives rise to the claims of other class members, and if his or her claims are based on the same legal theory.” Beattie v. CenturyTel, Inc., 511 F.3d 554, 561 (6th Cir. 2007) (internal quotation marks and citation omitted). The claims need not be identical; rather, they need only “arise[] from the same course of conduct.” Bittinger v. Tecumseh Prods. Co., 123 F.3d 877, 884 (6th Cir. 1997).

Plaintiffs and Class Members have the same types of claims against the same Defendant stemming from the same alleged Data Incident. Typicality is established. See In re NFL Players Concussion Injury Litig., 821 F.3d 410, 428 (3d Cir. 2016), as amended (May 2, 2016) (holding typicality met where plaintiffs “seek recovery under the same legal theories for the same wrongful conduct as the [classes] they represent”).

4. Plaintiffs and Class Counsel Will Continue to Fairly and Adequately Protect the Interests of the Class

The Class Representatives must fairly and adequately protect the interests of the Settlement Class. Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a)(4). “Class representatives are adequate when it appears that they will vigorously prosecute the interest of the class through qualified counsel . . . which usually will be the case if the representatives are part of the class and possess the same interest and suffer the same injury as the class members.” UAW v. Gen. Motors Corp., 497 F.3d 615, 626 (6th Cir. 2007) (internal quotation marks and citations omitted). This criterion is satisfied with respect to both Class Counsel and the named Plaintiffs.

a. Class Counsel Are Well Qualified

Rule 23(g) sets forth the criteria for evaluating the adequacy of Plaintiffs’ counsel: (i) the work counsel has done in identifying or investigating potential claims in the action; (ii) counsel’s experience in handling class actions, other complex litigation, and the types of claims asserted in the action; (iii) counsel’s knowledge of the applicable law; and (iv) the resources that counsel will commit to representing the class. Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(g)(1)(A).

Class Counsel are well qualified to serve as Class Counsel. Collectively, they have decades of experience successfully representing plaintiffs and classes in complex class action litigation, including in data breach cases. Class Counsels’ qualifications were laid out in detail in Exhibits 1-4 of the Joint Declaration of Class Counsel in Support of Motion for Preliminary Approval. MPA Decl. at 16-62. Adequacy of Class Counsel is satisfied.⁶

b. Plaintiffs Have No Conflicts of Interest and Have Diligently Pursued the Action on Behalf of the Other Class Members

“A named plaintiff is ‘adequate’ if his interests do not conflict with those of the class.” Shapiro v. All. MMA, Inc., No. 17-cv-2583, 2018 WL 3158812, at *5 (D.N.J. June 28, 2018) (citation omitted). Plaintiffs have agreed to serve in a representative capacity, communicated diligently with their attorneys, gathered relevant documents and produced them to their attorneys, and helped prepare the allegations in the Complaint. Plaintiffs will continue to act in the best interests of the other Class Members; there are no conflicts between Plaintiffs and the Class. See, e.g., id. (adequacy requirement met where the plaintiff had no interests antagonistic to the class).

5. The Requirements of Rule 23(b)(3) Are Met

After satisfying Rule 23(a), a plaintiff must also satisfy one of the three requirements of Rule 23(b) for a court to certify a class. Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b); Merenda v. VHS of Michigan, Inc., 296 F.R.D. 528, 536 (E.D. Mich. 2013), opinion reinstated on reconsideration sub nom. Cason-Merenda v. VHS of Michigan, Inc., No. 06-cv-15601, 2014 WL 905828 (E.D. Mich. Mar. 7, 2014). Plaintiffs seek certification under Rule 23(b)(3), which requires that (i) common questions of law and fact predominate over individualized ones, and that (ii) a class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy. Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(3). “[A] plaintiff must establish that the issues in the class action that are subject to generalized proof, and thus applicable to the class as a whole . . . predominate over those issues that are subject only to individualized proof.” Beattie, 511 F.3d at 564 (internal quotation marks and citation omitted). This requirement considers “the difficulties likely to be encountered in the management of a class action” and issues with individual litigation. Id.; see also Amchem Prods., Inc. v. Windsor, 521 U.S. 591, 617 (1997) (“[t]he policy at the very core of the class action mechanism is to overcome the problem that small recoveries do not provide the incentive for any individual to bring a solo action[.]” (internal quotation marks and citation omitted). As set forth below, the predominance and superiority requirements are met.

a. Common Issues of Law and Fact Predominate

The predominance inquiry tests the cohesion of the class, “ask[ing] whether the common, aggregation-enabling, issues in the case are more prevalent or important than the non-common, aggregation-defeating, individual issues.” Tyson Foods, Inc. v. Bouaphakeo, 577 U.S. 442, 1045 (2016) (citation omitted). Predominance is met if a single factual or legal question is “at the heart of the litigation.” See Powers v. Hamilton Cty. Pub. Def. Comm’n, 501 F.3d 592, 619 (6th Cir. 2007). Predominance is ordinarily satisfied, for settlement purposes, when the claims arise out of the defendant’s common conduct. See, e.g., Sullivan v. DB Invs., Inc., 667 F.3d 273, 299-300 (3d Cir. 2011) (“[T]he focus is on whether the defendant’s conduct was common as to all of the class members.”); Mendez v. Avis Budget Grp., Inc., No. 11-cv-6537, 2017 WL 5513691, at *4 (D.N.J. Nov. 17, 2017) (“[I]n cases where it is alleged that the defendant made similar misrepresentations, non-disclosures, or engaged in a common course of conduct, courts have found that said conduct satisfies the commonality and predominance requirements.”).

Here, Defendant’s alleged course of conduct was uniform over the entire Class. Namely, Plaintiffs allege that Defendant’s handling of their data was negligent and in contravention of their acknowledged statutory and common law duties. Plaintiffs further contend that this negligence led to the Data Incident which forms the issue “at the heart” of this litigation. Powers 501 F.3d at 619. This presents multiple questions of law and fact that are central to Defendant’s liability as to all Class Members and thus predominate over any issues affecting individual Class Members, as numerous courts considering data breach actions have found. See, e.g., Equifax, 2020 WL 256132, at *13; In re Anthem, Inc. Data Breach Litig., 327 F.R.D. 299, 311 (N.D. Cal. 2018); Hapka v. CareCentrix, Inc., 2018 WL 1871449, at *2 (D. Kan. Feb. 15, 2018) (finding predominance satisfied in a data breach case, stating “[t]he many common questions of fact and law that arise from the E-mail Security Incident and [Defendant’s] alleged conduct predominate over any individualized issues”); In re The Home Depot, Inc., Customer Data Sec. Breach Litig., 2016 WL 6902351, at *2 (N.D. Ga. Aug. 23, 2016) (finding common predominating questions included whether Home Depot failed to reasonably protect class members’ personal information, whether it had a legal duty to do so, and whether it failed to timely notify class members).

Further, common questions of fact abound with respect to whether OnePoint was negligent in and whether express or implied contracts were breached due to OnePoint’s handling of Class Members’ data in the lead up to the Data Incident, whether the OnePoint utilized appropriate data security practices leading up to the Incident, and whether OnePoint provided adequate notice to the Class. See, e.g., In re Prudential Ins. Co. Am. Sales Practice Litig. Agent Actions, 148 F.3d 283, 314 (3d Cir. 1998) (noting that cases involving “a common scheme to defraud” readily meet predominance test); In re Equifax, Inc. Customer Data Sec. Breach Litig., No. 1:17-md-2800-TWT, 2020 WL 256132, at *11 (N.D. Ga. July 25, 2019) (finding that multiple common issues center on the defendant’s conduct, satisfying the commonality requirement); In re Countrywide Fin. Corp. Cust. Data Sec. Breach Litig., No. 3:08-MD-01998, 2009 WL 5184352, at *3 (W.D. Ky. Dec. 22, 2009) (“All class members had their private information stored in Countrywide’s databases at the time of the data breach”). Common questions predominate for Settlement purposes.

b. A Class Action Is a Superior Means of Resolving This Action

Rule 23(b)(3) superiority “requires a plaintiff to show ‘that a class action is superior to other available methods for fairly and efficiently adjudicating the controversy.’” In re Fam. Sols. of Ohio, Inc., No. 21-cv-0303, 2022 WL 13915151, at *3 (6th Cir. June 17, 2022) (quoting Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(3)). Rule 23(b)(3) superiority “is met if the class action is a better way than individual litigation to adjudicate a claim.” Calloway v. Caraco Pharm. Labs., Ltd., 287 F.R.D. 402, 407–08 (E.D. Mich. 2012). This is especially true in situations which “vindicat[e] the rights of groups of people who individually would be without effective strength to bring their opponents into court at all.” Amchem, 521 U.S. at 617 (citation and internal quotation marks omitted).

Here, given the relatively low value of the individual claims, Settlement Class Members are unlikely to bring (and have not brought) individual lawsuits against OnePoint. In re CorrectCare Data Breach Litig., 2024 WL 1403075, at *5. Furthermore, because the Class is so large, Class-wide resolution of their claims in a single action is efficient. See Atis v. Freedom Mortg. Corp., No. 15-cv-03424, 2018 WL 5801544, at *7 (D.N.J. Nov. 6, 2018) (finding superiority satisfied where “individual claims of class members are relatively small in monetary value,” management issues were “less likely” given common questions that predominated, and there were no other litigations concerning the controversy); In re NFL Players Concussion Injury Litig., 821 F.3d at 435 (citation omitted) (superiority satisfied where “the [s]ettlement avoids thousands of duplicative lawsuits and enables fast processing of a multitude of claims”). For these reasons, the Court may certify the Settlement Class.

D. The Best Practicable Notice Was Provided

Settlement Class Members have also been provided the best practicable notice. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(c)(2)(B). The best practicable notice is that which is “reasonably calculated, under all the circumstances, to apprise interested parties of the pendency of the action and afford them an opportunity to present their objections.” Mullane v. Cent. Hanover Bank & Trust Co., 339 U.S. 306, 314 (1950). Both the content and the means of dissemination of the notice must satisfy the “best practicable notice” standard.

Foremost here, as of July 31, 2026, the Postcard Notice was sent via first-class mail directly to 488,947⁷ Settlement Class Members. Azari Decl. ¶ 24. Direct mail notice alone typically satisfies due process. UAW v. Gen. Motors Corp., No. 05-cv-73991, 2006 WL 891151, at *34 (E.D. Mich. Mar. 31, 2006) (“Notice by direct mail satisfies due process, even when it is not combined with publication notice”). In addition, however, the Notice Program here includes notice provided on the Settlement Website and through a toll-free telephone number. SA ¶¶ 43, 80-81; 87-88; Azari Decl. ¶¶ 27-28.

Taken together, the Notice Program satisfies Due Process and provides the “best notice that is practicable under the circumstances” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(c)(2)(B); see also, e.g., Pelzer v. Vassale, 655 F. App’x 352, 368 (6th Cir. 2016) (“Class notice [must] be reasonably calculated, under all the circumstances, to apprise interested parties of the pendency of the action and afford them an opportunity to present their objections” and must “fairly apprise the prospective members of the class of the terms of the proposed settlement so that class members may come to their own conclusions about whether the settlement serves their interests”). The Notice Program provided the best notice practicable under the circumstances, and includes all content required by Rule 23 and comports with due process.

V. THE COURT SHOULD GRANT PLAINTIFFS’ APPLICATION FOR ATTORNEYS’ FEES, COSTS, AND SERVICE AWARDS

A. The Court Should Award the Requested Attorneys’ Fees

“[A] litigant or lawyer who recovers a common fund for the benefit of persons other than himself or his client is entitled to a reasonable attorney’s fee from the fund as a whole.” Boeing Co. v. Van Gemert, 444 U.S. 472, 478 (1980). This is known as the “common fund doctrine” and it is premised upon the principle “that persons who obtain the benefit of a lawsuit without contributing to its costs are unjustly enriched at the successful litigant’s expense.” Id.; see also Geier v. Sundquist, 372 F.3d 784 (6th Cir. 2004). “When awarding attorney’s fees in a class action, a court must make sure that counsel is fairly compensated for the amount of work done as well as for the results achieved.” Rawlings v. Prudential-Bache Props., Inc., 9 F.3d 513, 516 (6th Cir. 1993). Rule 23(h) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure also expressly authorizes a court to award “reasonable attorney’s fees and nontaxable costs that are authorized by law or by the parties’ agreement.”

Class Counsel respectfully move this Court for an award of attorneys’ fees of $705,000 as compensation for their efforts on behalf of the Settlement Class in this Action, to be paid from the non-reversionary Settlement Fund. The fee request represents one-third of the total $2,115,000.00 common Settlement Fund. The request is also contemplated by the Settlement Agreement, and Class Counsel apprised the Court of the same in its initial Motion for Preliminary Approval. SA ¶¶ 15, 39, 103; MPA at 7. It was also clearly delineated in the Long Form Notice for Settlement Class awareness. MPA, Ex. 2. Such an award is reasonable under the circumstances and should be approved by the Court.

1. A Percentage of the Common Fund Analysis is Favored and Supports the Reasonableness of Class Counsel’s Fee Request.

The Court should approve attorneys’ fees and expenses to Class Counsel in the amount of one-third of the Settlement Fund. The Sixth Circuit only requires “that awards of attorneys’ fees in common fund cases be reasonable under the circumstances.” Rawlings, 9 F.3d at 516. Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(h) further provides that “[i]n a certified class action, the court may award reasonable attorneys’ fees and nontaxable costs that are authorized by law or the parties’ agreement.”

A district court has discretion to use either the percentage-of-the-fund method or the lodestar method to calculate attorneys' fees. Id.; see also In re CorrectCare Data Breach Litig., 2024 WL 4211480, at *4. If a fee award is reasonable under one of these two methods, it is within the court's discretion, and the court is not required to "cross-check" with the other method. Gashko v. Global Fitness Holdings, LLC, 822 F.3d 269, 282-83 (6th Cir. 2016). The "trend" has been towards using the percentage of the fund method in awarding attorneys' fees. Rawlings, 9 F.3d at 515. "[T]he percentage of the fund method [for awarding fees] more accurately reflects the results achieved." Id. at 516. It has "a number of advantages: it is easy to calculate; it establishes reasonable expectations on the part of plaintiffs' attorneys as to their expected recovery; and it encourages early settlement, which avoids protracted litigation." Id. By contrast, "the lodestar method has been criticized for being too time-consuming of scarce judicial resources." Id. (citing Swedish Hosp. Corp. v. Shalala, 1 F.3d 1261, 1269–70 (D.C. Cir. 1993); Court Awarded Attorneys' Fees, Report of the Third Circuit Task Force, 108 F.R.D. 237, 250 (1985)). Under the lodestar method, "[d]istrict courts must pore over time sheets, arrive at a reasonable hourly rate, and consider numerous factors in deciding whether to award a multiplier." Id. "With the emphasis it places on the number of hours expended by counsel rather than the results obtained, it also provides incentives for overbilling and the avoidance of early settlement." Id.

Here, the percentage-of-the-fund method is the most appropriate and efficient way of determining reasonableness of a requested fee award when a common fund is recovered, and the standard one-third market rate is appropriate here. See, e.g., In re Amazon.com, Inc., Fulfillment Ctr. Fair Lab. Standards Act & Wage & Hour Litig., No. 3:14-CV-204-DJH, 2024 WL 3361639, at *3 (W.D. Ky. July 10, 2024) ("The percentage method is generally preferred in common-fund cases.") (citations omitted). See also In re CorrectCare Data Breach Litig., No. CV 5:22-319-

DCR, 2024 WL 4211480, at *4 (E.D. Ky. Sept. 17, 2024). In Rawlings, the court made it clear that “[w]hen awarding attorney’s fees in a class action, a court must make sure that counsel is fairly compensated for the amount of work done as well as for the results achieved.” 9 F.3d at 516.

“Empirical studies show that, regardless whether the percentage method or the lodestar method is used, fee awards in class actions average around one-third of the recovery.” Shaw v. Toshiba Am. Info. Sys., Inc., 91 F. Supp. 2d 942, 972 (E.D. Tex. 2000). “[C]ourts within this circuit have found one-third common fund attorney’s fee awards to be reasonable” in complex litigation. Ware, 2020 WL 2441415, at *16; see also Hebert v. Chesapeake Operating, Inc., No. 2:17-CV-852, 2019 WL 4574509, at *8 (S.D. Ohio Sept. 20, 2019) (“33% is typical for attorney’s fees in common fund” cases).

In data breach cases in particular, courts have found that an award of one-third of the common fund is customary and typical of like awards. See In re CorrectCare Data Breach Litig., 2024 WL 4211480 (approving one-third attorneys’ fees request in data breach class action); In re Wright & Fillippis, LLC Data Security Breach Litig., No. 2:22-cv-12908-SFC, 2024 WL 3083437 (E.D. Mich. Jun 20, 2024) (same); All. Ophthalmology, PLLC v. ECL Grp., LLC, No. 1:22-CV-296, 2024 WL 3203226, at *15 (M.D.N.C. June 27, 2024) (one-third fee in data breach settlement); see also Lamie v. LendingTree, LLC, No. 22-CV-307, 2024 WL811519, at *2 (W.D.N.C. Feb. 27, 2024) (same); Thomsen v. Morely Cos., No. 22-CV-10271, 2023 WL 3437802, at *2 (E.D. Mich. May 12, 2023) (awarding 33% and finding that amount to be “presumptively reasonable”); In re Forefront Data Breach Litig., No. 21-CV-887, 2023 WL 6215366, at *8 (E.D. Wis. Mar. 22, 2023) (overruling objector and awarding fee of one-third of gross settlement fund and 41% of net settlement fund); In re Novant Health, Inc., No. 1:22-CV-697, 2024 WL 3028443, at *9 (M.D.N.C. June 17, 2024) (awarding class counsel fees of one-third of $6.6 million common fund in data privacy settlement); In re TikTok, Inc., Consumer Priv. Litig., 617 F. Supp. 3d 904, 941 (N.D. Ill. 2022) (approving one-third fee of over $29 million and noting that amount “is typical in other data privacy settlements”), appeal dismissed sub nom. In re Tiktok Inc., Consumer Priv. Litig., No. 22-2682, 2022 WL 19079999 (7th Cir. Oct. 12, 2022).

Thus, under the percentage-of-the-fund method, Class Counsel’s request for one-third of the Settlement Fund is reasonable and would fairly compensate Class Counsel for the amount of work done and results achieved on behalf of the Settlement Class.

2. The Ramey Factors Considered by the Sixth Circuit Further Support the Reasonableness of the Fee Request.

In the Sixth Circuit, six factors, often referred to as the Ramey Factors, govern the reasonableness of class action fees:

(1) the value of the benefit rendered to the plaintiff class...; (2) the value of the services on an hourly basis; (3) whether the services were undertaken on a contingent fee basis; (4) society’s stake in rewarding attorneys who produce such benefits in order to maintain an incentive to others; (5) the complexity of the litigation; and (6) the professional skill and standing of counsel involved on both sides.⁸

Ware v. CKF Enters., Inc., No. 5:19-183-DCR, 2020 WL 2441415, at *15–16 (E.D. Ky. May 12, 2020) (quoting Bowling v. Pfizer, Inc., 102 F.3d 777 (6th Cir. 1996)); see also In re CorrectCare Data Breach Litig., 2024 WL 4211480, at *4, citing Rawlings, 9 F.3d at 516 (“[...][T]he Court need not evaluate each factor in every case—particularly the value of the services on an hourly basis because time records are not being submitted.”) “Empirical studies show that, regardless whether the percentage method or the lodestar method is used, fee awards in class actions average around one-third of the recovery.” Shaw v. Toshiba Am. Info. Sys., Inc., 91 F. Supp. 2d 942, 972

⁸ See Ramey v. Cincinnati Enquirer, Inc., 508 F.2d 1188, 1196 (6th Cir. 1974).

(E.D. Tex. 2000). “[C]ourts within this circuit have found one-third common fund attorney’s fee awards to be reasonable” in complex litigation. Ware, 2020 WL 2441415, at *16; see also Hebert v. Chesapeake Operating, Inc., No. 2:17-CV-852, 2019 WL 4574509, at *8 (S.D. Ohio Sept. 20, 2019) (“33% is typical for attorney’s fees in common fund” cases).

Class Counsel’s requested fee of one-third of the Settlement Fund is appropriate here under the factors considered by the Sixth Circuit.

i. The value of the Settlement Class Member Benefits supports the fee award.

First, the value of the Settlement Class Member Benefits is significant, including both (1) a $2,115,000.00 Settlement Fund and (2) future security commitments by Defendant. SA ¶¶ 64, 72. With respect to the common fund—following the payment of all Settlement Administration Costs, Defendant’s past and future costs of data mining to confirm membership in the Settlement Class, any Service Awards awarded to Class Representatives, attorneys’ fees and costs as awarded to Class Counsel—the Settlement Fund will provide Settlement Class Members with the ability to Claim a Cash Payment for either: (1) Cash Payment A – Documented Losses, which includes a Cash Payment of up to $3,500 per Settlement Class Member and requires the submission of reasonable documentation for losses related to the Data Incident; or (2) Cash Payment B – Alternative Cash, which includes a pro rata Cash Payment of approximately $100 and requires no submission of documentation. Id. ¶¶ 70-71. Settlement Class Members will have until 15 days following the initial scheduled Final Approval Hearing to submit a Claim. Id. ¶ 23. Further still, the Settlement includes Defendant effectuating “Information Security Enhancements” related to information security to safeguard personal information on its systems, the costs of which are the responsibility of Defendant and will not in any way reduce the Settlement Fund. Id. ¶ 72.

It is unlikely that many of the Settlement Class Members would have pursued claims individually. Accordingly, without Class Counsel's efforts, the vast majority of Settlement Class Members would not have been compensated for the Data Incident. In light of this, the Settlement Class Member Benefits provided by the Settlement to the Settlement Class Members are certainly significant. See In re CorrectCare Data Breach Litig., 2024 WL 4211480, at *4 (E.D. Ky. Sept. 17, 2024).

ii. The value of the services on an hourly basis and whether Class Counsel took the matter on a contingent fee basis support the fee request.

As to factors two and three, the value of the services rendered by Class Counsel on behalf of the Settlement Class is exceptional in light of the multitude of benefits they were able to achieve on behalf of the Settlement Class in a relatively short period of time. See Fee Decl. at ¶ 7. Additionally, Class Counsel took this Action on a purely contingent fee basis, meaning they risked never recovering any fee for their time unless the Action was successful. Id. ¶ 16; see also Fulton-Green v. Accolade, Inc., No. CV 18-274, 2019 WL 4677954, at *13 (E.D. Pa. Sept. 24, 2019) (“Class Counsel invested considerable resources into this case with no guarantee that they would recover those costs given that they were retained on a contingency fee basis. This factor again weighs in favor of determining that the fee is reasonable.”); In re CorrectCare Data Breach Litig., 2024 WL 4211480, at *4 (“Class counsel took the case on a contingent basis, investing significant time and effort at the risk of recovering nothing.”). Thus, these factors support the Court granting the requested attorneys’ fees of 33% of the Settlement Fund.

iii. Society’s stake in rewarding Class Counsel supports the requested fee.

The fourth factor considered by the Sixth Circuit also supports Class Counsel’s requested fee. Indeed, society has a stake in rewarding attorneys who produce exceptional benefits in data breach cases such as this because such complex lawsuits serve not only to compensate data breach victims, but also to deter allegedly lax data security practices by other entities and to encourage entities to spend adequately on data security. Accordingly, as the court in In re CorrectCare Data Breach Litig. found, “society has a significant interest in rewarding attorneys who prosecute these cases.” 2024 WL 4211480, at *4 (granting motion for attorneys’ fees seeking one-third of common fund in data breach case).

iv. The complexity of the Action supports the reasonableness of the requested fee award.

The fifth factor also supports the reasonableness of Class Counsel’s requested fee award. Indeed, “courts have acknowledged that data breach cases are particularly complex.” Id. (citing In re TikTok, Inc. Consumer Privacy Litig., 617 F. Supp. 3d 904, 941); Gordon v. Chipotle Mexican Grill, Inc., No. 17-cv-01415-CMA-SKC, 2019 WL 6972701, at *1 (D. Colo. Dec. 16, 2019) (“Data breach cases such as the instant case are particularly risky, expensive, and complex[.]”); see also In re the Home Depot, Inc., Customer Data Sec. Breach Litig., No. 1:14-md-02583-TWT, 2016 WL 6902351, at *5 (N.D. Ga. Aug. 23, 2016) (“Courts presiding over similar cases have recognized that the ‘legal issues involved [in data breach litigation] are cutting-edge and unsettled, so that many resources would necessarily be spent litigating substantive law as well as other issues.’”).

v. The professional skill and standing of counsel on both sides supports the fee request.

Finally, counsel on both sides of the Action are highly skilled in class actions, generally, and data breach class actions, in particular. See Order Consolidating Actions, Appointing Interim Class Counsel, ECF No. 19 (appointing Class Counsel as interim class counsel and observing that “Proposed Counsel’s experience litigating class actions, particularly those involving breach of data, and knowledge of the applicable law further support their ability to serve as interim class counsel[.]”)

3. No Settlement Class Member Has Objected to Class Counsel’s Requested Fee Award.

Although the Objection Period remains open, Class Counsel notes that the Settlement Administrator has thus far received no objections to the Settlement, nor to the requested one-third fee award. Azari Decl. ¶ 30. This also lends additional support to the reasonableness of the request. Stechert v. Travelers Home & Marine Ins. Co., No. 17-cv-0784-KSM, 2022 WL 2304306, at *12 (E.D. Pa. June 27, 2022) (“No one has objected to any part of the Settlement, including to the $1,210,000 carveout for attorneys’ fees. The lack of objection from the Settlement Class weighs in favor of approval.”).

4. A Lodestar Cross-Check Analysis Further Supports the Requested Fee

Although performing a cross-check on the percentage method using Class Counsel’s lodestar is optional and solely within the Court’s discretion, Van Horn v. Nationwide Prop. & Cas. Ins. Co., 436 F. App’x 496, 500 (6th Cir. 2011), courts may perform a lodestar cross-check to ensure counsel does not receive a windfall. Love v. Gannett Co. Inc., No. 3:19-cv-296, 2021 WL 4352800, at *6 (W.D. Ky. Sept. 24, 2021); see also In re Cardinal Health Inc. Sec. Litig., 528 F. Supp. 2d 752, 764 (S.D. Ohio 2007). The purpose of the exercise is “not to supplant the court’s detailed inquiry into the attorney’s skill and efficiency in recovering the settlement” using the percentage of the fund and Ramey factors, but instead merely to ensure that the fee award is still “roughly aligned with the amount of work the attorneys contributed.” Id.

“The Court performs a lodestar cross-check by comparing the lodestar multiplier used in this case to lodestar multipliers used in similar cases.” Id. at 767. “In contrast to employing the lodestar method in full, when using a lodestar cross-check, ‘the hours documented by counsel need not be exhaustively scrutinized by the district court.” Id. (quoting In re WorldCom, Inc. Sec. Litig., 388 F. Supp. 2d 319, 355 (S.D.N.Y. 2005)). The Sixth Circuit has instructed that when “determining fee awards, courts should not ‘become green-eyeshade accountants,’ but instead must content themselves with ‘rough justice.’” Waters v. Pizza to You, LLC, No. 3:19-cv-372, 2022 WL 3048376, at *6 (S.D. Ohio Aug. 2, 2022) (quoting Rembert v. A Plus Home Health Care Agency LLC, 986 F.3d 613, 618 (6th Cir. 2021) (internal punctuation altered)); see also In re Rite Aid Corp. Sec. Litig., 396 F.3d 294, 306 n.16 (3d Cir. 2005) (“the lodestar cross-check is ‘not a full-blown lodestar inquiry’ and a court ‘should be satisfied with a summary of the hours expended by all counsel at various stages with less detailed breakdown than would be required in a lodestar jurisdiction.’”) (quoting Report of the Third Circuit Task Force, Selection of Class Counsel, 208 F.R.D. 340, 423 (2002)).

From November 2024 through the present, Class Counsel and their co-counsel have spent roughly 477.2 hours prosecuting this Litigation. Fee Decl. ¶ 18. Class Counsel will necessarily spend substantial additional time from this point to conclusion of the case, time that will not be reflected in this fee application. Class Counsel and their co-counsel’s current lodestar is $372,546. Id. The hourly rates that form the basis of the lodestar calculation reflect the experience of Class Counsel and have been previously approved by other courts when conducting lodestar crosschecks. Id. Class Counsel sought to efficiently pursue this matter on behalf of Plaintiffs and the Class without duplicating work. Id. The requested $705,000 fee is one-third of the value of the $2,115,000 non-reversionary Settlement Fund. Thus, when cross-checked, the requested fee is equivalent to the application of a current multiplier of approximately 1.89 (i.e., $705,000/$372,546). Id. This multiplier is modest, and by the time this matter is concluded, with significant work yet to be completed (including bringing the Settlement through final approval and overseeing the potential distribution of settlement benefits), it will be even lower and likely approaching 1. Id.

“Because of the inherent risks of litigation, courts in this district award multipliers of ‘between approximately 2.0 and 5.0.’” Karpik v. Huntington Bancshares Inc., No. 2:17-cv-1153, 2021 WL 757123, at *8 (S.D. Ohio Feb. 18, 2021) (citing In re Broadwing, Inc. ERISA Litig., 252 F.R.D. 369, 381 (S.D. Ohio 2016)). The 1.89 current multiplier falls well below the reasonable range. See Dillow v. Home Care Network, Inc., No. 1:16-cv-612, 2018 WL 4776977, at *7 (S.D. Ohio Oct. 3, 2018) (approving 3.06 multiplier and citing cases with multipliers ranging from 4.3 to 8.5)); In re Cardinal Health Inc. Sec. Litig., 528 F. Supp. 2d at 767 (approving 5.9 multiplier); Myers v. Mem’l Health Sys. Marietta Mem’l Hosp., No. 15CV-2956, 2022 WL 4079559, at *6 (S.D. Ohio Sept. 6, 2022) (“Awards of common-fund attorney fees in amounts two to three-times greater than the lodestar have been found reasonable”); Rudi v. Wexner, No. 2:20-cv-3068, 2022 WL 1682297, at *5 (S.D. Ohio May 16, 2022) (“2.75 multiplier falls at the low end of that reasonable range”); Newberg on Class Actions § 14.6 (4th ed. 2009) (“Multiples ranging from one to four frequently are awarded in common fund cases when the lodestar method is applied.”). Accordingly, Class Counsel’s fee request is reasonable based on a percentage of the Settlement Fund, and on the discretionary lodestar cross-check.

B. The Court Should Approve Class Counsel’s Request for Reimbursement of Reasonable Litigation Expenses

In addition to a reasonable award of fees, “[u]nder the common fund doctrine, class counsel is entitled to reimbursement of all reasonable out-of-pocket litigation expenses and costs in the prosecution of claims and settlement, including expenses incurred in connection with document production, consulting with experts and consultants, travel and other litigation-related expenses.”

New England Health Care Emps. Pension Fund v. Fruit of the Loom, Inc., 234 F.R.D. 627, 634–35 (W.D. Ky. 2006), aff’d sub nom. Fidel v. Farley, 534 F.3d 508 (6th Cir. 2008).

Courts recognize that when class counsel prosecutes a case on a contingent basis “without guarantee of reimbursement,” they “ha[ve] a strong incentive to keep costs to a reasonable level.” Tussey v. ABB, Inc., No. 06-CV-04305-NKL, 2019 WL 3859763, at *5 (W.D. Mo. Aug. 16, 2019) (citing In re Marsh ERISA Litig., 265 F.R.D. 128, 150 (S.D.N.Y. 2010) (recognizing that counsel with contingent fee agreement has a “strong incentive to keep expenses at a reasonable level”)). In Kentucky federal court, reimbursement of expenses is well-accepted. See, e.g., In re CorrectCare Data Breach Litig., 2024 WL 4211480, at *5 (granting final approval to class action settlement and finding a request for $12,313.92 in expenses was reasonable).

Here, the requested reimbursement of $23,770.55 in expenses is reasonable. The expenses are all normal costs of litigation, such as the cost of paying for the mediation with Bennett Picker, Esq., court filing fees and pro hac vice fees, and legal research charges. See Fee Decl. at ¶ 19, Ex. A. Because Class Counsel advanced these expenses with no guarantee of any recovery whatsoever, they were incentivized only to incur expenses reasonably necessary to prosecute the Action successfully. The Court should therefore approve the requested reimbursement of expenses. See Sweda v. Univ. of Pa., No. 16-cv-4329, 2021 WL 5907947, at *7 (E.D. Pa. Dec. 14, 2021) (“Attorneys who create a common fund for the benefit of a class are entitled to reimbursement of reasonable litigation expenses from the fund.”) (quoting In re Aetna Inc., No. MDL-1219, 2001 WL 20928, at *13 (E.D. Pa. Jan. 4, 2001)).

C. The Court Should Approve Service Awards of $2,500 to Both Class Representatives

In addition to Class Counsel’s requested attorneys’ fees and expenses, the Court should approve the modest Service Awards of $2,500 to each Class Representative, totaling $5,000.00.

As stated in the Motion for Preliminary Approval, the Settlement Agreement provides that both Class Representatives shall request a $2,500 Service Award for their service to the Settlement Class. SA ¶ 102. Payment for Class Representatives' Service Awards will be distributed from the Settlement Fund. Id.

Courts across the country have found that $2,500 to $10,000 is a typical amount awarded to class representatives, including within the data breach class action litigation context. See, e.g., In re CorrectCare Data Breach Litig., 2024 WL 4211480, at *5 (approving service awards of $2,500 for each of the five plaintiffs); In re Novant Health, Inc., 2024 WL 3028443, at *13 (M.D.N.C. June 17, 2024) (concluding that a $2,500 service award for each of the ten named plaintiffs in a data breach case was fair and reasonable); In re Anthem Data Breach Litig., No. 15-MD-02617-LHK, 2018 WL 3960068, at *31 (noting the “benchmark” presumptively reasonable service award in the Ninth Circuit is $5,000); Caligiuri v. Symantec Corp., 855 F.3d 860, 867 (8th Cir. 2017) (“courts in [the Eighth] [C]ircuit regularly grant service awards of $10,000 or greater”). “The most recent empirical study on incentive awards reviewed approximately 1,200 class actions from 2006 to 2011 and found that the median incentive award per named plaintiff was $5,250 (or $7,125 in 2023 dollars).” Scott v. Dart, 99 F.4th 1076, 1087 (7th Cir. 2024) (citation omitted).

Indeed, “[C]ourts routinely approve incentive awards to compensate named plaintiffs for the services they provided and the risks they incurred during the course of the class action litigation.” Ross v. Jack Rabbit Servs., LLC, No. 3:14-cv-44- DJH, 2016 WL 7320890, at *5 (W.D. Ky. Dec. 15, 2016). Such awards “encourage individuals to undertake the responsibilities and risks of representing the class and recognize the time and effort spent in the case.” In re Anthem, 2018 WL 3960068, at *30 (N.D. Cal. Aug. 17, 2018).

In determining whether to approve such awards, courts within the Sixth Circuit consider the following factors, as set forth in In re CorrectCare Data Breach Litig., 2024 WL 4211480, at *5:

(1) the action taken by the Class Representatives to protect the interests of the Class Members and others and whether these actions resulted in a substantial benefit to Class Members; (2) whether the Class Representatives assumed substantial direct and indirect financial risk; and (3) the amount of time and effort spent by the Class Representatives in pursuing the litigation.

Here, the requested Service Awards of $2,500 to both Plaintiffs is relatively modest and is supported by the relevant factors. First, without the Class Representatives' willingness to reach out to Class Counsel, provide relevant information, review the Complaint, and review and approve the Settlement, there would be no Settlement Class Member Benefits at all. Second, the Settlement Class Members Benefits obtained are substantial, as discussed above, resulting in the opportunity to request a Cash Payment for over 500,000 absent Settlement Class Members who did not step forward to pursue the Action. Third, by putting their names on a class action case filed in federal court, the Class Representatives necessarily exposed themselves to the reputational risk that thousands of people may one day know their names and that their data was breached, as well as the potential stigma of being flagged as "litigious" during background or employment searches.

Now that the Action has succeeded in providing a substantial benefit to the Settlement Class Members, the Class Representatives' role in that achievement should be recognized with a modest $2,500 Service Award.

VI. CONCLUSION

The efforts of Class Counsel expended on behalf of Plaintiffs achieved an excellent Settlement that is fair, adequate, and reasonable, and assures Settlement Class Members of prompt and meaningful relief. The Settlement Agreement is well within the range of approval and complies with the dictates of Rule 23. For these reasons and those detailed herein, Plaintiffs respectfully request that the Court grant their Motion for Final Approval of Class Action Settlement, including their Application for Attorneys' Fees, Costs, and Service Awards, and enter a Final Approval Order in the form submitted herewith.

EXHIBIT A

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF KENTUCKY
LOUISVILLE DIVISION

*In re: One Point Patient Care, LLC, Data
Breach Litigation*

Case No. 3:24-cv-00649-RGJ

Judge Rebecca Grady Jennings

CLASS ACTION

JOINT DECLARATION OF CLASS COUNSEL IN SUPPORT OF PLAINTIFFS’ UNOPPOSED MOTION FOR FINAL APPROVAL OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT AND APPLICATION FOR ATTORNEYS’ FEES, COSTS AND SERVICE AWARDS

We, Tyler Bean, A. Brooke Murphy, Andrew Ferich and Jeff Ostrow, being competent to testify, make the following declaration:

1. We are proposed Class Counsel¹ for the Settlement Class in the above-captioned matter. We submit this declaration in support of Plaintiffs’ Unopposed Motion for Final Approval of Class Action Settlement and Application for Attorneys’ Fees, Costs, and Service Awards (“Motion for Final Approval”). Except as otherwise noted, we have personal knowledge of the facts set forth in this declaration and could testify competently to them if called upon to do so.

2. Plaintiffs Christopher Russo and Shannon Cobb (collectively “Plaintiffs”), on behalf of themselves and on behalf of all other members of the putative class, and Defendant OP Pharmacy, LLD a/k/a OnePoint Patient Care, LLC (“Defendant”) (collectively, the “Parties”) reached an agreement to settle this Action in the terms of which are memorialized in the Settlement Agreement, attached as Exhibit A to the Plaintiffs’ Unopposed Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement. See ECF. No. 30-2.

¹ All capitalized terms herein not separately defined shall have the same meaning ascribed to them in the Settlement Agreement (“SA”). See ECF No. 30-2.

3. After working on behalf of the Settlement Class Members since the Data Incident was first announced, we have evaluated the legal and factual disputes in this case and believe in conjunction with the Class Representatives the Settlement is in the best interests of the Settlement Class Members.

4. Beginning in November of 2024, two class action lawsuits were filed by Plaintiffs against Defendant in response to the Data Incident, which occurred in August 2024. On January 10, 2025, the Court entered an order consolidating the Russo and Howey actions (ECF No. 19), and on April 18, 2025, Plaintiffs filed their Consolidated Complaint (ECF No. 29). Shortly before Plaintiffs' filing of the Consolidated Complaint, on January 24, 2025 the Parties filed a Joint Motion to Stay of All Deadlines Pending Outcome of Mediation. (ECF No. 22). The Court granted the motion on March 3, 2025. (ECF No. 25). The Parties participated in the formal mediation with Bennett Picker, Esq. of Stradley Ronon & Young, LLP on April 9, 2025. Following a full day of negotiations, the Parties reached an agreement on the material terms of a class wide Settlement to resolve all claims arising from the Data Incident.

5. The proposed Settlement was agreed upon following extensive arm's-length negotiations, in good faith and without collusion, by capable and experienced counsel, with full knowledge of the facts, the law, and the inherent risks in the litigation, and with the active involvement of the Parties. Despite reaching the Settlement in the early stages of litigation, Plaintiffs and Class Counsel were able to complete an independent investigation of the facts to reach a full understanding of the value of the case, as well as the attendant risks of continued litigation. Indeed, prior to negotiating the Settlement, and Class Counsel sought and obtained informal discovery from Defendant on a number of topics including: (i) the number of individuals whose Private Information was compromised during the Data Incident; (ii) the categories of Private Information compromised in the Data Incident; (iii) the mechanics and root cause of the Data Incident; and (iv) the terms of any potentially applicable insurance coverage.

6. After the settlement was reached, the Parties worked diligently to: (i) finalize the settlement documentation, including the Settlement Agreement and accompanying exhibits, and Plaintiffs' Unopposed Motion for Preliminary Approval with declarations in support; (ii) solicit bids and mutually agree on a Settlement Administrator; and (iii) ensure the Settlement Class Members receive the best possible notice of the Settlement.

7. The Settlement secures various forms of relief for the Settlement Class Members. The Settlement creates a $2,115,000 non-reversionary Settlement Fund that provides: (1) Cash Payment A – Documented Losses, which includes a Cash Payment of up to $3,500 per Settlement Class Member and requires the submission of reasonable documentation for losses related to the Data Incident; or (2) Cash Payment B – Alternative Cash, which includes a pro rata Cash Payment of approximately $100 and requires no submission of documentation. SA ¶¶ 70-71. Importantly, the Settlement also ensures Defendant has taken certain remedial measures following the Data Incident to protect the continuing interests of Plaintiffs' and Settlement Class Members' data security. Id. ¶ 72.

8. Class Counsel have adequately represented the Settlement Class by: (i) fully investigating the facts and legal claims; (ii) preparing the initial complaints and a Consolidated Complaint; (iii) securing pre-mediation discovery to ensure Class Counsel and Plaintiffs fully understood the scope of the Data Incident prior to negotiating and settling the claims; (iv) participating in a mediation session with Bennett Picker, Esq. of Stradley Ronon & Young, LLP; (v) participating in weeks of negotiations with Defendant's counsel to reach the final terms of the Settlement Agreement; (vi) preparing for and securing preliminary approval of the Settlement;

(vii) collaborating with the Settlement Administrator to ensure Notice was effectively issued; and (viii) continuing to represent the interests of the Settlement Class throughout the Settlement approval process.

9. Plaintiffs have also demonstrated their adequacy by: (i) selecting well-qualified Class Counsel; (ii) producing information and documents to Class Counsel to permit investigation and development of the pleadings; (iii) being available as needed throughout the Action; (iv) monitoring the Action; (v) reviewing pleadings and coordinating with Class Counsel as to the status of, and strategy for, the case and Settlement; (vi) conferring with Class Counsel about the settlement negotiations and providing meaningful input about what potential benefits were most important to them; and (vii) considering and approving the Settlement terms on behalf of the Settlement Class.

10. By the time the Settlement in principle was reached, Plaintiffs and Class Counsel fully understood the claims, defenses, and were well informed of the strengths and weaknesses of the case to competently assess the risks of continued litigation.

11. Plaintiffs and Class Counsel did not discuss the award of attorneys' fees and expenses with Defendant until after the material terms of the Settlement had been agreed upon.

12. After the Settlement was reached, the Parties undertook a competitive bid process to achieve an excellent bid from the selected Settlement Administrator for the Settlement Class—Epiq Class Action & Claims Solutions, Inc. ("Epiq"). This included soliciting cost proposals from multiple different settlement administrators. The Parties selected Epiq after considering bids from multiple administration firms and Epiq was able to meet the obligations imposed under the Settlement Agreement for a reasonable cost. On August 18, 2025, the Court approved Epiq as the Settlement Administrator (ECF. No. 44). Epiq successfully issued Notice of the Settlement, which reached approximately 90% of the Settlement Class.

13. It is Class Counsel's opinion that the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate considering the significant benefits to the Settlement Class as well as the risks and delays attendant to further protracted litigation. Absent a settlement, this case will take years to litigate with briefing and arguing of dispositive motions; engaging and retaining experts; participating in voluminous discovery; participating in additional mediation sessions; and months of continued settlement negotiation. This view is informed by Class Counsel's decades of work litigating complex actions, including data breach class actions.

14. Class Counsel represents there are no agreements related to the Settlement other than those reflected in the Settlement Agreement itself and an agreement with Epiq to perform Notice and settlement administration services following the granting of Preliminary Approval by the Court.

15. It is our opinion that the proposed class action Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate and is an outstanding result for the Settlement Class Members and is worthy of Final Approval.

CLASS COUNSEL'S ATTORNEYS' FEES & EXPENSES ARE REASONABLE

16. Class Counsel undertook this case on a contingency fee basis and have not received any payment to date. Class Counsel have also incurred reasonable litigation expenses that remain unreimbursed. Because of the contingency arrangement, there was a risk that Class Counsel would not recover any compensation for their time or reimbursement for their expenses.

17. Courts within the Sixth Circuit routinely award attorneys' fees up to one-third of the common fund amount. See, e.g., Migliaccio v. Parker Hannifin, Corp., No. 1:22-cv-835, Doc.

42, ¶ 7 (N.D. Ohio Aug. 2, 2023) ($583,333.33 fee award from a $1,750,000 common fund in a data breach class action settlement); Tucker v. Marietta Area Health Care Inc., No. 1:11-cv-184, Doc. 38, ¶ 7 (S.D. Ohio Dec. 8, 2023) ($583,333.33 fee award from a $1,750,000 common fund in a data breach class action settlement); In re CorrectCare Data Breach Litig., No. 5:22-319, 2024 WL 4211480, at *4 (E.D. Ky. Sept. 17, 2024) (approving attorneys' fees of one-third of the $6,490,000 settlement fund); In re Marshall & Melhorn, LLC Data Breach Litig., No 3:23-cv1181, ECF No. 34, ¶ 7 (N.D. Ohio Jan. 13, 2025); Phelps v. Toyotetsu N. Am., No. 6:22-cv-106, Doc. 47, PageID # 542 (E.D. Ky. Oct. 25, 2023) (granting attorneys' fees of one-third of the common fund in a data breach class action settlement).

18. Class Counsel have spent significant time and expenses pursuing this matter on behalf of the Settlement Class. From the initial investigation of this matter through August 7, 2026, Class Counsel have spent approximately 477.2 hours for a lodestar total of $372,546.00, and incurred expenses of $23,770.55 directly related to this Action. See Exhibit A. The hourly rates that form the basis of the lodestar calculation reflect the experience of Class Counsel and are their current customary hourly rates for class action cases. Class Counsel sought to pursue this matter efficiently on behalf of Plaintiffs and the Settlement Class, and without duplicating work. Class Counsel's lodestar of $372,546.00 creates a multiplier of roughly 1.89 to reach Class Counsel's request of $705,000 (one-third of Settlement Fund). Class Counsel will continue to expend substantial time and effort overseeing settlement administration and Claims, attending the Final Approval Hearing, and overseeing the distribution of Cash Payments to the Settlement Class thereafter.

19. To date, Class Counsel have incurred $23,770.55 in reasonable litigation costs and expenses. These costs and expenses all relate to this Action and were necessary for the quality of result achieved. Class Counsel's expenses, as identified in Exhibit A, include the cost of filing, perfecting service, and attending the upcoming Final Approval Hearing. Given the fact that there were two underlying complaints consolidated into this proceeding, these expenses are reasonable and warrant reimbursement.

20. Class Counsel will continue to expend substantial additional time and other minimal expenses continuing to protect the Settlement Class's interest through the Final Approval Hearing and throughout settlement administration. Class Counsel believe that the fee request of $705,000 and expenses of $23,770.55 are reasonable and justified in this case.

21. Class Counsel has tracked the Claims, opt-outs, and objections on this matter on a weekly basis. To date, the Settlement Administrator has received 825 Claims for Cash Payments, zero opt out requests, and no objections. Moreover, no Settlement Class Members have objected to the requested attorneys' fees, expenses, or Service Awards to date. The amount of these requests was clearly communicated to Settlement Class Members in the Settlement Notices.

SIMILAR DATA BREACH SETTLEMENTS

22. Class Counsel's opinion that this $2,115,000 Settlement is fair and reasonable for the roughly 528,452 Settlement Class Members is informed by other data breach class action settlements based on the recovery amount per class member. For example, the following chart identifies the value per class member based on the common fund settlement amount for certain recent cases that also involved sensitive Private Information:

Case	Settlement Amount	Class Size	Average Value Per Class Member
Cochran v. Kroger Co. , No. 5:21-cv-01887 (N.D. Cal.)	$5,000,000	3,825,200	$1.31
Finn v. Empress Ambulance Service Inc. d/b/a Empress EMS , No. 7:22-cv-08101 (S.D.N.Y.)	$1,050,000	307,687	$3.41

Douglas et al. v. PurFoods, LLC , No. 4 :23-cv-00332-RGE-SBJ (S.D. Iowa)	$4,250,000	1,200,000	$3.54
In Re: One Point Patient Care, LLC, Data Breach Litigation, No. 3:24-cv-00649-RGJ (W.D. Ky.)	$2,115,000	528,452	$4.00
Madkin v. Automation Personnel Services, Inc. , No. 2 :21-cv-1177 (N.D. Ala.)	$1,375,000	299,253	$4.59
In re: Southern Ohio Health Systems Data Breach Litigation , No. A2101886 (Ct. of Common Pleas, Hamilton Cty., Ohio)	$1,950,000	420,433	$4.75
Bickham, et al. v. ReproSource Fertility Diagnostics Inc. , No. 1:21-cv-11879-GAO (D. Mass.)	$1,250,000	228,214	$5.48

Class Counsel and Plaintiffs believe that the Settlement in this case is fair and reasonable in that it exceeds or is similar to the settlement amount recovered per class member in other data breach class action settlements.

THE CLASS REPRESENTATIVE SERVICE AWARDS OF $2,500.00 ARE REASONABLE AND JUSTIFIED

23. Plaintiffs have stayed informed about this Action, reviewed and approved the settlement demand and final settlement amount and Settlement Agreement, and spent substantial time and effort protecting the Settlement Class Members' interests. Accordingly, the $2,500 Service Awards to the Class Representatives are reasonable in light of their efforts on behalf of the Settlement Class. Furthermore, the Service Awards are consistent with those approved in other common fund data breach class action settlements. See, e.g., Lutz v. Electromed, Inc., No. 0:21-cv-02198, Doc. 73 (D. Minn. July 6, 2023) (approving $9,900 service award); Tucker v. Marietta

Area Health Care, No. 2:22-cv-00184, Doc. 38 (S.D. Ohio Dec. 7, 2023) (approving $5,000 service awards); Phelps v. Toyotetsu N. Am., No. 6:22-cv-00106, Doc. 47 (E.D. Ky. Oct. 25, 2023) (approving $5,000 service award).

24. Plaintiffs were informed about the status of settlement negotiations and remained engaged as the Class Representatives at all times during the pendency of this Action. They reviewed the allegations in their original complaints, the allegations in the Consolidated Complaint, and reviewed and signed the Settlement Agreement. Class Representatives have no conflicts with the Settlement Class they represent. As indicated by their consent to the Settlement Agreement and any declarations submitted in support of this Settlement, Plaintiffs support the $2,500 Service Awards and Class Counsel's attorneys' fees request of $705,000 and request for reimbursement of litigation expenses of $23,770.55.

THE SETTLEMENT IS FAIR, REASONABLE, AND A SUBSTANTIAL RECOVERY FOR THE SETTLEMENT CLASS

25. Based on our experience serving as class counsel in numerous class action lawsuits, we confirm that the $2,115,000 non-reversionary common fund Settlement is fair and reasonable for approximately 528,452 Settlement Class Members.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF KENTUCKY
LOUISVILLE DIVISION

In Re: OnePoint Patient Care, LLC., Data Breach Litigation

Case No. 3:24-cv-00649-RGJ

Judge Rebecca Grady Jennings

CLASS ACTION

DECLARATION OF CAMERON R. AZARI, ESQ. REGARDING IMPLEMENTATION AND ADEQUACY OF NOTICE PROGRAM

I, Cameron R. Azari, Esq., hereby declare and state as follows:

1. My name is Cameron R. Azari, Esq. I have personal knowledge of the matters set forth herein, and I believe them to be true and correct.

2. I am a nationally recognized expert in the field of legal notice and have served as an expert in hundreds of federal and state cases involving class action notice plans.

3. I am a Senior Vice President of Epiq Class Action & Claims Solutions, Inc. (“Epiq”) and the Managing Director of Epiq Legal Noticing (aka Hilsoft Notifications), a business unit of Epiq that specializes in designing, developing, analyzing, and implementing large-scale, un-biased, legal notification plans.

4. Epiq is an industry leader in class action administration, having implemented more than a thousand successful class action notice and settlement administration matters. Epiq Legal Noticing has handled some of the most complex and significant notice programs in recent history, examples of which are discussed below. With experience in more than 700 cases, including more than 75 multidistrict litigation settlements, Epiq Legal Noticing has prepared notices that have appeared in 53 languages and been distributed in almost every country, territory, and dependency in the world. Courts have recognized and approved numerous notice plans developed by Epiq Legal Noticing, and those decisions have invariably withstood appellate review.

DECLARATION OF CAMERON R. AZARI, ESQ. REGARDING IMPLEMENTATION AND ADEQUACY OF NOTICE PROGRAM

RELEVANT EXPERIENCE

5. I have served as a notice expert and have been recognized and appointed by courts to design and provide notice in many significant cases, including:

a) Rodriguez, et al. v. Google LLC 20-cv-04688 (N.D. Cal.), is a landmark privacy lawsuit for which Epiq implemented an extensive notice program with one of the largest, if not the largest email campaign ever for a class action lawsuit, sending more than 369 million email notices. The email notices were successfully delivered to approximately 93.1% of the class who were sent an email notice. The reach of the individual notice effort was enhanced by a media plan that included digital and social media notice that generated over 178 million impressions, sponsored search listings, and a case website. Overall, the Class Notice Plan reached well in excess of 85% of the Class.

b) In re Juul Labs, Inc. Marketing, Sales Practices, and Products Liability Litigation 19-md-02913 (N.D. Cal.), involved two settlements totaling $300 million for JUUL Labs, Inc. and Altria, which alleged consumers were misled about JUUL products' addictiveness and safety, causing them to pay more, and that JUUL products were unlawfully marketed to minors. Two companion notice programs were implemented with more than 10.7 million email notices and nearly 500,000 postcard notices sent to potential class members and comprehensive media efforts (over 936 million impressions delivered). The notice programs each reached approximately 80% of the class nationwide.

c) In Re: Zoom Video Communications, Inc. Privacy Litigation, 3:20-cv-02155 (N.D. Cal.), involved an extensive notice plan for a $85 million privacy settlement involving Zoom, the most popular videoconferencing platform. Notice was sent to more than 158 million class members by email or mail, and millions of reminder notices were sent to stimulate claim filings. The individual notice efforts reached approximately 91% of the class. A supplemental media campaign provided notice via regional newspaper notice, nationally distributed digital and social media notice (delivering more than 280 million impressions), sponsored search, an informational release, and a settlement website.

d) In re Takata Airbag Products Liability Litigation, MDL No. 2599, 1:15-md-02599 (S.D. Fla.), involved $1.91 billion in settlements with BMW, Mazda, Subaru, Toyota, Honda, Nissan, Ford, and Volkswagen regarding Takata airbags. The notice programs included individual mailed notice to more than 61.8 million potential class members and extensive nationwide media via consumer publications, U.S. Territory newspapers, radio, digital notices, mobile digital notices, and behaviorally targeted digital media. Combined, the notice programs reached more than 95% of adults aged 18+ in the U.S. who owned or leased a subject vehicle, with a frequency of 4.0 times each.

e) In Re: Capital One Consumer Data Security Breach Litigation, MDL No. 2915, 1:19-md-02915 (E.D. Va.), involved an extensive notice program for a $190 million data breach settlement. Notice was sent to more than 93.6 million settlement class members by email or mail. The individual notice efforts reached approximately 96% of the identified settlement class members and were enhanced by a supplemental media plan that included digital and social media notices (delivering more than 123.4 million impressions), sponsored search, and a settlement website.

f) In re: Disposable Contact Lens Antitrust Litigation, 3:15-md-02626 (M.D. Fla.), involved several notice programs to notify retail purchasers of disposable contact lenses for four separate settlements totaling $88 million. For each notice program more than 1.98 million email or postcard notices were sent to potential class members and a comprehensive media plan was implemented, with a well-read nationwide consumer publication, internet digital notices (delivering more than 312.9 million – 461.4 million impressions per campaign), sponsored search listings, and a case website.

g) In re U.S. Office of Personnel Management Data Security Breach Litigation MDL No. 2664, 15-cv-01394 (D.D.C.), involved a $63 million settlement for compromised personal information of then-current and former federal government employees and contractors, and certain applicants for federal employment. An extensive nationwide media notice campaign was implemented using magazines, digital and social media notices (delivering more than 758 million impressions), traditional and satellite radio, and other forms of media. The media notice reached at least 85% of the class. In addition, more than 3.5 million email notices and/or postcard notices were sent to identified class members. The notice program was supplemented with outreach to unions and associations, sponsored search listings, an informational release, and a settlement website.

h) In re: fairlife Milk Products Marketing and Sales Practices Litigation, 1:19-cv-03924 (N.D. Ill.), involved a $21 million settlement against The Coca-Cola Company, fairlife, LLC, and other defendants alleging false labeling and marketing of fairlife milk products. A comprehensive media plan was implemented with a consumer print publication notice, targeted digital and social media notices (delivering more than 620.1 million impressions in English and Spanish nationwide). Combined with individual notice to a small percentage of the class, the notice plan reached approximately 80.2% of the class. The reach was further enhanced by sponsored search, an informational release, and a website.

i) In re: Payment Card Interchange Fee and Merchant Discount Antitrust Litigation, MDL No. 1720 (E.D.N.Y.). Second Circuit affirmed. See Fikes Wholesale, Inc. v. Visa U.S.A., Inc. 62 F.4th 704 (2d Cir. 2023). The case involved a $5.5 billion settlement reached by Visa and MasterCard. An intensive initial notice program included more than 19.8 million direct mail notices sent to potential class members, together with insertions in over 1,500 newspapers, consumer magazines, national business publications, trade and specialty publications, with notices in multiple languages, and a digital notice campaign (delivering more than 770 million adult impressions). Sponsored search listings and a settlement website in eight languages expanded the notice program. For the subsequent settlement reached by Visa and MasterCard, an extensive notice program was implemented, which included over 16.3 million direct mail notices to class members together with more than 354 print publication insertions and digital notices (delivering more than 689 million adult impressions).

j) In re: Oil Spill by the Oil Rig “Deepwater Horizon” in the Gulf of Mexico, on April 20, 2010, MDL No. 2179 (E.D. La.), involved landmark settlement notice programs to distinct “Economic and Property Damages” and “Medical Benefits” settlement classes for BP’s $7.8 billion settlement of claims related to the Deepwater Horizon oil spill. Notice efforts included more than 7,900 television spots, 5,200 radio spots, and 5,400 print insertions and reached over 95% of Gulf Coast residents.

6. I have served as a notice expert and have been recognized and appointed by courts to design and provide notice in numerous data breach and privacy settlements, including:

7. Courts have recognized our testimony as to which method of notification is appropriate for a given case, and I have provided testimony on numerous occasions on whether a certain method of notice represents the best notice practicable under the circumstances. Numerous court opinions and comments regarding my testimony, and the adequacy of our notice efforts, are included in the Epiq Legal Noticing curriculum vitae included as Attachment 1.

8. In forming expert opinions, my staff and I draw from our in-depth class action case experience, as well as our educational and related work experiences. I am an active member of the Oregon State Bar, having received my Bachelor of Science from Willamette University and my Juris Doctor from Northwestern School of Law at Lewis and Clark College. I have served as the Director of Legal Notice for Epiq since 2008 and have overseen the detailed planning of virtually all of our court-approved notice programs during that time. Overall, I have more than 26 years of experience in the design and implementation of legal notification and claims administration programs, having been personally involved in well over one hundred successful notice programs.

9. The facts in this declaration are based on my personal knowledge, as well as information provided to me by my colleagues in the ordinary course of my business at Epiq and Epiq Legal Noticing (hereinafter “Epiq”).

OVERVIEW

10. This declaration describes the successful implementation of the Settlement Notice Program (“Notice Program”) and notices (the “Notice” or “Notices”) for Christopher Russo v. OP Pharmacy, LLC a/k/a OnePoint Patient Care, LLC, Case No. 3:24-cv-00649, in the United States District Court for the Western District of Kentucky. Epiq designed this Notice Program based on our extensive prior experience and research into the notice issues particular to this Settlement.

DATA PRIVACY AND SECURITY

11. Epiq has procedures in place to protect the security of class data. As with all cases, Epiq maintains extensive data security and privacy safeguards in its official capacity as the Settlement Administrator for this Action. A Services Agreement, which formally retains Epiq as the Settlement Administrator, governs Epiq’s administration responsibilities for the Action. Epiq maintains adequate insurance in case of errors.

12. With respect to the data it receives, collects, and otherwise hosts, Epiq serves as a data processor and acts only at the direction of the designated data controller or of the Court, as described in applicable contracts, statements of work, and/or Court documents and Orders. Epiq does not utilize or perform other procedures on personal data provided or obtained as part of services as Settlement Administrator. Epiq does not use any information provided by Settlement Class members for any other purpose than the administration of this Action. Specifically, Settlement Class member information is not used, disseminated, or disclosed by or to any other person for any other purpose unrelated to the administration of this Action.

13. The security and privacy of clients' and class members' information and data are paramount to Epiq. That is why Epiq has invested in a layered and robust set of trusted security personnel, controls, and technology to protect the data we handle. To promote a secure environment for client and class member data, industry leading firewalls and intrusion prevention systems protect and monitor Epiq's network perimeter with regular vulnerability scans and penetration tests. Epiq deploys best-in-class endpoint detection, response, and anti-virus solutions on our endpoints and servers. Strong authentication mechanisms and multi-factor authentication are required for access to Epiq's systems and the data we protect. In addition, Epiq has employed the use of behavior and signature-based analytics as well as monitoring tools across our entire network, which are managed 24 hours per day, 7 days per week, by a team of experienced professionals.

14. Epiq's world class data centers are defended by multi-layered, physical access security, including formal ID and prior approval before access is granted, closed-circuit television ("CCTV"), alarms, biometric devices, and security guards, 24 hours per day, 7 days per week. Epiq manages minimum Tier 3+ data centers in 18 locations worldwide. Our centers have robust environmental controls including uninterruptable power supply ("UPS"), fire detection and suppression controls, flood protection, and cooling systems.

15. Beyond Epiq's technology, our people play a vital role in protecting class members' and our clients' information. Epiq has a dedicated information security team comprised of highly trained, experienced, and qualified security professionals. Our teams stay on top of important security issues and retain important industry standard certifications, like SysAdmin, Audit, Network, and Security (“SANS”), Certified Information Systems Security Professional (“CISSP”), and Certified Information Systems Auditor (“CISA”). Epiq is continually improving security infrastructure and processes based on an ever-changing digital landscape. Epiq also partners with best-in-class security service providers. Our robust policies and processes cover all aspects of information security to form part of an industry leading security and compliance program, which is regularly assessed by independent third parties.

16. Epiq holds several industry certifications including: Trusted Information Security Assessment Exchange (“TISAX”), Cyber Essentials, Privacy Shield, and ISO 27001. In addition to retaining these certifications, we are aligned to Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (“HIPAA”), National Institute of Standards and Technology (“NIST”), and Federal Information Security Management Act (“FISMA”) frameworks. Epiq follows local, national, and international privacy regulations. To support our business and staff, Epiq has a dedicated team to facilitate and monitor compliance with privacy policies. Epiq is also committed to a culture of security mindfulness. All employees routinely undergo cybersecurity trainings to ensure that safeguarding information and cybersecurity vigilance is a core practice in all aspects of the work our teams complete.

17. Upon completion of a project, Epiq continues to host all data until otherwise instructed in writing by a customer to delete, archive or return such data. When a customer requests that Epiq delete or destroy all data, Epiq agrees to delete or destroy all such data; provided, however, that Epiq may retain data as required by applicable law, rule or regulation, and to the extent such copies are electronically stored in accordance with Epiq’s record retention or back-up policies or procedures (including those regarding electronic communications) then in effect. Epiq keeps data in line with client retention requirements. If no retention period is specified, Epiq returns the data to the client or securely deletes it as appropriate.

NOTICE PROGRAM SUMMARY

18. Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23 directs that notice must be “the best notice that is practicable under the circumstances, including individual notice to all members who can be identified through reasonable effort. The notice may be by one or more of the following: United States mail, electronic means, or other appropriate means.”¹ The Notice Program as implemented satisfied these requirements.

19. The Notice Program as designed and implemented reached the greatest practicable number of Settlement Class members. The Notice Program individual notice efforts via mail to identified Settlement Class members has begun and to date has reached approximately 74% of the identified individuals in the Settlement Class. The reach is further enhanced by a Settlement Website. In my experience, the reach of the Notice Program was consistent with other court-approved notice programs, was the best notice practicable under the circumstances, and satisfied the requirements of due process, including its “desire to actually inform” requirement.²

CAFA NOTICE

20. Pursuant to the Class Action Fairness Act, (“CAFA”), 28 U.S.C. §1715, on June 2, 2025, Epiq sent 55 CAFA Notice Packages (“CAFA Notice”). The CAFA Notice was mailed via United States Postal Service (“USPS”) Priority Mail to 51 officials (the Attorneys General of 47 states, the District of Columbia, the Virgin Islands, Puerto Rico, and Guam). Per the direction of the Office of the Nevada, New York, and Connecticut Attorneys General, the CAFA Notice was sent to the Nevada, New York, and Connecticut Attorneys General electronically via email. The CAFA Notice was also sent via United Parcel Service (“UPS”) to the Attorney General of the United States. Details regarding the CAFA Notice mailing are provided in the Declaration of Kyle S. Bingham on Implementation of CAFA Notice, dated June 7, 2025, which is included as Attachment 2.

² Mullane v. Cent. Hanover Bank & Trust Co., 339 U.S. 306, 315 (1950) (“But when notice is a person’s due, process which is a mere gesture is not due process. The means employed must be such as one desirous of actually informing the absentee might reasonably adopt to accomplish it. The reasonableness and hence the constitutional validity of any chosen method may be defended on the ground that it is in itself reasonably certain to inform those affected . . .”).

NOTICE PROGRAM DETAIL

21. On May 28, 2026, the Court approved the Notice Program and appointed Epiq as the Settlement Administrator in the Memorandum Opinion & Order (“Preliminary Approval Order”). In the Preliminary Approval Order, the Court approved, for settlement purposes only, the following “Settlement Class”:

All living individuals residing in the United States whose Private Information may have been accessed during the Data Incident, including those individuals who were sent a notice by OnePoint that their Private Information may have been impacted in the Data Incident.

Excluded from the Settlement Class are (a) officers, directors, and agents of OnePoint; and (b) the Judge assigned to the Action, that Judge’s immediate family, and Court staff.

Data Incident means the cybersecurity incident that took place on or about August 8, 2024, involving the Defendant and resulting in the unauthorized access to or acquisition of Settlement Class members’ Private Information.

22. After the Court’s Preliminary Approval Order was entered, Epiq implemented the Notice Program. This declaration details the notice activities undertaken to date and explains how and why the Notice Program was comprehensive and well-suited to reach the Settlement Class. This declaration also discusses the administration activity to date.

NOTICE PROGRAM

Individual Notice

23. On June 2, 2026, Epiq received four data files with 889,910 records, which included names and postal addresses, if available, (“Class List”). Epiq deduplicated and rolled-up the records and loaded the unique, identified Settlement Class member records into its database for this Settlement. These efforts resulted in 666,735 unique records (of these, 2,817 records did not have an associated postal address, and 174,971 records were general facility addresses and not individual addresses and were removed from the mailing population).

Individual Notice – Direct Mail

24. On June 26, 2026, Epiq commenced sending double Postcard Notices with a detachable claim form (“Postcard Notice”) to identified Settlement Class members for whom an individual, associated postal address was available. As of this declaration, 488,947 Postcard Notices have been sent. The Postcard Notice was sent via USPS first-class mail. The Postcard Notice clearly and concisely summarized the Settlement and the legal rights of the Settlement Class members. In addition, the Postcard Notice also directed the recipients to the Settlement Website where they could access the Long Form Notice and additional information about the Settlement. The Postcard Notice is included as Attachment 3.

25. Prior to sending the Postcard Notices, all mailing addresses were checked against the National Change of Address (“NCOA”) database maintained by the USPS to ensure all address information was up-to-date and accurately formatted for mailing.³ In addition, the addresses were certified via the Coding Accuracy Support System (“CASS”) to ensure the quality of the zip code and verified through Delivery Point Validation (“DPV”) to verify the accuracy of the addresses. This address updating process is standard for the industry and for the majority of promotional mailings that occur today.

26. The return address on the Postcard Notices is a post office box that Epiq maintains for this Settlement. The USPS automatically forwards Postcard Notices with an available forwarding address order that has not expired (“Postal Forwards”). Postcard Notices returned as undeliverable are remailed to any new address available through USPS information, (for example, to the address provided by the USPS on returned mail pieces for which the automatic forwarding order had expired but was still within the time period in which the USPS returned the piece with the address indicated), or to better addresses that are found using a third-party address lookup service. Upon successfully locating better addresses, Postcard Notices are promptly remailed. As of July 31, 2026, Epiq has remailed 188 Postcard Notices.

³ The NCOA database is maintained by the USPS and consists of approximately 160 million permanent change-of-address (COA) records consisting of names and addresses of individuals, families, and businesses who have filed a change-of-address with the Postal Service™. The address information is maintained on the database for 48 months and reduces undeliverable mail by providing the most current address information, including standardized and delivery-point-coded addresses, for matches made to the NCOA file for individual, family, and business moves.

Settlement Website

27. On June 25, 2026, Epiq established a dedicated Settlement Website with an easy to remember domain name (www.OnePointSettlement.com). Relevant documents are posted on the Settlement Website, including the Settlement Agreement, Preliminary Approval Order, Long Form Notice, Claim Form, and other case-related documents. In addition, the Settlement Website includes relevant dates, answers to frequently asked questions (“FAQs”), instructions for how Settlement Class members can opt-out (request exclusion) from or object to the Settlement, instructions for submitting a Claim Form, contact information for the Settlement Administrator, and how to obtain other case-related information. Settlement Class Members are also able to submit a Claim Form on the Settlement Website. The Settlement Website address was prominently displayed in all notice documents. As of July 31, 2026, there have been 1,389 unique visitor sessions to the Settlement Website, and 4,417 web pages have been presented. The Long Form Notice is included as Attachment 4. The Claim Form is included as Attachment 5.

Toll-Free Telephone Number and Other Contact Information

28. On June 25, 2026, a toll-free telephone number (1-844-635-2035) was established for the Settlement. Callers are able to hear an introductory message, have the option to learn more about the Settlement in the form of recorded answers to FAQs, and are able to request a Claim Package be mailed to them. This automated telephone system is available 24 hours per day, 7 days per week. The toll-free telephone number was prominently displayed in all notice documents. As of July 31, 2026, there have been 478 calls to the toll-free telephone number representing 1,110 minutes of use.

29. A postal mailing address and email address were established for the Settlement, and continue to be available to allow Settlement Class members the opportunity to request additional information or ask questions.

Requests for Exclusion and Objections

30. The Opt-Out Period and Objection Period for the Settlement ends on August 24, 2026. As of July 31, 2026, Epiq has received no opt-out requests. As of July 31, 2026, Epiq is aware of no objections to the Settlement.

Claim Submission & Distribution

31. The Notices provided a detailed summary of relevant information about the Settlement, including the Settlement Website and how Settlement Class Members can file a Claim Form online or by mail. With any method of filing a Claim Form, Settlement Class Members are given the option of receiving a digital payment or a traditional paper check. Epiq worked with counsel for the parties to select an appropriate menu of payment options. The type of digital payment selected does not impact Epiq's compensation for its work as the Settlement Administrator, and no digital option is discouraged relative to other options.

32. The deadline for Settlement Class Members to submit a Claim Form is October 8, 2026. As of July 31, 2026, Epiq has received 825 Claim Forms (805 online and 20 paper). Since the October 8, 2026, Claim Form Deadline has not yet passed and is more than two months away, the initial claim filing response is anticipated to increase accordingly as the deadline approaches. As standard practice, Epiq is in the process of conducting a complete quality control review of Claim Forms received. There is a likelihood that after detailed review, the total number of Claim Forms received will change due to duplicate and denied Claim Forms.

PLAIN LANGUAGE NOTICE DESIGN

33. The Notices were designed to be “noticed,” reviewed, and—by presenting the information in plain language—understood by Settlement Class members. The design of the Notices followed the principles embodied in the Federal Judicial Center's (“FJC”) illustrative “model” notices posted at www.fjc.gov. Many courts, and the FJC itself, have approved notices that Epiq's noticing experts have written and designed in a similar fashion. The Notices contained substantial, albeit easy-to-read summaries of all key information about Settlement Class members' rights and options. Consistent with our normal practice, all notice documents underwent a final edit prior to actual mailing and publication for grammatical errors and accuracy.

34. The Notices mailed to all identified Settlement Class members provided substantial information to the Settlement Class. The Notices included (i) details regarding the Settlement Class members' ability to opt-out or object to the Settlement Agreement, (ii) the deadline to opt-out or object, and (iii) the date, time, and location of the Final Approval Hearing, among other information.

CONCLUSION

35. In class action notice planning, execution, and analysis, we are guided by due process considerations under the United States Constitution, by federal and local rules and statutes, and further by case law pertaining to notice. This framework directs that the notice plan be designed to reach the greatest practicable number of potential class members and, in a settlement class action notice situation such as this, that the notice or notice plan itself not limit knowledge of the availability of benefits—nor the ability to exercise other options—to class members in any way. All of these requirements were met in this case.

36. The Notice Program included individual direct notice via mail to identified Settlement Class members. With the address updating protocols that were used, the Notice Program individual notice efforts reached approximately 90% of the identified Settlement Class sent notice, and well over 70% of the total number of records in the initial data. The reach was further enhanced by a Settlement Website. In 2010, the FJC issued a Judges' Class Action Notice and Claims Process Checklist and Plain Language Guide, which is relied upon for federal cases, and is illustrative for state courts. This guide states that, “the lynchpin in an objective determination of the adequacy of a proposed notice effort is whether all the notice efforts together will reach a high percentage of the class. It is reasonable to reach between 70–95%.”⁴ Here, we have developed and implemented a Notice Program that will readily achieve a reach within that standard.

37. The Notice Program followed the guidance for satisfying due process obligations that a notice expert gleans from the United States Supreme Court's seminal decisions, which emphasize the need: (a) to endeavor to actually inform the Settlement Class, and (b) to ensure that notice is reasonably calculated to do so:

⁴ FED. JUDICIAL CTR, JUDGES' CLASS ACTION NOTICE AND CLAIMS PROCESS CHECKLIST AND PLAIN LANGUAGE GUIDE 3 (2010), available at <https://www.fjc.gov/content/judges-class-action-notice-and-claims-process-checklist-and-plain-language-guide-0>.

- a) “[W]hen notice is a person’s due, process which is a mere gesture is not due process. The means employed must be such as one desirous of actually informing the absentee might reasonably adopt to accomplish it,” Mullane v. Central Hanover Trust, 339 U.S. 306, 315 (1950); and
- b) “[N]otice must be reasonably calculated, under all the circumstances, to apprise interested parties of the pendency of the action and afford them an opportunity to present their objections,” Eisen v. Carlisle & Jacquelin, 417 U.S. 156 (1974) (citing Mullane, 339 U.S. at 314).

38. The Notice Program as designed and implemented provided the best notice practicable under the circumstances of this case, conformed to all aspects of Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Rule 23 regarding notice, and satisfied the requirements of due process, including its “desire to actually inform” requirement.

39. The Notice Program schedule afforded sufficient time to provide full and proper notice to Settlement Class members before the Opt-Out Period and Objection Period.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed on August 7, 2026, at Beaverton, Oregon.

Case Expertise

In re Juul Labs, Inc. Marketing, Sales Practices, and Products Liability Litigation 19-md-02913 (N.D. Cal.)

For two settlements totaling $300 million involving JUUL Labs, Inc. and Altria, Epiq designed and implemented cutting-edge, companion notice programs. The settlements alleged consumers were misled about JUUL products' addictiveness and safety, causing them to pay more, and that JUUL products were unlawfully marketed to minors. For the notice programs, over 10.7 million email notices and nearly 500,000 postcard notices were sent to potential class members, and a comprehensive media plan was implemented (over 936 million impressions delivered). The notice programs each reached approximately 80% of the class nationwide with combined individual notice and media notice.

For a $190 million data breach settlement involving Capital One, Epiq implemented an extensive notice program. Notice was sent to over 93.6 million settlement class members by email or mail. The individual notice efforts reached approximately 96% of the identified settlement class members. In addition, a supplemental media campaign was implemented and enhanced the notice program with digital and social media notices (over 123.4 million impressions delivered), sponsored search listings, and a settlement website.

In re Zoom Video Communications, Inc. Privacy Litigation 3:20-cv-02155 (N.D. Cal.)

Epiq designed and implemented an extensive notice program for a $85 million privacy settlement involving Zoom, the most popular video-conferencing platform. Notice was sent to over 158 million class members by email or mail, and millions of reminder notices were sent to stimulate claim filings. The individual notice efforts reached approximately 91% of the class. A supplemental media campaign provided notice via regional newspaper and nationally distributed digital and social media notices (over 280 million impressions delivered), along with sponsored search listings, an informational release, and a settlement website.

For a landmark $5.5 billion settlement reached by Visa and MasterCard, Epiq implemented an extensive initial notice program with over 19.8 million direct mail notices together with insertions in over 1,500 newspapers, consumer magazines, national business publications, and trade and specialty publications, with notices in multiple languages, and a digital notice campaign that generated over 770 million impressions. Sponsored search listings and a website in eight languages expanded the notice efforts. Subsequently, Epiq implemented a notice program with over 16.3 million direct mail notices, over 354 print publication insertions, and digital notices that generated over 689 million impressions.

In re fairlife Milk Products Marketing and Sales Practices Litigation 1:19-cv-03924 (N.D. Ill.)

For a $21 million settlement that involved The Coca-Cola Company, fairlife, LLC, and other defendants regarding allegations of false labeling and marketing of fairlife milk products, Epiq designed and implemented a media based notice program. The program included a consumer print publication notice, targeted digital and social media notices (over 620.1 million impressions delivered in English and Spanish nationwide). Combined with individual notice to a small percentage of the class, the notice program reached approximately 80.2% of the class. Judicial Quotes

Judge Christine P. O'Hearn, In re U.S. Vision Data Breach Litigation (Oct. 15, 2024) 1:22-cv-06558 (D.N.J.):

The Court finds that the Notice Plan, set forth in the Settlement and effectuated pursuant to the Preliminary Approval Order, was the best notice practicable under the circumstances, was reasonably calculated to provide and did provide due and sufficient notice to the Settlement Class Members of the pendency of the Action, certification of the Settlement Class for settlement purposes only, the existence and terms of the Settlement, their right to exclude themselves, their right to object to the Settlement and to appear at the final approval hearing, and satisfied the requirements of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the United States Constitution, and all other applicable law.

Judge Madeline Cox Arleo, In re American Financial Resources, Inc. Data Breach Litigation (Oct. 2, 2024) 22-cv-01757 (D.N.J.):

The Court finds that Notice of the Settlement was timely and properly disseminated and effectuated pursuant to the approved Notice Plan, and that said Notice constitutes the best notice practicable under the circumstances and satisfies all requirements of Rule 23(e) and due process.

Judge Zahid N. Quraishi, In re Lipitor Antitrust Litigation (End Payor) (Oct. 1, 2024) MDL 2332; 3:12-cv-02389 (D.N.J.):

The notices of Settlement . . . that was directed to Class Members constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances and was timely and properly disseminated and effectuated. Pursuant to, and in accordance with, Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the Court hereby finds that the Notice provided Class Members due and adequate notice of the Settlement, the Settlement Agreement, these proceedings, the rights of Class Members to object to the Settlement, and the rights of Class Members to opt out of the Settlement, and satisfied all requirements of Rule 23 and due process.

Judge James B. Clark, III, Hu et al. v. BMW of North America LLC (Sept. 25, 2024) 2:18-cv-04363 (D.N.J.):

Notice to the Settlement Class required by Rule 23(e) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure has been provided in accordance with the Court's Preliminary Approval Order, by sending such Notice by first-class mail and email . . . These individual notice efforts reached approximately 97.9% of the Settlement Class . . . The Settlement Administrator also utilized digital notice and social media and placed the Notice on the settlement website . . . The Court finds that notice (a) constituted the best practicable notice; (b) constituted notice that was reasonably calculated under the circumstances to apprise members of the Settlement Class of the pendency of the Action, or their right to object or to exclude themselves from the proposed Settlement, of their right to appear at the Fairness Hearing and of their right to seek relief; (c) constituted reasonable, due, adequate and sufficient notice to all Persons entitled to receive notice; and (d) met all applicable, requirements of Rule 23(e), due process and any other applicable law. The Court further finds that Settlement Class Members have been provided the best notice practicable of the Settlement and that such notice fully satisfies all requirements of law as well as all requirements of due process.

Judge Susan Illston, Perez et al. v. Discover Bank (Sept. 23, 2024) 3:20-cv-06896 (N.D. Cal.):

The Court finds that the form and means of disseminating notice to the Settlement Class as provided for in the Order Preliminarily Approving Settlement constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances and was directed to Settlement Class Members in accordance with the Court's Order Preliminarily Approving Settlement. The notice provided due and adequate notice of these proceedings to all Settlement Class Members entitled to such notice and satisfied the requirements of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23 and of constitutional due process.

Judge Allen Price Walker, Agnew v. Foris DAX, Inc. d/b/a Crypto.com (Sept. 13, 2023) 2024-CH-00435 (Cir. Ct. Cook Cnty., Ill.):

The Court has determined that the Notice given to the settlement Class Members, in accordance with the Preliminary Approval Order, fully and accurately informed Settlement Class Members of all material elements of the settlement and constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances, and fully satisfied the requirements of 735 ILCS 5/2-803, applicable law, and the Due Process Clauses of the U.S. Constitution and Illinois Constitution.

Judge Patricia M. DeMaio, Beauford v. The Johns Hopkins Hospital, Inc. et al. (Sept. 6, 2024) C-03-CV-23-000501 (Cir. Ct. Baltimore Cnty.):

The notice provided to the Settlement Class pursuant to the Settlement Agreement and order granting Preliminary Approval - including: (i) direct notice to the Settlement Class via email and U.S. mail, based on the comprehensive Settlement Class List provided by Defendants; and (ii) the creation of the Settlement Website fully complied with the requirements of Md. R. Civ. P. Cir. Ct. 2-231 and due process, and was reasonably calculated under the circumstances to apprise the Settlement Class of the pendency of the Action, their right to object to or to exclude themselves from the Settlement Agreement, and their right to appear at the Final Approval Hearing.

Judge Charles S. Treat, Doe v. Clinivate, LLC (Aug. 29, 2024) C22-01620 (Sup. Ct. Cnty. of Contra Costa, Cal.):

The Court finds that Epiq abided by the terms and conditions of the Agreement that pertain to the Clams Administrator, and has provided appropriate notice to all members of the Settlement Class.

Judge Claude M. Hilton, Domitrovich et al. v. M.C. Dean, Inc. (Aug. 27, 2024) 1:23-cv-00210 (E.D. Vir.):

The Court finds and determines that the Notice Program . . . constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances, constituted due and sufficient notice of the matters set forth in the notices to all persons entitled to receive such notices, and fully satisfies the requirements of due process, Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure . . . and all other applicable laws and rules. The Court finds that all of the notices are written in plain language and are readily understandable by Settlement Class Members.

Judge Susan Illston, Moradpour et al. v. Velodyne Lidar, Inc. et al. (Aug. 19, 2024) 3:21-cv-01486 (N.D. Cal.):

The Court hereby finds that the distribution of the Notice and the publication of the Summary Notice as provided for in the Preliminary Approval Order constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances – including individual notice to all Class Members who could be identified through reasonable effort – of those proceedings and of the matters set forth therein, including the proposed Settlement, to all Persons entitled to such notice, and said notice fully satisfied the requirements of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23, the requirements of due process, and any other applicable law . . . Pursuant to and in full compliance with Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the Court finds and concludes that due and adequate notice was directed to all Class Members advising them of the Plan of Allocation and of their right to object, and a full and fair opportunity was given to all Class Members to be heard with respect to the Plan of Allocation.

Judge Christina R. Klineman, In re Goodman Campbell Brain and Spine Data Incident Litigation (Aug. 19, 2024) 49D01-2207-PL-024807 (Ind. Comm. Ct.):

The Court finds that the notice program, set forth in the Settlement Agreement and effectuated pursuant to the Preliminary Approval Order, was the best notice practicable under the circumstances, was reasonably calculated to provide and did provide due and sufficient notice to the Settlement Class of the pendency of the Action, certification of the Settlement Class for settlement purposes only, the existence and terms of the Settlement Agreement, and their right to object and to appear at the final approval hearing or to exclude themselves from the Settlement Agreement, and satisfied the requirements of the Indiana Rules of Civil Procedure, the United States Constitution, and other applicable law.

Judge Jeffrey L. Reed, Doe v. Lima Memorial Hospital et al. (Aug. 12, 2024) CV2022 0490 (Ct. of Common Pleas Allen Cnty., Ohio):

The Court finds that such Notice constitutes the best possible notice practicable under the circumstances and constitutes valid, due and sufficient notice to all Settlement Class Members.

Judge Alison C. Conlon, Mikulecky et al. v. Lutheran Social Services of Illinois (Aug. 8, 2024) 2023-CH-00895 (Cir. Ct. Cook Cnty., Ill.):

The Court has determined that the Notice given to the Settlement Class Members in accordance with the Preliminary Approval Order fully and accurately informed Settlement Class Members of all materials terms of the Settlement and constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances, and fully satisfied the requirements of 735 ILCS 5/2-803, applicable law, and the due process clauses of both the U.S. and Illinois Constitutions.

Judge Benjamin F. Coats, Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. v. Agak (Aug. 5, 2024) 56-2017-00500587 (Sup. Ct. Cnty. of Ventura, Cal.):

The form and means of disseminating the Class Notice as provided for in the Order Preliminarily Approving Settlement and Providing for Notice constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances, including individual notice to all members of the Class who could be identified through reasonable effort. Said Notice provided the best notice practicable under the circumstances of the proceedings and the matters set forth therein, including the proposed Settlement set forth in the Agreement, to all persons entitled to such notice, and said Notice fully satisfied the requirements of California Rules of Civil Procedure and complied with all laws, including, but not limited to, the Due Process Clause of the United States Constitution.

Judge Gretchen Walsh, Finn et al. v. Empress Ambulance Services, LLC (July 31, 2024) 61058/2024 (Sup. Ct. Cnty. of Westchester, N.Y.):

There was a reach of 87.3% of the identified class members (i.e., 265,863 of the 304,362 notices mailed were successfully mailed and not returned to sender). The Court finds that this notice was in full compliance with the Preliminary Approval Order and in accordance with the requirements of New York law and constitutional due process. Furthermore, the result of reaching 87.3% of the Settlement Class is reasonable.

The Court finds that the dissemination of Notice to Settlement Class Members: (a) was successfully implemented in accordance with the Preliminary Approval Order; (b) constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances; (c) constituted notice that was reasonably calculated, under the circumstances, to apprise Class Members of (i) the pendency of the Action; (ii) their right to submit a claim (where applicable) by submitting a Claim Form; (iii) their right to exclude themselves from the Settlement Class; (iv) the effect of the proposed Settlement (including the releases to be provided thereunder); (v) Class Counsel's motion for a Fee Award and Costs and for Service Awards to the Class Representatives; (vi) their right to object to any aspect of the Settlement, and/or Class Counsel's motion for Service Awards to the Class Representatives and for a Fee Award and Costs; (vii) their right to appear at the Final Approval Hearing; (d) constituted due, adequate, and sufficient notice to all natural persons entitled to receive notice of the proposed Settlement; and (e) satisfied the requirements of NY CPLR 901, et seq., the Constitution of the United States (including the Due Process Clause), and all other applicable laws and rules.

Judge James Wesley Hendrix, Lara v. Lubbock Heart Hospital, LLC, dba Lubbock Heart & Surgical Hospital (July 31, 2024) 5:23-cv-00036 (N.D. Tex.):

[T]he Court finds that the notice provided to the class members complied with Rule 23's due process requirements . . . [T]he Court concludes that this notice process comported with due process by providing proper notice to the class members and enabled them to assess whether to object or seek exclusion . . . Almost 90% of class members received direct notice mailed to them of the settlement that identified its key terms, what steps they needed to take to obtain relief, and the consequences of failing to act by certain dates . . . The class members further were given multiple avenues to seek out additional information on the settlement. All of this information was given in plain language, ensuring that the members receiving direct notice were made aware of their rights and the consequences of inaction. Accordingly, the Court concludes that the notice given pursuant to the Court's preliminary approval order provided the class members with the material terms of the settlement and constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances.

Judge Lindsey Robinson Vaala, Morrow et al. v. Navy Federal Credit Union (July 25, 2024) 1:21-cv-00722 (E.D. Va.):

The Notice and Claims Process provided to the Settlement Class in accordance with the Preliminary Approval Order was the best notice practicable under the circumstances and constituted due and sufficient notice of the proceedings and matters set forth therein, to all persons entitled to notice. The Notice and Claims Process fully satisfied the requirements of due process, Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(e)(1), and all other applicable law and rules. No Settlement Class Member has objected to the Settlement.

Judge Marsha J. Pechman, Guy et al. v. Convergent Outsourcing, Inc. (July 19, 2024) 2:22-cv-01558 (W.D. Wash.):

The Court finds and determines that the Notice Program, preliminarily approved on February 20, 2024, and implemented on March 21, 2024, constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances, constituted due and sufficient notice of the matters set forth in the notices to all persons entitled to receive such notices, and fully satisfies the requirements of due process, Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, 28 U.S.C. § 1715, and all other applicable laws and rules. . . The Court further finds that all of the notices are written in plain language and are readily understandable by Settlement Class Members. The Court further finds that notice has been provided to the appropriate state and federal officials in accordance with the requirements of the Class Action Fairness Act, 28 U.S.C. § 1715, drawing no objections.

Judge Katherine A. Bacal, Ward-Howie v. Frontwave Credit Union (July 18, 2024) 37-2022-00016328 (Sup. Ct. Cal. San Diego Cnty., Cal.):

The Court finds that the distribution of the Notice of the Settlement has been completed in conformity with the Court's Preliminary Approval Order. The Court finds that the Notice was the most practicable under the circumstances and provided due and adequate notice of the proceedings and of the terms of the Settlement, and fully satisfied the requirements of California Rules of Court, rules 3.766 and 3.769(f), and Due Process.

Judge Catherine C. Eagles, Farley et al. v. Eye Care Leaders Holding, LLC (June 27, 2024) 1:22-cv-00468 (M.D.N.C.):

The court-approved notice process was reasonable and provided the class members with adequate notice.

Judge William J. Martini, Holden et al. v. Guardian Analytics, Inc. et al. (June 5, 2024) 2:23-cv-2115 (D.N.J.):

The Court finds that such notice as therein ordered constituted the best practicable notice under the circumstances, apprised Settlement Class Members of the pendency of the action, gave them an opportunity to opt out or object, complied with the requirements of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(c)(2), and satisfied due process under the United States Constitution, and other applicable law.

Judge Angelo J. Kappas, Bobo et al. v. Clover Network, LLC (May 29, 2024) 2023CH000168 (18th Jud. Cir., Cir. Ct., Dupage Cnty. Ill.):

[T]he Notice provided to the Settlement Class fully complied with the requirements of 735 ILCS 5/2-803 and due process was reasonably calculated under the circumstances to apprise the Settlement Class of the pendency of the Action, their right to object or to exclude themselves from the Settlement Agreement, and their right to appear at the Final Approval Hearing.

Judge Stanley A. Bastian, Dam v. Perkins Coie, LLP et al. (May 23, 2024) 2:20-CV-00464 (E.D. Wash.):

The notice afforded to Class Members is adequate and sufficient to inform Class Member of their rights.

Judge Angelo J. Kappas, Hoover et al. v. Camping World Group, LLC et al. (May 23, 2024) 2023LA00037 (18th Jud. Cir., Cir. Ct., DuPage Cnty, Ill.):

The Court finds that such Notice as therein ordered, constitutes reasonable notice of the commencement of the action as directed by the Court and meets all applicable requirements of law pursuant to 735 ILCS 5-2/801 and constitutes Due Process under the U.S. and Illinois Constitutions.

Judge Paul L. Maloney, In re Hope College Data Security Breach Litigation (May 20, 2024) 1:22-cv-01224 (W.D. Mich.):

The Court finds that the Class Notice, website, and Notice Plan implemented pursuant to the Settlement Agreement and the Court's Preliminary Approval Order: (a) constituted the best practicable notice; (b) constituted notice that was reasonably calculated, under the circumstances, to apprise Settlement Class Members of the pendency of this Action, of their right to exclude themselves from or object to the proposed Settlement, of their right to appear at the Final Approval Hearing, of Plaintiffs Counsel's application for an award of attorneys' fee and expenses, and of Plaintiffs' application for a Service Award associated with the Action; (c) provided a full and fair opportunity to all Settlement Class Members to be heard with respect to the foregoing matters; and (d) met all applicable requirements of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23, due process, and any other applicable rules or law.

Judge Richard J. Leon, Shaffer et al. v. George Washington University et al. (May 13, 2024) 20-1145 (D.D.C.):

[T]he Court concludes that the notice provided to the Settlement Class...complied with the requirements of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(c)(2) and was reasonably calculated under the circumstances to apprise the Settlement Class of the pendency of the action, their right to object to or to exclude themselves from the Settlement Agreement, and their right to appear at the final approval hearing.

Judicial Quotes

Judge Ann M. Donnelly, In re Canon U.S.A. Data Breach Litigation (May 9, 2024) 1:20-cv-06239 (E.D.N.Y.):

The Court finds that the emailed and mailed notice, publication notice, website, and Class Notice plan implemented pursuant to the Settlement Agreement and Magistrate Judge Sanket J. Bulsara's Preliminary Approval Order: (a) were implemented in accordance with the Preliminary Approval Order; (b) constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances; (c) constituted notice that was reasonably calculated, under the circumstances, to apprise Settlement Class Members of the pendency of this Action, of the effect of the proposed Settlement (including the Releases to be provided thereunder), of their right to exclude themselves from or object to the proposed Settlement, of their right to appear at the Fairness Hearing, of the Claims Process, and of Class Counsel's application for an award of attorneys' fees, for reimbursement of expenses associated with the Action, and any Service Award; (d) provided a full and fair opportunity to all Settlement Class Members to be heard with respect to the foregoing matters; (e) constituted due, adequate and sufficient notice to all persons and entities entitled to receive notice of the proposed Settlement; and (f) met all applicable requirements of Rule 23 of the Federal Rule of Civil Procedure, the United States Constitution, including the Due Process Clause, and any other applicable rules or law.

Judge Christopher R. Cooper, Qureshi et al. v. American University (May 7, 2024) 1:20-cv-01141 (D.D.C.):

The Court further finds that the notice program approved in the Court's Preliminary Approval Order and implemented in accordance with that Order was the best practicable under the circumstances. The notice program was reasonably calculated under the circumstances to apprise the Class of (a) the pendency of the Action; (b) the Court's preliminary certification of the Settlement Class; (c) the terms of the Settlement Agreement and the Settlement Class Members' rights to opt-out of the Settlement Class or to object to the settlement; (d) and the maximum amounts of Class Counsel's expected application for attorneys' fees and request for a Service Award for the Plaintiffs. The notice program provided sufficient notice to all persons entitled to notice. The notice program satisfied all applicable requirements of law, including Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23 and the constitutional requirement of Due Process.

Judge Eric V. Moyé, Patterson et al. v. DPP II LLC et al. (April 29, 2024) DC-23-01733 (Dist. Ct of Dallas Cnty., Tex.):

The Court finds that such Notice as therein ordered, constitutes the best possible notice practicable under the circumstances and constitutes valid, due and sufficient notice to all Settlement Class Members.

Judge Josephine L. Staton, In re Hyundai and Kia Engine Litigation II (April 26, 2024) 8:18-cv-02223 (C.D. Cal.):

The Class Notice was disseminated in accordance with the procedures required by the Court's Orders ..., in accordance with applicable law, and satisfied the requirements of Rule 23(e) and due process and constituted the best notice practicable for the reasons discussed in the Preliminary Approval Order and Final Approval Order.

Judge Elaine P. Lujan, Briscoe et al. v. First Financial Credit Union (April 25, 2024) D-202-CV-2022-02974 (2nd. Jud. Dist. Cnty. of Bernalillo, N.M.):

The Court has determined that the Notice given to the Settlement Class Members in accordance with the Preliminary Approval Order fully and accurately informed Settlement Class Members of all material terms of the Settlement and constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances, and fully satisfied the requirements of Rule 1-023, applicable law, and the due process clauses of both the U.S. and New Mexico Constitutions.

Judge Eleanor L. Ross, Sherwood et al. v. Horizon Actuarial Services, LLC (April 2, 2024) 1:22-cv-01495 (N.D. Ga.):

The Court's Preliminary Approval Order approved the Short Form Settlement Notice, Long Form Notice, Claim Form, and found the mailing, distribution, and publishing of the various notices as proposed met the requirements of Fed. R. Civ. P. 23 and due process, and was the best notice practicable under the circumstances, constituting due and sufficient notice to all persons entitled to notice. The Court finds that the distribution of the Notices has been achieved pursuant to the Preliminary Approval Order and the Settlement Agreement, and that the Notice to Class Members complied with Fed. R. Civ. P. 23 and due process.

Judge Denise L. Cote, In re Waste Management Data Breach Litigation (Mar. 15, 2024) 1:21-cv-06199 (S.D. N.Y.):

The Court finds and concludes that the Postcard Notice, Detailed Notice, Claim Form, Settlement Website, and all other aspects of the Notice Program, opt-out, and claims submission procedures set forth in the Settlement Agreement fully satisfied Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the requirements of due process, were the best notice practicable under the circumstances, and support the Court's exercise of jurisdiction over the Settlement Class.

Judge Douglas L. Rayes, Medina et al. v. PracticeMax, Inc. (Mar. 14, 2024) CV-22-01261 (D. Ariz.):

The Court's Preliminary Approval Order approved the Short Form Settlement Notice, Long Form Notice, Claim Form, and found the mailing, distribution, and publishing of the various notices as proposed met the requirements of Fed. R. Civ. P. 23 and due process, and was the best notice practicable under the circumstances, constituting due and sufficient notice to all persons entitled to notice.

Judge William H. Orrick, In re Juul Labs, Inc., Marketing, Sales Practices, and Products Liability Litigation (Altria Settlement) (Mar. 14, 2024) 19-md-02913 (N.D. Cal.):

Notice of the Altria Settlement was provided by: (1) direct notice via email to those Settlement Class Members for whom an email address was available; (2) direct notice via postcard mailed to those Settlement Class Members for whom a physical mailing address was available but an email address was not available; (3) publication notice of the Settlement, which comprised 409,315,597 impressions, targeted at likely Settlement Class Members served across relevant internet websites and social media platforms; and (4) publication on the settlement website. In total, the Notice Plan is estimated to have reached at least 80% of Settlement Class Members. The Court finds that the Notice Plan provided the best practicable notice to the Settlement Class Members and satisfied the requirements of due process.

Judge Aleta A. Trauger, Bandy v. TOC Enterprises, Inc. d/b/a Tennessee Orthopaedic Clinics, a division of Tennessee Orthopaedic Alliance, P.A. (Mar. 14, 2024) 3:23-cv-00598 (M.D. Tenn.):

The Court finds that such Notice as therein ordered, constitutes the best possible notice practicable under the circumstances and constitutes valid, due, and sufficient notice to all Class Members in compliance with the requirements of Rule 23(c)(2). The Court finds that the notice program was reasonably calculated to, and did, provide due and sufficient notice to the Class of the pendency of the Action, certification of the Class for settlement purposes only, the existence and terms of the Settlement Agreement, and their rights to object to and appear at the Final Fairness Hearing or to exclude themselves from the Settlement, and satisfied the requirements of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the United States Constitution, and all other applicable law.

Judicial Quotes

Judge Allen Price Walker, Sayas et al. v. Biometric Impressions Corp., (Mar. 6, 2024) 2020 CH 00201 (Cir. Ct. Cook Cnty. Ill.):

Notice to the Settlement Class was provided in accordance with the Court's Preliminary Approval Order, and the substance of and dissemination program for the Notice which included direct notice via U.S. Mail and email (where available), and by substitute media notification according to a targeted media campaign designed by the Settlement Administrator, and the creation of the Settlement Website... provided the best practicable notice under the circumstances. The Notice was reasonably calculated, under the circumstances, to apprise the Settlement Class of the pendency of the Action and their rights to object to or exclude themselves from the Settlement and to appear at the Final Approval Hearing. Therefore, the Notice was reasonable and constituted due, adequate, and sufficient notice to all persons entitled to receive notice and fulfilled the requirements of 735 ILCS 5/2-803, due process, and the rules of the Court.

Judge Angel Kelley, Fiorentino v. Flosports, Inc., (Mar. 5, 2024) 1:22-cv-11502 (D. Mass.):

The Court finds that the notice program, as set forth in Section 4 of the Settlement Agreement and effectuated pursuant to the Court's August 23, 2023 Preliminary Approval Order (Doc No. 63) and November 6, 2023 Order Granting Joint Motion for Extension of Time (Doc No. 65), satisfies the requirements of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(c) and due process and constitutes the best notice practicable under the circumstances and shall constitute due and sufficient notice to the Settlement Class of (i) the pendency of the Action and of the Settlement, including the terms thereof; (ii) class members' rights to object to or exclude themselves from the Settlement, including the procedure for objecting to or opting out of the Settlement, and to appear at the Final Approval Hearing; (iii) contact information for Class Counsel, the Settlement Administrator, the Settlement Website, and a toll-free number to ask questions about the Settlement; (iv) important dates in the settlement approval process, including the date of the Final Approval Hearing; (v) Class Counsel's request for an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses; and (vi) the Class Representative's application for a service award.

Judge David O. Carter, Nielsen v. Walt Disney Parks and Resorts U.S., Inc., (Mar. 4, 2024) 8:21-cv-02055 (C.D. Cal.):

The Court finds that the Class Notice plan provided for in the Settlement Agreement and effectuated pursuant to the Preliminary Approval Order: (i) was the best notice practicable under the circumstances; (ii) was reasonably calculated to provide, and did provide, due and sufficient notice to the Settlement Class regarding the existence and nature of this case, certification of the Settlement Class for settlement purposes only, the existence and terms of the Settlement Agreement, and the rights of Settlement Class members to exclude themselves from the settlement, to object and appear at the Final Approval Hearing, and to receive benefits under the Settlement Agreement; and (iii) satisfied the requirements of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the United States Constitution, and all other applicable law.

Judge Craig Schwall, Mayheu et al. v. Chick-fil-A Inc., (Feb. 29, 2024) 2022CV365400 (Sup. Ct. Fulton Cnty., Ga.):

The Court finds that the distribution of the Class Notice and notice methodology was properly implemented in accordance with O.C.G.A. § 9-11-23(c)(2), the terms of the Agreement, and the Preliminary Approval Order. The Court finds that the Class Notice was simply written and readily understandable and that the Class Notice (a) constitutes the best notice practicable under the circumstances; (b) constitutes notice that was reasonably calculated, under the circumstances, to apprise the Settlement Class and Settlement Subclasses of the Agreement and their right to exclude themselves or object to the Agreement and to appear at the Fairness Hearing; (c) is reasonable and constitutes due, adequate, and sufficient notice to all persons entitled to notice; and (d) meets all applicable requirements of Georgia law, the Uniform Superior Court Rules, and all other applicable law and due process requirements.

Judge Sheila D. Stinson, Nimsey v. Tinker Federal Credit Union, (Feb. 23, 2024) CJ-2019-6084 (Dist. Ct. Oklahoma Cnty., Okla.):

Judge Charles S. Treat, Service et al. v Volkswagen Group of America et al. (May 31, 2023) c22-01841 (Sup. Ct. Cal. Cnty. of Contra Costa):

Class Notice was provided to the Class in accordance with the Preliminary Approval Order and satisfied the requirements of due process, California Code of Civil Procedure section 382 and rule 3.766 of the California Rules of Court and: (a) provided the best notice practicable; and (b) was reasonably calculated under the circumstances to apprise Settlement Class Members of the pendency of the Action, the terms of the settlement, their right to appear at the Final Approval Hearing, their right to object to the settlement, and their right to exclude themselves from the settlement. The Court finds that the Notice Plan set forth in the SA and effectuated pursuant to the Preliminary Approval Order constitutes the best notice practicable under the circumstances and shall constitute due and sufficient notice to the Settlement Class of the pendency of the Action, certification of the Settlement Class, the terms of the SA, and the Final Approval Hearing, and satisfies the requirements of California law and due process of law.

Judge Erin B. O'Connell, McCullough v. True Health New Mexico, Inc. (May 30, 2023) d-202-cv-2021-06816 (2nd Dist. Ct, N.M.):

The Court has determined that the Notice given to the Settlement Class members in accordance with the Preliminary Approval Order fully and accurately informed Settlement Class members of all material terms of the Settlement and constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances, and fully satisfied the requirements of Rule 1-023, applicable law, and the due process clauses of both the U.S. and New Mexico Constitutions.

Judge Greg Hill, Meier v. Prosperity Bank (May 23, 2023) 109569-CV (239th Jud. Dist., Brazoria Cnty., Tex.):

The Court finds that Notice to the Settlement Class was the best notice practicable and complied with the requirements of Due Process, and that the Notice Program was completed in compliance with the Preliminary Approval Order and the Agreement.

Judge Thomas L. Ludington, Thomsen et al. v. Morley Cos, Inc. (May 12, 2023) 1:22-cv-10271 (E.D. Mich.):

Class notice was sent as ordered, the time for objections passed, and a final-approval hearing was held to determine whether the Agreement is "fair, reasonable, and adequate" under Rule 23(e)(2) on April 19, 2023...In sum, the Settlement Agreement and Class Notice satisfy all the relevant factors.

Judge Roseann A. Ketchmark, Rogowski et al. v. State Farm Life Insurance Company et al. (April 18, 2023) 4:22-cv-00203 (W.D. Mo.):

[T]he Court confirms the Class Notice was implemented in accordance with the Court's December 16, 2022 preliminary approval order.... The Court further confirms its prior findings that the form and substance of the notice meet, and have met, the requirements of Rule 23(c) and the Due Process Clause of the United States Constitution.

Judge Gregory W. Pollack, In re Scripps Health Data Incident Litigation (April 7, 2023) 37-2021-00024103 (Sup. Ct. Cal. Cnty. of San Diego):

The Court finds that...Notice (i) was reasonable and constituted the best practicable notice under the circumstances; (ii) was reasonably calculated, under the circumstances, to apprise Settlement Class Members of the pendency of the Action, the terms of the Settlement including its release of Released Claims, their right to exclude themselves from the Settlement Class or object to all or any part of the Settlement, their right to appear at the Final Approval Hearing (either on their own or through counsel hired at their own expense), and the binding effect of final approval of the Settlement on all persons who do not exclude themselves from the Settlement Class; (iii) constituted due, adequate, and sufficient notice to all persons entitled to receive notice; and (iv) fully satisfied the requirements of California Code of Civil Procedure § 382, the United States Constitution (including the Due Process Clause), and any other applicable law.

Judge Christopher C. Conner, Chapman v. Insight Global LLC (April 6, 2023) 1:21-cv-00824 (M.D. Penn.):

The Court finds that the distribution of the mail and publication Notices to Class Members as set forth in the Declaration of Claims Administrator was in compliance with the Court's October 27, 2022 Order approving the proposed class notices and notice plan, and that notice has been given in an adequate and sufficient manner; constitutes the best notice practicable under the circumstances; and satisfies Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23 and due process...Defendant has provided notice of the settlement to the appropriate government officials pursuant to the Class Action Fairness Act of 2005 ("CAFA"), 28 U.S.C. § 1715.

Judge William P. Dimitrouleas, South et al. v. Progressive Select Insurance Company (March 31, 2023) 19-21760-CIV (S.D. Fla.):

The Notice program was the best notice practicable under the circumstances. The Notice program provided due and adequate notice of the proceedings and of the matters set forth therein, including the proposed Settlement set forth in the Agreement, to all persons entitled to such notice and said Notice fully satisfied the requirements of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the United States Constitution, which include the requirement of due process.

Judge Douglas R. Cole, Middleton et al. v. Liberty Mutual Personal Insurance Company et al. (Mar. 15, 2023) 1:20-cv-00668 (S.D. Ohio):

The Court hereby finds that the Notice Plan and the Class Notice constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances, and constituted valid, due and sufficient notice to members of the Settlement Classes.

Judge Jennifer P. Wilson, Miller v. Bath Saver, Inc. et al. (Mar. 6, 2023) 1:21-cv-01072 (M.D. Penn.):

The Notice and the Notice Plan implemented pursuant to the Agreement (1) constitute the best practicable notice under the circumstances; (2) constitute notice that is reasonably calculated, under the circumstances, to apprise members of the Settlement Class of the pendency of the Litigation, their right to object to or exclude themselves from the proposed Settlement, and to appear at the Final Approval Hearing; (3) are reasonable and constitute due, adequate, and sufficient notice to all Persons entitled to receive notice; and (4) meet all applicable requirements of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the Due Process Clause of the United States Constitution, and the rules of the Court.

Judge David O. Carter, In re California Pizza Kitchen Data Breach Litigation (Feb. 22, 2023) 8:21-cv-01928 (C.D. Cal.):

The Court finds that the Class Notice plan provided for in the Settlement Agreement and effectuated pursuant to the Preliminary Approval Order: (i) was the best notice practicable under the circumstances; (ii) was reasonably calculated to provide, and did provide due and sufficient notice to the Settlement Class regarding the existence and nature of the Consolidated Cases, certification of the Settlement Class for settlement purposes only, the existence and terms of the Settlement Agreement, and the rights of Settlement Class members to exclude themselves from the settlement, to object and appear at the Final Approval Hearing, and to receive benefits under the Settlement Agreement; and (iii) satisfied the requirements of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the United States Constitution, and all other applicable law.

Judge David Knutson, Duggan et al. v. Wings Financial Credit Union (Feb. 3, 2023) 19AV-cv-20-2163 (Dist. Ct., Dakota Cnty., Minn.):

The Court finds that notice of the Settlement to the Class was the best notice practicable and complied with the requirements of Due Process.

Judge Clarence M. Darrow, Rivera v. IH Mississippi Valley Credit Union (Jan. 26, 2023) 2019 CH 299 (Cir. Ct 14th Jud. Cir., Rock Island Cnty., Ill.):

The Court finds that the distribution of the Notices and the notice methodology were properly implemented in accordance with the terms of the Settlement Agreement and the Preliminary Approval Order. The Court further finds that the Notice was simply written and readily understandable and Class members have received the best notice practicable under the circumstances of the pendency of this action, their right to opt out, their right to object to the settlement, and all other relevant matters. The notices provided to the class met all requirements of due process, 735 ILCS 5/8-2001, et seq., and any other applicable law.

Judge Andrew M. Lavin, Brower v. Northwest Community Credit Union (Jan. 18, 2023) 20CV38608 (Ore. Dist. Ct. Multnomah Cnty.):

This Court finds that the distribution of the Class Notice was completed in accordance with the Preliminary Approval/Notice Order, signed September 8, 2022, was made pursuant to ORCP 32 D, and fully met the requirements of the Oregon Rules of Civil Procedure, due process, the United States Constitution, the Oregon Constitution, and any other applicable law.

Judge Gregory H. Woods, Torretto et al. v. Donnelley Financial Solutions, Inc. and Mediant Communications, Inc. (Jan. 5, 2023) 1:20-cv-02667 (S.D.N.Y.):

The Court finds that the notice provided to the Class Members was the best notice practicable under the circumstances, and that it complies with the requirements of Rule 23(c)(2).

Judge Ledricka Thierry, Opelousas General Hospital Authority v. Louisiana Health Service & Indemnity Company d/b/a Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Louisiana (Dec. 21, 2022) 16-C-3647 (27th Jud. D. Ct. La.):

Notice given to Class Members and all other interested parties pursuant to this Court's order of October 31, 2022, was reasonably calculated to apprise interested parties of the pendency of the action, the certification of the Class as defined, the terms of the Settlement Agreement, Class Members rights to be represented by private counsel, at their own costs, and Class Members' rights to appear in Court to have their objections heard, and to afford persons or entities within the Class definition an opportunity to exclude themselves from the Class. Such notice complied with all requirements of the federal and state constitutions, including the Due Process Clause, and applicable articles of the Louisiana Code of Civil Procedure, and constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances and constituted due and sufficient notice to all potential members of the Class as defined..."

Judge Dale S. Fischer, DiFlauro et al. v. Bank of America, N.A. (Dec. 19, 2022) 2:20-cv-05692 (C.D. Cal.):

The form and means of disseminating the Class Notice as provided for in the Order Preliminarily Approving Settlement and Providing for Notice constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances, including individual notice to all Members of the Class who could be identified through reasonable effort. Said Notice provided the best notice practicable under the circumstances of the proceedings and the matters set forth therein, including the proposed Settlement set forth in the Agreement, to all persons entitled to such notice, and said Notice fully satisfied the requirements of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23 and complied with all laws, including, but not limited to, the Due Process Clause of the United States Constitution.

Judge Stephen R. Bough, Browning et al. v. Anheuser-Busch, LLC (Dec. 19, 2022) 4:20-cv-00889 (W.D. Mo.):

The Court has determined that the Notice given to the Classes, in accordance with the Notice Plan in the Settlement Agreement and the Preliminary Approval Order, fully and accurately informed members of the Classes of all material elements of the Settlement and constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances, and fully satisfied the requirements of due process, Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23, and all applicable law. The Court further finds that the Notice given to the Classes was adequate and reasonable.

Judge Robert E. Payne, Haney et al. v. Genworth Life Insurance Co. et al. (Dec. 12, 2022) 3:22-cv-00055 (E.D. Va.):

The Court preliminarily approved the Amended Settlement Agreement on July 7, 2022, and directed that notice be sent to the Class. ECF No. 34. The Notice explained the policy election options afforded to class members, how they could communicate with Class Counsel about the Amended Settlement Agreement, their rights and options thereunder, how they could examine certain information on a website that was set up as part of the settlement process, and their right to object to the proposed settlement and opt out of the proposed case. Class members were also informed that they could contact independent counsel of their choice for advice.

In assessing the adequacy of the Notice, as well as the fairness of the settlement itself, it is important that, according to the record, as of November 1, 2022, the Notice reached more than 99% of the more than 352,000 class members. All things considered, the Notice is adequate under the applicable law....

Judge Danielle Viola, Dearing v. Magellan Health, Inc. et al. (Dec. 5, 2022) CV2020-013648 (Sup. Ct. Cnty. Maricopa, Ariz.):

The Court finds that the Notice to the Settlement Class fully complied with the requirements of the Arizona Rules of Civil Procedure and due process, has constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances, was reasonably calculated to provide, and did provide, due and sufficient notice to Settlement Class Members regarding the existence and nature of the Litigation, certification of the Settlement Class for settlement purposes only, the existence and terms of the Settlement Agreement, the rights of Settlement Class Members to exclude themselves from or object to the Settlement, the right to appear at the Final Fairness Hearing, and to receive benefits under the Settlement Agreement.

Judge Michael A. Duddy, Churchill et al. v. Bangor Savings Bank (Dec. 5, 2022) BCD-CIV-2021-00027 (Maine Bus. & Consumer Ct.):

The Class Notice provided to the Settlement Class in accordance with the Preliminary Approval Order was the best notice practicable under the circumstances, and constituted due and sufficient notice of the proceedings and matters set forth therein, to all persons entitled to notice.

Judge Andrew Schulman, Guthrie v. Service Federal Credit Union (Nov. 22, 2022) 218-2021-CV-00160 (Sup. Ct. Rockingham Cnty., N.H.):

The notice given to the Settlement Class of the Settlement and the other matters set forth therein was the best notice practicable under the circumstances, including individual notice to all Settlement Class Members who could be identified through reasonable effort. Said notice provided due and adequate notice of these proceedings and of the matters set forth in the Agreement, including the proposed Settlement, to all Persons entitled to such notice, and said notice fully satisfied the requirements of New Hampshire law and due process.

Judge Charlene Edwards Honeywell, Stoll et al. v. Musculoskeletal Institute, Chartered d/b/a Florida Orthopaedic Institute (Nov. 14, 2022) 8:20-cv-01798 (M.D. Fla.):

The Court finds and determines that the Notice Program, preliminarily approved on May 16, 2022, and implemented on June 15, 2022, constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances, constituted due and sufficient notice of the matters set forth in the notices to all persons entitled to receive such notices, and fully satisfies the requirements of due process, Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, 28 U.S.C. § 1715, and all other applicable laws and rules. The Notice Program involved direct notice via e-mail and postal mail providing details of the Settlement, including the benefits available, how to exclude or object to the Settlement, when the Final Fairness Hearing would be held, and how to inquire further about details of the Settlement. The Court further finds that all of the notices are written in plain language and are readily understandable by Class Members. The Court further finds that notice has been provided to the appropriate state and federal officials in accordance with the requirements of the Class Action Fairness Act, 28 U.S.C. § 1715, drawing no objections.

Judge Thomas W. Thrash, Jr., Callen v. Daimler AG and Mercedes-Benz USA, LLC (Nov. 7, 2022) 1:19-cv-01411 (N.D. Ga.):

The Court finds that notice was given in accordance with the Preliminary Approval Order (Dkt. No. 79), and that the form and content of that Notice, and the procedures for dissemination thereof, afforded adequate protections to Class Members and satisfy the requirements of Rule 23(e) and due process and constitute the best notice practicable under the circumstances.

The Court finds that the Class Notice Program implemented pursuant to the Settlement Agreement and the Order preliminarily approving the Settlement ... (i) constituted the best practicable notice, (ii) constituted notice that was reasonably calculated under the circumstances to apprise Settlement Class Members of the pendency of the Litigation, of their right to object to or exclude themselves from the proposed Settlement, of their right to appear at the Fairness Hearing, and of their right to seek monetary and other relief, (iii) constituted reasonable, due, adequate, and sufficient notice to all persons entitled to receive notice, and (iv) met all applicable requirements of due process and any other applicable law.

Judge Ethan P. Schulman, Rodan & Fields LLC; Gorzo et al. v. Rodan & Fields, LLC (Sept. 28, 2022) CJC-18-004981, CIVDS 1723435 & CGC-18-565628 (Sup. Ct. Cnty. of San Bernadino, Cal. & Sup. Ct. Cnty. of San Francisco, Cal.):

The Court finds the Full Notice, Email Notice, Postcard Notice, and Notice of Opt-Out (collectively, the "Notice Packet") and its distribution to Class Members have been implemented pursuant to the Agreement and this Court's Preliminary Approval Order. The Court also finds the Notice Packet: a) Constitutes notice reasonably calculated to apprise Class Members of: (i) the pendency of the class action lawsuit; (ii) the material terms and provisions of the Settlement and their rights; (iii) their right to object to any aspect of the Settlement; (iv) their right to exclude themselves from the Settlement; (v) their right to claim a Settlement Benefit; (vi) their right to appear at the Final Approval Hearing; and (vii) the binding effect of the orders and judgment in the class action lawsuit on all Participating Class Members; b) Constitutes notice that fully satisfied the requirements of Code of Civil Procedure section 382, California Rules of Court, rule 3.769, and due process; c) Constitutes the best practicable notice to Class Members under the circumstances of the class action lawsuit; and d) Constitutes reasonable, adequate, and sufficient notice to Class Members.

Judge Anthony J. Trenga, In re Capital One Customer Data Security Breach Litigation (Sept. 13, 2022) MDL No. 1:19-md-2915, 1:19-cv-02915 (E.D. Va.):

Pursuant to the Court's direction, the Claims Administrator appointed by the Court implemented a robust notice program ... The Notice Plan has been successfully implemented and reached approximately 96 percent of the Settlement Class by the individual notice efforts alone.... Targeted internet advertising and extensive news coverage enhanced public awareness of the Settlement.

The Court finds that the Notice Program has been implemented by the Settlement Administrator and the Parties in accordance with the requirements of the Settlement Agreement, and that such Notice Program, including the utilized forms of Notice, constitutes the best notice practicable under the circumstances and satisfies due process and the requirements of Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. The Court finds that the Settlement Administrator and Parties have complied with the directives of the Order Granting Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement and Directing Notice of Proposed Settlement and the Court reaffirms its findings concerning notice

The Court finds that the emailed and mailed notice, publication notice, website, and Class Notice plan implemented pursuant to the Settlement Agreement and Judge Analisa Torres' Preliminary Approval Order: (a) were implemented in accordance with the Preliminary Approval Order; (b) constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances; (c) constituted notice that was reasonably calculated, under the circumstances, to appraise Settlement Class Members of the pendency of this Action, of the effect of the proposed Settlement (including the Releases to be provided thereunder), of their right to exclude themselves from or object to the proposed Settlement, of their right to appear at the Fairness Hearing, of the Claims Process, and of Class Counsel's application for an award of attorneys' fees, for reimbursement of expenses associated with the Action, and any Service Award; (d) provided a full and fair opportunity to all Settlement Class Members to be heard with respect to the foregoing matters; (e) constituted due, adequate and sufficient notice to all persons and entities entitled to receive notice of the proposed Settlement; and (f) met all applicable requirements of Rule 23 of the Federal Rule of Civil Procedure, the United States Constitution, including the Due Process Clause, and any other applicable rules of law.

Judge Denise Page Hood, Bleachtech L.L.C. v. United Parcel Service Co. (July 20, 2022) 14-cv-12719 (E.D. Mich.):

The Settlement Class Notice Program, consisting of, among other things, the Publication Notice, Long Form Notice, website, and toll-free telephone number, was the best notice practicable under the circumstances. The Notice Program provided due and adequate notice of the proceedings and of the matters set forth therein, including the proposed settlement set forth in the Settlement Agreement, to all persons entitled to such notice and said notice fully satisfied the requirements of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the United States Constitution, which include the requirement of due process.

Judge Robert E. Payne, Skochin et al. v. Genworth Life Insurance Company et al. (June 29, 2022) 3:21-cv-00019 (E.D. Va.):

The Court finds that the plan to disseminate the Class Notice and Publication Notice the Court previously approved has been implemented and satisfies the requirements of Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(c)(2)(B) and due process. The Class Notice, which the Court approved, clearly defined the Class and explained the rights and obligations of the Class Members. The Class Notice explained how to obtain benefits under the Settlement, and how to contact Class Counsel and the Settlement Administrator. The Court appointed Epiq Class Action & Claims Solutions, Inc. ("Epiq") to fulfill the Settlement Administrator duties and disseminate the Class Notice and Publication Notice. The Class Notice and Publication Notice permitted Class Members to access information and documents about the case to inform their decision about whether to opt out of or object to the Settlement.

Judge Laurel Beeler, In re Zoom Video Communications, Inc. Privacy Litigation (Apr. 21, 2022) 20-cv-02155 (N.D. Cal.):

Between November 19, 2021, and January 3, 2022, notice was sent to 158,203,160 class members by email (including reminder emails to those who did not submit a claim form) and 189,003 by mail. Of the emailed notices, 14,303,749 were undeliverable, and of that group, Epiq mailed notice to 296,592 class members for whom a physical address was available. Of the mailed notices, efforts were made to ensure address accuracy and currency, and as of March 10, 2022, 11,543 were undeliverable. In total, as of March 10, 2022, notice was accomplished for 144,242,901 class members, or 91% of the total. Additional notice efforts were made by newspaper ... social media, sponsored search, an informational release, and a Settlement Website. Epiq and Class Counsel also complied with the court's prior request that best practices related to the security of class member data be implemented.

[T]he Settlement Administrator provided notice to the class in the form the court approved previously. The notice met all legal prerequisites: it was the best notice practicable, satisfied the requirements of Rule 23(c)(2), adequately advised class members of their rights under the settlement agreement, met the requirements of due process, and complied with the court's order regarding court notice. The forms of notice fairly, plainly, accurately, and reasonably provided class members with all required information

Judge Federico A. Moreno, In re Takata Airbag Products Liability Litigation (Volkswagen) (Mar. 28, 2022) MDL No. 2599 (S.D. Fla.):

[T]he Court finds that the Class Notice has been given to the Class in the manner approved by the Court in its Preliminary Approval Order ... The Court finds that such Class Notice: (i) is reasonable and constitutes the best practicable notice to Class Members under the circumstances; (ii) constitutes notice that was reasonably calculated, under the circumstances, to apprise Class Members of the pendency of the Action and the terms of the Settlement Agreement, their right to exclude themselves from the Class or to object to all or any part of the Settlement Agreement, their right to appear at the Fairness Hearing (either on their own or through counsel hired at their own expense) and the binding effect of the orders and Final Order and Final Judgment in the Action, whether favorable or unfavorable, on all persons and entities who or which do not exclude themselves from the Class; (iii) constitutes due, adequate, and sufficient notice to all persons or entities entitled to receive notice; and (iv) fully satisfied the requirements of the United States Constitution (including the Due Process Clause), FED. R. CIV. P. 23 and any other applicable law as well as complying with the Federal Judicial Center's illustrative class action notices.

Judge James Donato, Pennington et al. v. Tetra Tech, Inc. et al. (Mar. 28, 2022) 3:18-cv-05330 (N.D. Cal.):

On the Rule 23(e)(1) notice requirement, the Court approved the parties' notice plan, which included postcard notice, email notice, and a settlement website. Dkt. No. 154. The individual notice efforts reached an impressive 100% of the identified settlement class. Dkt. No. 200-223. The Court finds that notice was provided in the best practicable manner to class members who will be bound by the proposal. Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(1).

Judge Edward J. Davila, Cochran et al. v. The Kroger Co. et al. (Mar. 24, 2022) 5:21-cv-01887 (N.D. Cal.):

The Court finds that the dissemination of the Notices: (a) was implemented in accordance with the Preliminary Approval Order; (b) constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances; (c) constituted notice that is appropriate, in a manner, content, and format reasonably calculated, under the circumstances, to apprise Settlement Class Members ...; (d) constituted due, adequate, and sufficient notice to all Persons entitled to receive notice of the proposed Settlement; and (e) satisfied the requirements of Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the Constitution of the United (including the Due Process Clause), and all other applicable laws and rules.

Judge Sunshine Sykes, In re Renovate America Finance Cases (Mar. 4, 2022) RICJCCP4940 (Sup. Ct. of Cal., Riverside Cnty.):

The Court finds that notice previously given to Class Members in the Action was the best notice practicable under the circumstances and satisfies the requirements of due process ... The Court further finds that, because (a) adequate notice has been provided to all Class Members and (b) all Class Members have been given the opportunity to object to, and/or request exclusion from, the Settlement, the Court has jurisdiction over all Class Members.

Judge David O. Carter, Fernandez v. Rushmore Loan Management Services LLC (Feb. 14, 2022) 8:21-cv-00621 (C. D. Cal.):

Notice was sent to potential Class Members pursuant to the Settlement Agreement and the method approved by the Court. The Class Notice adequately describes the litigation and the scope of the involved Class. Further, the Class Notice explained the amount of the Settlement Fund, the plan of allocation, that Plaintiff's counsel and Plaintiff will apply for attorneys' fees, costs, and a service award, and the Class Members' option to participate, opt out, or object to the Settlement. The Class Notice consisted of direct notice via USPS, as well as a Settlement Website where Class Members could view the Long Form Notice.

Judge Otis D. Wright, II, In re Toll Roads Litigation (Feb. 11, 2022) 8:16-cv-00262 (C. D. Cal.):

The Class Administrator provided notice to members of the Settlement Classes in compliance with the Agreements, due process, and Rule 23. The notice: (i) fully and accurately informed class members about the lawsuit and settlements; (ii) provided sufficient information so that class members were able to decide whether to accept the benefits offered, opt-out and pursue their own remedies, or object to the proposed settlements; (iii) provided procedures for class members to file written objections to the proposed settlements, to appear at the hearing, and to state objections to the proposed settlements; and (iv) provided the time, date, and place of the final fairness hearing. The Court finds that the Notice provided to the Classes pursuant to the Settlement Agreements and the Preliminary Approval Order and consisting of individual direct postcard and email notice, publication notice, settlement website, and CAFA notice has been successful and (i) constituted the best practicable notice under the circumstances; (ii) constituted notice that was reasonably calculated, under the circumstances, to apprise Class Members of the pendency of the Action, their right to object to the Settlements or exclude themselves from the Classes, and to appear at the Final Approval Hearing; (iii) was reasonable and constituted due, adequate, and sufficient notice to all persons entitled to receive notice; and (iv) otherwise met all applicable requirements of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the Due Process Clause of the United States Constitution, and the rules of the Court.

Judge Virginia M. Kendall, In re Turkey Antitrust Litigations (Commercial and Institutional Indirect Purchaser Plaintiffs' Action) Sandee's Bakery d/b/a Sandee's Catering Bakery & Deli et al. v. Agri Stats, Inc. (Feb. 10, 2022) 1:19-cv-08318 (N.D. Ill.):

The notice given to the Settlement Class, including individual notice all members of the Settlement Class who could be identified through reasonable efforts, was the most effective and practicable under the circumstances. This notice provided due and sufficient notice of proceedings and of the matters set forth therein, including the proposed Settlement, to all persons entitled to such notice, and this notice fully satisfied the requirements of Rules 23(c)(2) and 23(e)(1) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the requirements of due process.

Judge Beth Labson Freeman, Ford et al. v. [24]7.ai, Inc. (Jan. 28, 2022) 5:18-cv-02770 (N.D. Cal.):

The Court finds that the manner and form of notice (the "Notice Program") set forth in the Settlement Agreement was provided to Settlement Class Members. The Court finds that the Notice Program, as implemented, was the best practicable under the circumstances. The Notice Program was reasonably calculated under the circumstances to apprise the Settlement Class of the pendency of the Action, class certification, the terms of the Settlement, and their rights to opt-out of the Settlement Class and object to the Settlement, Class Counsel's fee request, and the request for Service Award for Plaintiffs. The Notice and notice program constituted sufficient notice to all persons entitled to notice. The Notice and notice program satisfy all applicable requirements of law, including, but not limited to, Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23 and the constitutional requirement of due process.

Judge Terrence W. Boyle, Abramson et al. v. Safe Streets USA LLC et al. (Jan. 12, 2022) 5:19-cv-00394 (E.D.N.C.):

Notice was provided to Settlement Class Members in compliance with Section 4 of the Settlement Agreement, due process, and Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. The notice: (a) fully and accurately informed Settlement Class Members about the Actions and Settlement Agreement; (b) provided sufficient information so that Settlement Class Members could decide whether to accept the benefits offered, opt-out and pursue their own remedies, or object to the settlement; (c) provided procedures for Settlement Class Members to submit written objections to the proposed settlement, to appear at the hearing, and to state objections to the proposed settlement; and (d) provided the time, date, and place of the Final Approval Hearing.

Judge Joan B. Gottschall, Mercado et al. v. Verde Energy USA, Inc. (Dec. 17, 2021) 1:18-cv-02068 (N.D. Ill.):

Epiq mailed and emailed notice to the Class on October 1, 2021. Therefore, direct notice was sent and delivered successfully to the vast majority of Class Members. The Class Notice, together with all included and ancillary documents thereto, complied with all the requirements of Rule 23(c)(2)(B) and fairly, accurately, and reasonably informed members of the Class of: (a) appropriate information about the nature of this Litigation, including the class claims, issues, and defenses, and the essential terms of the Settlement Agreement; (b) the definition of the Class; (c) appropriate information about, and means for obtaining additional information regarding, the lawsuit and the Settlement Agreement; (d) appropriate information about, and means for obtaining and submitting, a claim; (e) appropriate information about the right of Class Members to appear through an attorney, as well as the time, manner, and effect of excluding themselves from the Settlement, objecting to the terms of the Settlement Agreement, or objecting to Lead and Class Counsel's request for an award of attorneys' fees and costs, and the procedures to do so; (f) appropriate information about the consequences of failing to submit a claim or failing to comply with the procedures and deadline for requesting exclusion from, or objecting to, the Settlement; and (g) the binding effect of a class judgment on Class Members under Rule 23(c)(3) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

The Court finds that Class Members have been provided the best notice practicable of the Settlement and that such notice fully satisfies all requirements of applicable laws and due process.

Judge Patricia M. Lucas, Wallace v. Wells Fargo (Nov. 24, 2021) 17CV317775 (Sup. Ct. Cal. Cnty. of Santa Clara):

On August 29, 2021, a dedicated website was established for the settlement at which class members can obtain detailed information about the case and review key documents, including the long form notice, postcard notice, settlement agreement, complaint, motion for preliminary approval . . . As of October 18, 2021, there were 2,639 visitors to the website and 4,428 website pages presented.

On August 30, 2021, a toll-free telephone number was established to allow class members to call for additional information in English or Spanish, listen to answers to frequently asked questions, and request that a long form notice be mailed to them . . . As of October 18, 2021, the telephone number handled 345 calls, representing 1,207 minutes of use, and the settlement administrator mailed 30 long form notices as a result of requests made via the telephone number.

Also, on August 30, 2021, individual postcard notices were mailed to 177,817 class members . . . As of November 10, 2021, 169,404 of those class members successfully received notice.

Judge John R. Tunheim, In re Pork Antitrust Litigation (Commercial and Institutional Indirect Purchaser Plaintiff Action) (JBS USA Food Company, JBS USA Food Company Holdings) (Nov. 18, 2021) 18-cv-01776 (D. Minn.):

The notice given to the Settlement Class, including individual notice to all members of the Settlement Class who could be identified through reasonable effort, was the most effective and practicable under the circumstances. This notice provided due and sufficient notice of the proceedings and of the matters set forth therein, including the proposed settlement, to all persons entitled to such notice, and this notice fully satisfied the requirements of Rules 23(c)(2) and 23(e)(1) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the requirements of due process.

Judge H. Russel Holland, Coleman v. Alaska USA Federal Credit Union (Nov. 17, 2021) 3:19-cv-00229 (D. Alaska):

The Court approved Notice Program has been fully implemented. The Court finds that the Notices given to the Settlement Class fully and accurately informed Settlement Class Members of all material elements of the proposed Settlement and constituted valid, due, and sufficient Notice to Settlement Class Members consistent with all applicable requirements. The Court further finds that the Notice Program satisfies due process.

Judge A. Graham Shirley, Zanca et al. v. Epic Games, Inc. (Nov. 16, 2021) 21-CVS-534 (Sup. Ct. Wake Cnty., N.C.):

Notice has been provided to all members of the Settlement Class pursuant to and in the manner directed by the Preliminary Approval Order. The Notice Plan was properly administered by a highly experienced third-party Settlement Administrator. Proof of the provision of that Notice has been filed with the Court and full opportunity to be heard has been offered to all Parties to the Action, the Settlement Class, and all persons in interest. The form and manner of the Notice is hereby determined to have been the best notice practicable under the circumstances and to have been given full compliance with each of the requirements of North Carolina Rule of Civil Procedure 23, due process, and applicable law.

Judge Judith E. Levy, In re Flint Water Cases (Nov. 10, 2021) 5:16-cv-10444 (E.D. Mich.):

(1) a “Long Form Notice packet [was] mailed to each Settlement Class member ... a list of over 57,000 addresses—[and] over 90% of [the mailings] resulted in successful delivery;” (2) notices were emailed “to addresses that could be determined for Settlement Class members;” and (3) the “Notice Administrator implemented a comprehensive media notice campaign.” ... The media campaign coupled with the mailing was intended to reach the relevant audience in several ways and at several times so that the class members would be fully informed about the settlement and the registration and objection process.

The media campaign included publication in the local newspaper . . . local digital banners . . . television . . . and radio spots . . . banner notices and radio ads placed on Pandora and SoundCloud; and video ads placed on YouTube . . . [T]his settlement has received widespread media attention from major news outlets nationwide.

Plaintiffs submitted an affidavit signed by Azari that details the implementation of the Notice plan The affidavit is bolstered by several documents attached to it, such as the declaration of Epiq Class Action and Claims Solutions, Inc.’s Legal Notice Manager, Stephanie J. Fiereck. Azari declared that Epiq “delivered individual notice to approximately 91.5% of the identified Settlement Class" and that the media notice brought the overall notice effort to "in excess of 95%." The Court finds that the notice plan was implemented in an appropriate manner.

In conclusion, the Court finds that the Notice Plan as implemented, and its content, satisfies due process.

Judge Vince Chhabria, Yamagata et al. v. Reckitt Benckiser LLC (Oct. 28, 2021) 3:17-cv-03529 (N.D. Cal.):

The Court directed that Class Notice be given to the Class Members pursuant to the notice program proposed by the Parties and approved by the Court. In accordance with the Court's Preliminary Approval Order and the Court-approved notice program, the Settlement Administrator caused the forms of Class Notice to be disseminated as ordered. The Long-form Class Notice advised Class Members of the terms of the Settlement Agreement; the Final Approval Hearing, and their right to appear at such hearing; their rights to remain in, or opt out of, the Settlement Class and to object to the Settlement Agreement; procedures for exercising such rights; and the binding effect of this Order and accompanying Final Judgment, whether favorable or unfavorable, to the Settlement Class.

The distribution of the Class Notice pursuant to the Class Notice Program constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances, and fully satisfies the requirements of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23, the requirements of due process, 28 U.S.C. § 1715, and any other applicable law.

Judge Otis D. Wright, II, Silveira v. M&T Bank (Oct. 12, 2021) 2:19-cv-06958 (C.D. Cal.):

Notice was sent to potential class members pursuant to the Settlement Agreement and the method approved by the Court. The Class Notice consisted of direct notice via USPS first class mail, as well as a Settlement Website where Class Members could view and request to be sent the Long Form Notice. The Class Notice adequately described the litigation and the scope of the involved class. Further, the Class Notice explained the amount of the Settlement Fund, the plan of allocation, that Plaintiffs' counsel and Plaintiff will apply for attorneys' fees, costs, and a service award, and the class members' option to participate, opt out, or object to the settlement.

Judge Timothy J. Korrigan, Smith v. Costa Del Mar, Inc. (Sept. 21, 2021) 3:18-cv-01011 (M.D. Fla.):

Following preliminary approval, the settlement administrator carried out the notice program The settlement administrator sent a summary notice and long-form notice to all class members, sent CAFA notice to federal and state officials ... and established a website with comprehensive information about the settlement Email notice was sent to class members with email addresses, and postcards were sent to class members with only physical addresses Multiple attempts were made to contact class members in some cases, and all notices directed recipients to a website where they could access settlement information A paid online media plan was implemented for class members for whom the settlement administrator did not have data When the notice program was complete, the settlement administrator submitted a declaration stating that the notice and paid media plan reached at least seventy percent of potential class members [N]otices had been delivered via postcards or email to 939,400 of the 939,479 class members to whom the settlement administrator sent notice—a ninety-nine and a half percent deliverable rate....

Notice was disseminated in accordance with the Preliminary Approval Order Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(c)(2)(B) requires that notice be "the best notice that is practicable under the circumstances." Upon review of the notice materials ... and of Azari's Declaration ... regarding the notice program, the Court is satisfied with the way in which the notice program was carried out. Class notice fully complied with Rule 23(c)(2)(B) and due process, constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances, and was sufficient notice to all persons entitled to notice of the settlement of this lawsuit.

Judge Jose E. Martinez, Kukorinis v. Walmart, Inc. (Sept. 20, 2021) 1:19-cv-20592 (S.D. Fla.):

[T]he Court approved the appointment of Epiq Class Action and Claims Solutions, Inc. as the Claims Administrator with the responsibility of implementing the notice requirements approved in the Court's Order of Approval The media plan included various forms of notice, utilizing national consumer print publications, internet banner advertising, social media, sponsored search, and a national informational release According to the Azari Declaration, the Court-approved Notice reached approximately seventy-five percent (75%) of the Settlement Class on an average of 3.5 times per Class Member

Pertinently, the Claims Administrator implemented digital banner notices across certain social media platforms, including Facebook and Instagram, which linked directly to the Settlement Website ... the digital banner notices generated approximately 522.6 million adult impressions online [T]he Court finds that notice was "reasonably calculated, under the circumstances, to apprise interested parties of the pendency of the action and afford them an opportunity to present their objections."

Judge Steven L. Tiscione, Fiore et al. v. Ingenious Designs, LLC (Sept. 10, 2021) 1:18-cv-07124 (E.D.N.Y.):

Following the Court's Preliminary Approval of the Settlement, the Notice Plan was effectuated by the Parties and the appointed Claims Administrator, Epiq Systems. The Notice Plan included a direct mailing to Class members who could be specifically identified, as well as nationwide notice by publication, social media and retailer displays and posters. The Notice Plan also included the establishment of an informational website and toll-free telephone number. The Court finds the Parties completed all settlement notice obligations imposed in the Order Preliminarily Approving Settlement. In addition, Defendants through the Class Administrator, sent the requisite CAFA notices to 57 federal and state officials. The class notices constitute "the best notice practicable under the circumstances," as required by Rule 23(c)(2).

Judge John S. Meyer, Lozano v. CodeMetro, Inc. (Sept. 8, 2021) 37-2020-00022701 (Sup. Ct. Cal. Cnty. of San Diego):

The Court finds that Notice has been given to the Settlement Class in the manner directed by the Court in the Preliminary Approval Order. The Court finds that such Notice: (i) was reasonable and constituted the best practicable notice under the circumstances; (ii) was reasonably calculated, under the circumstances, to apprise Settlement Class Members of the pendency of the Litigation, the terms of the Settlement, their right to exclude themselves from the Settlement Class or object to all or any part of the Settlement, their right to appear at the Final Fairness Hearing (either on their own or through counsel hired at their own expense), and the binding effect of final approval of the Settlement on all persons who do not exclude themselves from the Settlement Class; (iii) constituted due, adequate, and sufficient notice to all persons or entities entitled to receive notice; and (iv) fully satisfied the requirements of the United States Constitution (including the Due Process Clause), and any other applicable law.

Judge Mae A. D'Agostino, Thompson et al. v. Community Bank, N.A. (Sept. 8, 2021) 8:19-cv-0919 (N.D.N.Y.):

Prior to distributing Notice to the Settlement Class members, the Settlement Administrator established a website, ... as well as a toll-free line that Settlement Class members could access or call for any questions or additional information about the proposed Settlement, including the Long Form Notice. Once Settlement Class members were identified via Defendant's business records, the Notices attached to the Agreement and approved by the Court were sent to each Settlement Class member. For Current Account Holders who have elected to receive bank communications via email, Email Notice was delivered. To Past Defendant Account Holders, and Current Account Holders who have not elected to receive communications by email or for whom the Defendant does not have a valid email address, Postcard Notice was delivered by U.S. Mail. The Settlement Administrator mailed 36,012 Postcard Notices and sent 16,834 Email Notices to the Settlement Class, and as a result of the Notice Program, 95% of the Settlement Class received Notice of the Settlement.

Judge Anne-Christine Massullo, UFCW & Employers Benefit Trust v. Sutter Health et al. (Aug. 27, 2021) CGC 14-538451 consolidated with CGC-18-565398 (Sup. Ct. Cnty. of San Francisco, Cal.):

The notice of the Settlement provided to the Class constitutes due, adequate and sufficient notice and the best notice practicable under the circumstances, and meets the requirements of due process, the laws of the State of California, and Rule 3.769(f) of the California Rules of Court.

Judge Graham C. Mullen, In re Kaiser Gypsum Company, Inc. et al. (July 27, 2021) 16-cv-31602 (W.D.N.C.):

Judge Anne-Christine Massullo, Morris v. Provident Credit Union (June 23, 2021) CGC-19-581616 (Sup. Ct. Cal. Cnty. of San Fran.):

The Notice approved by this Court was distributed to the Classes in substantial compliance with this Court's Order Certifying Classes for Settlement Purposes and Granting Preliminary Approval of Class Settlement

("Preliminary Approval Order") and the Agreement. The Notice met the requirements of due process and California Rules of Court, rules 3.766 and 3.769(f). The notice to the Classes was adequate.

Judge Esther Salas, Sager et al. v. Volkswagen Group of America, Inc. et al. (June 22, 2021) 18-cv-13556 (D.N.J.):

The Court further finds and concludes that Class Notice was properly and timely disseminated to the Settlement Class in accordance with the Class Notice Plan set forth in the Settlement Agreement and the Preliminary Approval Order (Dkt. No. 69). The Class Notice Plan and its implementation in this case fully satisfy Rule 23, the requirements of due process and constitute the best notice practicable under the circumstances.

Judge Josephine L. Staton, In re Hyundai and Kia Engine Litigation and Flaherty v. Hyundai Motor Company, Inc. et al. (June 10, 2021) 8:17-cv-00838 and 18-cv-02223 (C.D. Cal.):

The Class Notice was disseminated in accordance with the procedures required by the Court's Orders ... in accordance with applicable law and satisfied the requirements of Rule 23(e) and due process and constituted the best notice practicable for the reasons discussed in the Preliminary Approval Order and Final Approval Order.

Judge Harvey Schlesinger, In re Disposable Contact Lens Antitrust Litigation (ABB Concise Optical Group, LLC) (May 31, 2021) 3:15-md-02626 (M.D. Fla.):

The Court finds that the dissemination of the Notice: (a) was implemented in accordance with the Preliminary Approval Order; (b) constitutes the best notice practicable under the circumstances; (c) constitutes notice that was reasonably calculated, under the circumstances, to apprise the Settlement Class of (i) the pendency of the Action; (ii) the effect of the Settlement Agreement (including the Releases to be provided thereunder); (iii) Class Counsel's possible motion for an award of attorneys' fees and reimbursement of expenses; (iv) the right to object to any aspect of the Settlement Agreement, the Plan of Distribution, and/or Class Counsel's motion for attorneys' fees and reimbursement of expenses; (v) the right to opt out of the Settlement Class; (vi) the right to appear at the Fairness Hearing; and (vii) the fact that Plaintiffs may receive incentive awards; (d) constitutes due, adequate, and sufficient notice to all persons and entities entitled to receive notice of the Settlement Agreement; and (e) satisfies the requirements of Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the United States Constitution (including the Due Process Clause).

Judge Haywood S. Gilliam, Jr. Richards et al. v. Chime Financial, Inc. (May 24, 2021) 4:19-cv-06864 (N.D. Cal.):

The Court finds that the notice and notice plan previously approved by the Court was implemented and complies with Rule 23(c)(2)(B) ... The Court ordered that the third-party settlement administrator send class notice via email based on a class list Defendant provided ... Epiq Class Action & Claims Solutions, Inc., the third-party settlement administrator, represents that class notice was provided as directed Epiq received a total of 527,505 records for potential Class Members, including their email addresses If the receiving email server could not deliver the message, a "bounce code" was returned to Epiq indicating that the message was undeliverable Epiq made two additional attempts to deliver the email notice As of March 1, 2021, a total of 495,006 email notices were delivered, and 32,499 remained undeliverable In light of these facts, the Court finds that the parties have sufficiently provided the best practicable notice to the Class Members.

Judge Henry Edward Autrey, Pearlstone v. Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. (Apr. 22, 2021) 4:17-cv-02856 (C.D. Cal.):

The Court finds that adequate notice was given to all Settlement Class Members pursuant to the terms of the Parties' Settlement Agreement and the Preliminary Approval Order. The Court has further determined that the Notice Plan fully and accurately informed Settlement Class Members of all material elements of the Settlement, constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances, and fully satisfied the requirements of Federal Rule 23(c)(2) and 23(e)(1), applicable law, and the Due Process Clause of the United States Constitution.

Judge Lucy H. Koh, Grace v. Apple, Inc. (Mar. 31, 2021) 17-cv-00551 (N.D. Cal.):

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(c)(2)(B) requires that the settling parties provide class members with “the best notice that is practicable under the circumstances, including individual notice to all members who can be identified through reasonable effort. The notice must clearly and concisely state in plain, easily understood language: (i) the nature of the action; (ii) the definition of the class certified; (iii) the class claims, issues, or defenses; (iv) that a class member may enter an appearance through an attorney if the member so desires; (v) that the court will exclude from the class any member who requests exclusion; (vi) the time and manner for requesting exclusion; and (vii) the binding effect of a class judgment on members under Rule 23(c)(3).” The Court finds that the Notice Plan, which was direct notice sent to 99.8% of the Settlement Class via email and U.S. Mail, has been implemented in compliance with this Court’s Order (ECF No. 426) and complies with Rule 23(c)(2)(B).

Judge Gary A. Fenner, In re Pre-Filled Propane Tank Antitrust Litigation (Mar. 30, 2021) MDL No. 2567, 14-cv-02567 (W.D. Mo.):

Based upon the Declaration of Cameron Azari, on behalf of Epiq, the Administrator appointed by the Court, the Court finds that the Notice Program has been properly implemented. That Declaration shows that there have been no requests for exclusion from the Settlement, and no objections to the Settlement. Finally, the Declaration reflects that AmeriGas has given appropriate notice of this settlement to the Attorney General of the United States and the appropriate State officials under the Class Action Fairness Act, 28 U.S.C. § 1715, and no objections have been received from any of them.

Judge Richard Seeborg, Bautista v. Valero Marketing and Supply Company (Mar. 17, 2021) 3:15-cv-05557 (N.D. Cal.):

The Notice given to the Settlement Class in accordance with the Notice Order was the best notice practicable under the circumstances of these proceedings and of the matters set forth therein, including the proposed Settlement set forth in the Settlement Agreement, to all Persons entitled to such notice, and said notice fully satisfied the requirements of Fed. R. Civ. P. 23 and due process.

Judge James D. Peterson, Fox et al. v. Iowa Health System d.b.a. UnityPoint Health (Mar. 4, 2021) 18-cv-00327 (W.D. Wis.):

The approved Notice plan provided for direct mail notice to all class members at their last known address according to UnityPoint’s records, as updated by the administrator through the U.S. Postal Service. For postcards returned undeliverable, the administrator tried to find updated addresses for those class members. The administrator maintained the Settlement website and made Spanish versions of the Long Form Notice and Claim Form available upon request. The administrator also maintained a toll-free telephone line which provides class members detailed information about the settlement and allows individuals to request a claim form be mailed to them.

The Court finds that this Notice (i) constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances; (ii) was reasonably calculated, under the circumstances, to apprise Settlement Class members of the Settlement, the effect of the Settlement (including the release therein), and their right to object to the terms of the settlement and appear at the Final Approval Hearing; (iii) constituted due and sufficient notice of the Settlement to all reasonably identifiable persons entitled to receive such notice; (iv) satisfied the requirements of due process, Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(e)(1) and the Class Action Fairness Act of 2005, 28 U.S.C. § 1715, and all applicable laws and rules.

Judge Larry A. Burns, Trujillo et al. v. Ametek, Inc. et al. (Mar. 3, 2021) 3:15-cv-01394 (S.D. Cal.):

The Class has received the best practicable notice under the circumstances of this case. The Parties’ selection and retention of Epiq Class Action & Claims Solutions, Inc. (“Epiq”) as the Claims Administrator was reasonable and appropriate. Based on the Declaration of Cameron Azari of Epiq, the Court finds that the Settlement Notices were published to the Class Members in the form and manner approved by the Court in its Preliminary Approval Order. See Dkt. 181-6. The Settlement Notices provided fair, effective, and the best practicable notice to the Class of the Settlement’s terms. The Settlement Notices informed the Class of Plaintiffs’ intent to seek attorneys’ fees, costs, and incentive payments, set forth the date, time, and place of the Fairness Hearing, and explained Class Members’ rights to object to the Settlement or Fee Motion and to appear at the Fairness Hearing The Settlement Notices fully satisfied all notice requirements under the law, including the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the requirements of the California Legal Remedies Act, Cal. Civ. Code § 1781, and all due process rights under the U.S. Constitution and California Constitutions.

Judge Sherri A. Lydon, Fitzhenry v. Independent Home Products, LLC (Mar. 2, 2021) 2:19-cv-02993 (D.S.C.):

Notice was provided to Class Members in compliance with Section VI of the Settlement Agreement, due process, and Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. The notice: (i) fully and accurately informed Settlement Class Members about the lawsuit and settlement; (ii) provided sufficient information so that Settlement Class Members could decide whether to accept the benefits offered, opt-out and pursue their own remedies, or object to the settlement; (iii) provided procedures for Class Members to file written objections to the proposed settlement, to appear at the hearing, and to state objections to the proposed settlement; and (iv) provided the time, date, and place of the final fairness hearing.

Judge James V. Selna, Alvarez v. Sirius XM Radio Inc. (Feb. 9, 2021) 2:18-cv-08605 (C.D. Cal.):

The Court finds that the dissemination of the Notices attached as Exhibits to the Settlement Agreement: (a) was implemented in accordance with the Notice Order; (b) constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances; (c) constituted notice that was reasonably calculated, under the circumstances, to apprise Settlement Class Members of (i) the pendency of the Action; (ii) their right to submit a claim (where applicable) by submitting a Claim Form; (iii) their right to exclude themselves from the Settlement Class; (iv) the effect of the proposed Settlement (including the Releases to be provided thereunder); (v) Named Plaintiffs' application for the payment of Service Awards; (vi) Class Counsel's motion for an award an attorneys' fees and expenses; (vii) their right to object to any aspect of the Settlement, and/or Class Counsel's motion for attorneys' fees and expenses (including a Service Award to the Named Plaintiffs and Mr. Wright); and (viii) their right to appear at the Final Approval Hearing; (d) constituted due, adequate, and sufficient notice to all Persons entitled to receive notice of the proposed Settlement; and (e) satisfied the requirements of Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the Constitution of the United States (including the Due Process Clause), and all other applicable laws and rules.

Judge Jon S. Tigar, Elder v. Hilton Worldwide Holdings, Inc. (Feb. 4, 2021) 16-cv-00278 (N.D. Cal.):

"Epiq implemented the notice plan precisely as set out in the Settlement Agreement and as ordered by the Court." ECF No. 162 at 9-10. Epiq sent initial notice by email to 8,777 Class Members and by U.S. Mail to the remaining 1,244 Class members. Id. at 10. The Notice informed Class Members about all aspects of the Settlement, the date and time of the fairness hearing, and the process for objections. ECF No. 155 at 28-37. Epiq then mailed notice to the 2,696 Class Members whose emails were returned as undeliverable. Id. "Of the 10,021 Class Members identified from Defendants' records, Epiq was unable to deliver the notice to only 35 Class Members. Accordingly, the reach of the notice is 99.65%." Id. (citation omitted). Epiq also created and maintained a settlement website and a toll-free hotline that Class Members could call if they had questions about the settlement . . . The Court finds that the parties have complied with the Court's preliminary approval order and, because the notice plan complied with Rule 23, have provided adequate notice to class members.

Judge Michael W. Jones, Wallace et al. v. Monier Lifetile LLC et al. (Jan. 15, 2021) SCV-16410 (Sup. Ct. Cal.):

The Court also finds that the Class Notice and notice process were implemented in accordance with the Preliminary Approval Order, providing the best practicable notice under the circumstances.

Judge Kristi K. DuBose, Drazen v. GoDaddy.com, LLC and Bennett v. GoDaddy.com, LLC (Dec. 23, 2020) 1:19-cv-00563 (S.D. Ala.):

The Court finds that the Notice and the claims procedures actually implemented satisfy due process, meet the requirements of Rule 23(e)(1), and the Notice constitutes the best notice practicable under the circumstances.

Judge Haywood S. Gilliam, Jr., Izor v. Abacus Data Systems, Inc. (Dec. 21, 2020) 19-cv-01057 (N.D. Cal.):

The Court finds that the notice plan previously approved by the Court was implemented and that the notice thus satisfied Rule 23(c)(2)(B). [T]he Court finds that the parties have sufficiently provided the best practicable notice to the class members.

Judge Christopher C. Conner, Al's Discount Plumbing et al. v. Viega, LLC (Dec. 18, 2020) 19-cv-00159 (M.D. Pa.):

The Court finds that the notice and notice plan previously approved by the Court was implemented and complies with Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(c)(2)(B) and due process. Specifically, the Court ordered that the third-party Settlement Administrator, Epiq, send class notice via email, U.S. mail, by publication in two recognized industry magazines, Plumber and PHC News, in both their print and online digital forms, and to implement a digital media campaign. (ECF 99). Epiq represents that class notice was provided as directed. See Declaration of Cameron R. Azari, ¶¶ 12-15 (ECF 104-13).

Judge Naomi Reice Buchwald, In re Libor-Based Financial Instruments Antitrust Litigation (Dec. 16, 2020) MDL No. 2262, 1:11-md-02262 (S.D.N.Y.):

Upon review of the record, the Court hereby finds that the forms and methods of notifying the members of the Settlement Classes and their terms and conditions have met the requirements of the United States Constitution (including the Due Process Clause), Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and all other applicable law and rules; constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances; and constituted due and sufficient notice to all members of the Settlement Classes of these proceedings and the matters set forth herein, including the Settlements, the Plan of Allocation and the Fairness Hearing. Therefore, the Class Notice is finally approved.

Judge Larry A. Burns, Cox et al. Ametek, Inc. et al. (Dec 15, 2020) 3:17-cv-00597 (S.D. Cal.):

The Class has received the best practicable notice under the circumstances of this case. The Parties' selection and retention of Epiq Class Action & Claims Solutions, Inc. ("Epiq") as the Claims Administrator was reasonable and appropriate. Based on the Declaration of Cameron Azari of Epiq, the Court finds that the Settlement Notices were published to the Class Members in the form and manner approved by the Court in its Preliminary Approval Order. See Dkt. 129-6. The Settlement Notices provided fair, effective, and the best practicable notice to the Class of the Settlement's terms. The Settlement Notices informed the Class of Plaintiffs' intent to seek attorneys' fees, costs, and incentive payments, set forth the date, time, and place of the Fairness Hearing, and explained Class Members' rights to object to the Settlement or Fee Motion and to appear at the Fairness Hearing ... The Settlement Notices fully satisfied all notice requirements under the law, including the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the requirements of the California Legal Remedies Act, Cal. Civ. Judge Timothy J. Sullivan, Robinson v. Nationstar Mortgage LLC (Dec. 11, 2020) 8:14-cv-03667 (D. Md.):

The Class Notice provided to the Settlement Class conforms with the requirements of Fed. Rule Civ. Proc. 23, the United States Constitution, and any other applicable law, and constitutes the best notice practicable under the circumstances, by providing individual notice to all Settlement Class Members who could be identified through reasonable effort, and by providing due and adequate notice of the proceedings and of the matters set forth therein to the other Settlement Class Members. The Class Notice fully satisfied the requirements of Due Process.

Judge Yvonne Gonzalez Rogers, In re Lithium Ion Batteries Antitrust Litigation (Dec. 10, 2020) MDL No. 2420, 4:13-md-02420 (N.D. Cal.):

The proposed notice plan was undertaken and carried out pursuant to this Court's preliminary approval order prior to remand, and a second notice campaign thereafter. (See Dkt. No. 2571.) The class received direct and indirect notice through several methods – email notice, mailed notice upon request, an informative settlement website, a telephone support line, and a vigorous online campaign. Digital banner advertisements were targeted specifically to settlement class members, including on Google and Yahoo's ad networks, as well as Facebook and Instagram, with over 396 million impressions delivered. Sponsored search listings were employed on Google, Yahoo and Bing, resulting in 216,477 results, with 1,845 clicks through to the settlement website. An informational release was distributed to 495 media contacts in the consumer electronics industry. The case website has continued to be maintained as a channel for communications with class members. Between February 11, 2020 and April 23, 2020, there were 207,205 unique visitors to the website. In the same period, the toll-free telephone number available to class members received 515 calls.

Judge Catherine D. Perry, Pirozzi et al. v. Massage Envy Franchising, LLC (Nov. 13, 2020) 4:19-cv-807 (E.D. Mo.):

The COURT hereby finds that the CLASS NOTICE given to the CLASS: (i) fairly and accurately described the ACTION and the proposed SETTLEMENT; (ii) provided sufficient information so that the CLASS MEMBERS were able to decide whether to accept the benefits offered by the SETTLEMENT, exclude themselves from the SETTLEMENT, or object to the SETTLEMENT; (iii) adequately described the time and manner by which CLASS MEMBERS could submit a CLAIM under the SETTLEMENT, exclude themselves from the SETTLEMENT, or object to the SETTLEMENT and/or appear at the FINAL APPROVAL HEARING; and (iv) provided the date, time, and place of the FINAL APPROVAL HEARING. The COURT hereby finds that the CLASS NOTICE was the best notice practicable under the circumstances, constituted a reasonable manner of notice to all class members who would be bound by the SETTLEMENT, and complied fully with Federal Rule of Civil Procedure Rule 23, due process, and all other applicable laws.

Judge Robert E. Payne, Skochin et al. v. Genworth Life Insurance Company et al. (Nov. 12, 2020) 3:19-cv-00049 (E.D. Va.):

For the reasons set forth in the Court's Memorandum Opinion addressing objections to the Settlement Agreement, ... the plan to disseminate the Class Notice and Publication Notice, which the Court previously approved, has been implemented and satisfied the requirements of Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(c)(2)(B) and due process.

Judge Jeff Carpenter, Eastwood Construction LLC et al. v. City of Monroe (Oct. 27, 2020) 18-cvs-2692 and The Estate of Donald Alan Plyler Sr. et al. v. City of Monroe (Oct. 27, 2020) 19-cvs-1825 (Sup. Ct. N.C.):

The Settlement Agreement and the Settlement Notice are found to be fair, reasonable, adequate, and in the best interests of the Settlement Class, and are hereby approved pursuant to North Carolina Rule of Civil Procedure 23. The Parties are hereby authorized and directed to comply with and to consummate the Settlement Agreement in accordance with the terms and provisions set forth in the Settlement Agreement, and the Clerk of the Court is directed to enter and docket this Order and Final Judgement in the Actions.

Judge M. James Lorenz, Walters et al. v. Target Corp. (Oct. 26, 2020) 3:16-cv-1678 (S.D. Cal.):

The Court has determined that the Class Notices given to Settlement Class members fully and accurately informed Settlement Class members of all material elements of the proposed Settlement and constituted valid, due, and sufficient notice to Settlement Class members consistent with all applicable requirements. The Court further finds that the Notice Program satisfies due process and has been fully implemented.

Judge Maren E. Nelson, Harris et al. v. Farmers Insurance Exchange and Mid Century Insurance Company (Oct. 26, 2020) BC 579498 (Sup. Ct. Cal.):

Distribution of Notice directed to the Settlement Class Members as set forth in the Settlement has been completed in conformity with the Preliminary Approval Order, including individual notice to all Settlement Class members who could be identified through reasonable effort, and the best notice practicable under the circumstances. The Notice, which reached 99.9% of all Settlement Class Members, provided due and adequate notice of the proceedings and of the matters set forth therein, including the proposed Settlement, to all persons entitled to Notice, and the Notice and its distribution fully satisfied the requirements of due process.

Judge Vera M. Scanlon, Lashambae v. Capital One Bank, N.A. (Oct. 21, 2020) 1:17-cv-06406 (E.D.N.Y.):

The Class Notice, as amended, contained all of the necessary elements, including the class definition, the identifies of the named Parties and their counsel, a summary of the terms of the proposed Settlement, information regarding the manner in which objections may be submitted, information regarding the opt-out procedures and deadlines, and the date and location of the Final Approval Hearing. Notice was successfully delivered to approximately 98.7% of the Settlement Class and only 78 individual Settlement Class Members did not receive notice by email or first class mail.

Having reviewed the content of the Class Notice, as amended, and the manner in which the Class Notice was disseminated, this Court finds that the Class Notice, as amended, satisfied the requirements of due process, Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and all other applicable law and rules. The Class Notice, as amended, provided to the Settlement Class in accordance with the Preliminary Approval Order was the best notice practicable under the circumstances and provided this Court with jurisdiction over the absent Settlement Class Members. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(c)(2)(B).

Chancellor Walter L. Evans, K.B., by and through her natural parent, Jennifer Qassis, and Lillian Knox-Bender v. Methodist Healthcare - Memphis Hospitals (Oct. 14, 2020) CH-13-04871-1 (30th Jud. Dist. Tenn.):

Based upon the filings and the record as a whole, the Court finds and determines that dissemination of the Class Notice as set forth herein complies with Tenn. R. Civ. P. 23.03(3) and 23.05 and (i) constitutes the best practicable notice under the circumstances, (ii) was reasonably calculated, under the circumstances, to apprise Class Members of the pendency of Class Settlement, their rights to object to the proposed Settlement, (iii) was reasonable and constitutes due, adequate, and sufficient notice to all persons entitled to receive notice, (iv) meets all applicable requirements of Due Process; (v) and properly provides notice of the attorney's fees that Class Counsel shall seek in this action. As a result, the Court finds that Class Members were properly notified of their rights, received full Due Process

Judge Sara L. Ellis, Nelson v. Roadrunner Transportation Systems, Inc. (Sept. 15, 2020) 1:18-cv-07400 (N.D. Ill.):

Notice of the Final Approval Hearing, the proposed motion for attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses, and the proposed Service Award payment to Plaintiff have been provided to Settlement Class Members as directed by this Court's Orders.

The Court finds that such Notice as therein ordered, constitutes the best possible notice practicable under the circumstances and constitutes valid, due, and sufficient notice to all Settlement Class Members in compliance with the requirements of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(c)(2)(B).

Judge George H. Wu, Lusnak v. Bank of America, N.A. (Aug. 10, 2020) 14-cv-01855 (C.D. Cal.):

The Court finds that the Notice program for disseminating notice to the Settlement Class, provided for in the Settlement Agreement and previously approved and directed by the Court, has been implemented by the Settlement Administrator and the Parties. The Court finds that such Notice program, including the approved forms of notice: (a) constituted the best notice that is practicable under the circumstances; (b) included direct individual notice to all Settlement Class Members who could be identified through reasonable effort; (c) constituted notice that was reasonably calculated, under the circumstances, to apprise Settlement Class Members of the nature of the Lawsuit, the definition of the Settlement Class certified, the class claims and issues, the opportunity to enter an appearance through an attorney if the member so desires; the opportunity, the time, and manner for requesting exclusion from the Settlement Class, and the binding effect of a class judgment; (d) constituted due, adequate and sufficient notice to all persons entitled to notice; and (e) met all applicable requirements of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23, due process under the U.S. Constitution, and any other applicable law.

Judge James Lawrence King, Dasher v. RBC Bank (USA) predecessor in interest to PNC Bank, N.A. (Aug. 10, 2020) 1:10-cv-22190 (S.D. Fla.) as part of In re Checking Account Overdraft Litigation MDL No. 2036 (S.D. Fla.):

The Court finds that the members of the Settlement Class were provided with the best practicable notice; the notice was "reasonably calculated, under [the] circumstances, to apprise interested parties of the pendency of the action and afford them an opportunity to present their objections." Shutts, 472 U.S. at 812 (quoting Mullane, 339 U.S. at 314-15). This Settlement was widely publicized, and any member of the Settlement Class who wished to express comments or objections had ample opportunity and means to do so.

Judge Jeffrey S. Ross, Lehman v. Transbay Joint Powers Authority et al. (Aug. 7, 2020) CGC-16-553758 (Sup. Ct. Cal.):

The Notice approved by this Court was distributed to the Settlement Class Members in compliance with this Court's Order Granting Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement, dated May 8, 2020. The Notice provided to the Settlement Class Members met the requirements of due process and constituted the best notice practicable in the circumstances. Based on evidence and other material submitted in conjunction with the final approval hearing, notice to the class was adequate.

Judge Jean Hoefer Toal, Cook et al. v. South Carolina Public Service Authority et al. (July 31, 2020) 2019-CP-23-6675 (Ct. of Com. Pleas. 13th Jud. Cir. S.C.):

Notice was sent to more than 1.65 million Class members, published in newspapers whose collective circulation covers the entirety of the State, and supplemented with internet banner ads totaling approximately 12.3 million impressions. The notices directed Class members to the settlement website and toll-free line for additional inquiries and further information. After this extensive notice campaign, only 78 individuals (0.0047%) have opted-out, and only nine (0.00054%) have objected. The Court finds this response to be overwhelmingly favorable.

Judge Peter J. Messitte, Jackson et al. v. Viking Group, Inc. et al. (July 28, 2020) 8:18-cv-02356 (D. Md.):

[T]he Court finds, that the Notice Plan has been implemented in the manner approved by the Court in its Preliminary Approval Order as amended. The Court finds that the Notice Plan: (i) constitutes the best notice practicable to the Settlement Class under the circumstances; (ii) was reasonably calculated, under the circumstances, to apprise the Settlement Class of the pendency of this Lawsuit and the terms of the Settlement, their right to exclude themselves from the Settlement, or to object to any part of the Settlement, their right to appear at the Final Approval Hearing (either on their own or through counsel hired at their own expense), and the binding effect of the Final Approval Order and the Final Judgment, whether favorable or unfavorable, on all Persons who do not exclude themselves from the Settlement Class, (iii) due, adequate, and sufficient notice to all Persons entitled to receive notice; and (iv) notice that fully satisfies the requirements of the United States Constitution (including the Due Process Clause), Fed. R. Civ. P. 23, and any other applicable law.

Judge Michael P. Shea, Grayson et al. v. General Electric Company (July 27, 2020) 3:13-cv-01799 (D. Conn.):

Pursuant to the Preliminary Approval Order, the Settlement Notice was mailed, emailed and disseminated by the other means described in the Settlement Agreement to the Class Members. This Court finds that this notice procedure was (i) the best practicable notice; (ii) reasonably calculated, under the circumstances, to apprise the Class Members of the pendency of the Civil Action and of their right to object to or exclude themselves from the proposed Settlement; and (iii) reasonable and constitutes due, adequate, and sufficient notice to all entities and persons entitled to receive notice.

Judge Gerald J. Pappert, Rose v. The Travelers Home and Marine Insurance Company et al. (July 20, 2020) 19-cv-00977 (E.D. Pa.):

The Class Notice ... has been given to the Settlement Class in the manner approved by the Court in its Preliminary Approval Order. Such Class Notice (i) constituted the best notice practicable to the Settlement Class under the circumstances; (ii) was reasonably calculated, under the circumstances, to apprise the Settlement Class of the pendency and nature of this Action, the definition of the Settlement Class, the terms of the Settlement Agreement, the rights of the Settlement Class to exclude themselves from the settlement or to object to any part of the settlement, the rights of the Settlement Class to appear at the Final Approval Hearing (either on their own or through counsel hired at their own expense), and the binding effect of the Settlement Agreement on all persons who do not exclude themselves from the Settlement Class, (iii) provided due, adequate, and sufficient notice to the Settlement Class; and (iv) fully satisfied all applicable requirements of law, including, but not limited to, Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23 and the due process requirements of the United States Constitution.

Judge Christina A. Snyder, Waldrup v. Countrywide Financial Corporation et al. (July 16, 2020) 2:13-cv-08833 (C.D. Cal.):

The Court finds that mailed and publication notice previously given to Class Members in the Action was the best notice practicable under the circumstances, and satisfies the requirements of due process and FED. R. Civ. P. 23. The Court further finds that, because (a) adequate notice has been provided to all Class Members and (b) all Class Members have been given the opportunity to object to, and/or request exclusion from, the Settlement, it has jurisdiction over all Class Members. The Court further finds that all requirements of statute (including but not limited to 28 U.S.C. § 1715), rule, and state and federal constitutions necessary to effectuate this Settlement have been met and satisfied.

Judge James Donato, Coffeng et al. v. Volkswagen Group of America, Inc. (June 10, 2020) 17-cv-01825 (N.D. Cal.):

The Court finds that, as demonstrated by the Declaration and Supplemental Declaration of Cameron Azari, and counsel's submissions, Notice to the Settlement Class was timely and properly effectuated in accordance with FED. R. CIV. P. 23(e) and the approved Notice Plan set forth in the Court's Preliminary Approval Order. The Court finds that said Notice constitutes the best notice practicable under the circumstances, and satisfies all requirements of Rule 23(e) and due process.

Judge Michael W. Fitzgerald, Behfarin v. Pruco Life Insurance Company et al. (June 3, 2020) 17-cv-05290 (C.D. Cal.):

The Court finds that the requirements of Rule 23 of the Federal Rule of Civil Procedure and other laws and rules applicable to final settlement approval of class actions have been satisfied . . . This Court finds that the Claims Administrator caused notice to be disseminated to the Class in accordance with the plan to disseminate Notice outlined in the Settlement Agreement and the Preliminary Approval Order, and that Notice was given in an adequate and sufficient manner and complies with Due Process and Fed. R. Civ. P. 23.

Judge Nancy J. Rosenstengel, First Impressions Salon, Inc. et al. v. National Milk Producers Federation et al. (Apr. 27, 2020) 3:13-cv-00454 (S.D. Ill.):

The Court finds that the Notice given to the Class Members was completed as approved by this Court and complied in all respects with the requirements of Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and due process. The settlement Notice Plan was modeled on and supplements the previous court-approved plan and, having been completed, constitutes the best notice practicable under the circumstances. In making this determination, the Court finds that the Notice provided Class members due and adequate notice of the Settlement, the Settlement Agreement, the Plan of Distribution, these proceedings, and the rights of Class members to opt-out of the Class and/or object to Final Approval of the Settlement, as well as Plaintiffs' Motion requesting attorney fees, costs, and Class Representative service awards.

Judge Harvey Schlesinger, In re Disposable Contact Lens Antitrust Litigation (CooperVision, Inc.) (Mar. 4, 2020) 3:15-md-02626 (M.D. Fla.):

The Court finds that the dissemination of the Notice: (a) was implemented in accordance with the Preliminary Approval Orders; (b) constitutes the best notice practicable under the circumstances; (c) constitutes notice that was reasonably calculated, under the circumstances, to apprise the Settlement Classes of (i) the pendency of the Action; (ii) the effect of the Settlement Agreements (including the Releases to the provided thereunder); (iii) Class Counsel's possible motion for an award of attorneys' fees and reimbursement of expenses; (iv) the right to object to any aspect of the Settlement Agreements, the Plan of Distribution, and/or Class Counsel's motion for attorneys' fees and reimbursement of expenses; (v) the right to opt out of the Settlement Classes; (vi) the right to appear at the Fairness Hearing; and (vii) the fact that Plaintiffs may receive incentive awards; (d) constitutes due, adequate, and sufficient notice to all persons and entities entitled to receive notice of the Settlement Agreement and (e) satisfies the requirements of Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the United States Constitution (including the Due Process Clause).

Judge Amos L. Mazzant, Stone et al. v. Porcelana Corona De Mexico, S.A. DE C.V f/k/a Sanitarios Lamosa S.A. DE C.V. a/k/a Vortens (Mar. 3, 2020) 4:17-cv-00001 (E.D. Tex.):

The Court has reviewed the Notice Plan and its implementation and efficacy, and finds that it constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances and was reasonably calculated, under the circumstances, to apprise Settlement Class Members of the pendency of the Action and their right to object to the proposed settlement in full compliance with the requirements of applicable law, including the Due Process Clause of the United States Constitution and Rules 23(c) and (e) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

In addition, Class Notice clearly and concisely stated in plain, easily understood language: (i) the nature of the action; (ii) the definition of the certified Equitable Relief Settlement Class; (iii) the claims and issues of the Equitable Relief Settlement Class; (iv) that a Settlement Class Member may enter an appearance through an attorney if the member so desires; (v) the binding effect of a class judgment on members under Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(c)(3).

Judge Michael H. Simon, In re Premera Blue Cross Customer Data Security Breach Litigation (Mar. 2, 2020) MDL No. 2633, 3:15-md-2633 (D. Ore.):

The Court confirms that the form and content of the Summary Notice, Long Form Notice, Publication Notice, and Claim Form, and the procedure set forth in the Settlement for providing notice of the Settlement to the Class, were in full compliance with the notice requirements of Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 23(c)(2)(B) and 23(e), fully, fairly, accurately, and adequately advised members of the Class of their rights under the Settlement, provided the best notice practicable under the circumstances, fully satisfied the requirements of due process and Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and afforded Class Members with adequate time and opportunity to file objections to the Settlement and attorney's fee motion, submit Requests for Exclusion, and submit Claim Forms to the Settlement Administrator.

Judge Maxine M. Chesney, McKinney-Drobnis et al. v. Massage Envy Franchising (Mar. 2, 2020) 3:16-cv-06450 (N.D. Cal.):

The COURT hereby finds that the individual direct CLASS NOTICE given to the CLASS via email or First Class U.S. Mail (i) fairly and accurately described the ACTION and the proposed SETTLEMENT; (ii) provided sufficient information so that the CLASS MEMBERS were able to decide whether to accept the benefits offered by the SETTLEMENT, exclude themselves from the SETTLEMENT, or object to the SETTLEMENT; (iii) adequately described the manner in which CLASS MEMBERS could submit a VOUCHER REQUEST under the SETTLEMENT, exclude themselves from the SETTLEMENT, or object to the SETTLEMENT and/or appear at the FINAL APPROVAL HEARING; and (iv) provided the date, time, and place of the FINAL APPROVAL HEARING. The COURT hereby finds that the CLASS NOTICE was the best notice practicable under the circumstances and complied fully with Federal Rule of Civil Procedure Rule 23, due process, and all other applicable laws.

Judge Harry D. Leinenweber, Albrecht v. Oasis Power, LLC d/b/a Oasis Energy (Feb. 6, 2020) 1:18-cv-01061 (N.D. Ill.):

The Court finds that the distribution of the Class Notice, as provided for in the Settlement Agreement, (i) constituted the best practicable notice under the circumstances to Settlement Class Members, (ii) constituted notice that was reasonably calculated, under the circumstances, to apprise Settlement Class Members of, among other things, the pendency of the Action, the nature and terms of the proposed Settlement, their right to object or to exclude themselves from the proposed Settlement, and their right to appear at the Final Approval Hearing, (iii) was reasonable and constituted due, adequate, and sufficient notice to all persons entitled to be provided with notice, and (iv) complied fully with the requirements of Fed. R. Civ. P. 23, the United States Constitution, the Rules of this Court, and any other applicable law.

The Court finds that the Class Notice and methodology set forth in the Settlement Agreement, the Preliminary Approval Order, and this Final Approval Order (i) constitute the most effective and practicable notice of the Final Approval Order, the relief available to Settlement Class Members pursuant to the Final Approval Order, and applicable time periods; (ii) constitute due, adequate, and sufficient notice for all other purposes to all Settlement Class Members; and (iii) comply fully with the requirements of Fed. R. Civ. P. 23, the United States Constitution, the Rules of this Court, and any other applicable laws.

Judge Robert Scola, Jr., Wilson et al. v. Volkswagen Group of America, Inc. et al. (Jan. 28, 2020) 17-cv-23033 (S.D. Fla.):

The Court finds that the Class Notice, in the form approved by the Court, was properly disseminated to the Settlement Class pursuant to the Notice Plan and constituted the best practicable notice under the circumstances. The forms and methods of the Notice Plan approved by the Court met all applicable requirements of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the United States Code, the United States Constitution (including the Due Process Clause), and any other applicable law.

Judge Michael Davis, Garcia v. Target Corporation (Jan. 27, 2020) 16-cv-02574 (D. Minn.):

The Court finds that the Notice Plan set forth in Section 4 of the Settlement Agreement and effectuated pursuant to the Preliminary Approval Order constitutes the best notice practicable under the circumstances and shall constitute due and sufficient notice to the Settlement Class of the pendency of this case, certification of the Settlement Class for settlement purposes only, the terms of the Settlement Agreement, and the Final Approval Hearing, and satisfies the requirements of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the United States Constitution, and any other applicable law.

Judge Bruce Howe Hendricks, In re TD Bank, N.A. Debit Card Overdraft Fee Litigation (Jan. 9, 2020) MDL No. 2613, 6:15-MN-02613 (D.S.C.):

The Classes have been notified of the settlement pursuant to the plan approved by the Court. After having reviewed the Declaration of Cameron R. Azari (ECF No. 220-1) and the Supplemental Declaration of Cameron R. Azari . . . , the Court hereby finds that notice was accomplished in accordance with the Court's directives. The Court further finds that the notice program constituted the best practicable notice to the Settlement Classes under the circumstances and fully satisfies the requirements of due process and Federal Rule 23.

Judge Margo K. Brodie, In re Payment Card Interchange Fee and Merchant Discount Antitrust Litigation (Dec. 13, 2019) MDL No. 1720, 05-md-01720 (E.D.N.Y.):

The notice and exclusion procedures provided to the Rule 23(b)(3) Settlement Class, including but not limited to the methods of identifying and notifying members of the Rule 23(b)(3) Settlement Class, were fair, adequate, and sufficient, constituted the best practicable notice under the circumstances, and were reasonably calculated to apprise members of the Rule 23(b)(3) Settlement Class of the Action, the terms of the Superseding Settlement Agreement, and their objection rights, and to apprise members of the Rule 23(b)(3) Settlement Class of their exclusion rights, and fully satisfied the requirements of Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, any other applicable laws or rules of the Court, and due process.

Judge Steven Logan, Knapper v. Cox Communications, Inc. (Dec. 13, 2019) 2:17-cv-00913 (D. Ariz.):

The Court finds that the form and method for notifying the class members of the settlement and its terms and conditions was in conformity with this Court's Preliminary Approval Order (Doc. 120). The Court further finds that the notice satisfied due process principles and the requirements of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(c), and the Plaintiff chose the best practicable notice under the circumstances. The Court further finds that the notice was clearly designed to advise the class members of their rights.

Judge Manish Shah, Prather v. Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. (Dec. 10, 2019) 1:17-cv-00481 (N.D. Ill.):

The Court finds that the Notice Plan set forth in Section VIII of the Settlement Agreement and effectuated pursuant to the Preliminary Approval Order constitutes the best notice practicable under the circumstances and shall constitute due and sufficient notice to the Settlement Class of the pendency of this case, certification of the Settlement Class for settlement purposes only, the terms of the Settlement Agreement, and the Final Approval Hearing, and satisfies the requirements of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the United States Constitution, and any other applicable law.

Judge Liam O'Grady, Liggio v. Apple Federal Credit Union (Dec. 6, 2019) 1:18-cv-01059 (E.D. Va.):

The Court finds that the manner and form of notice (the "Notice Plan") as provided for in this Court's July 2, 2019 Order granting preliminary approval of class settlement, and as set forth in the Parties' Settlement Agreement was provided to Settlement Class Members by the Settlement Administrator The Notice Plan was reasonably calculated to give actual notice to Settlement Class Members of the right to receive benefits from the Settlement, and to be excluded from or object to the Settlement. The Notice Plan met the requirements of Rule 23(c)(2)(B) and due process and constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances.

Judge Brian McDonald, Armon et al. v. Washington State University (Nov. 8, 2019) 17-2-23244-1 (consolidated with 17-2-25052-0) (Sup. Ct. Wash.):

The Court finds that the Notice Program, as set forth in the Settlement and effectuated pursuant to the Preliminary Approval Order, satisfied CR 23(c)(2), was the best Notice practicable under the circumstances, was reasonably calculated to provide-and did provide-due and sufficient Notice to the Settlement Class of the pendency of the Litigation; certification of the Settlement Class for settlement purposes only; the existence and terms of the Settlement; the identity of Class Counsel and appropriate information about Class Counsel's then-forthcoming application for attorneys' fees and incentive awards to the Class Representatives; appropriate information about how to participate in the Settlement; Settlement Class Members' right to exclude themselves; their right to object to the Settlement and to appear at the Final Approval Hearing, through counsel if they desired; and appropriate instructions as to how to obtain additional information regarding this Litigation and the Settlement. In addition, pursuant to CR 23(c)(2)(B), the Notice properly informed Settlement Class Members that any Settlement Class Member who failed to opt-out would be prohibited from bringing a lawsuit against Defendant based on or related to any of the claims asserted by Plaintiffs, and it satisfied the other requirements of the Civil Rules.

Judge Andrew J. Guilford, In re Wells Fargo Collateral Protection Insurance Litigation (Nov. 4, 2019) 8:17-ml-02797 (C.D. Cal.):

Epiq Class Action & Claims Solutions, Inc. (“Epiq”), the parties’ settlement administrator, was able to deliver the court-approved notice materials to all class members, including 2,254,411 notice packets and 1,019,408 summary notices.

Judge Paul L. Maloney, Burch v. Whirlpool Corporation (Oct. 16, 2019) 1:17-cv-00018 (W.D. Mich.):

[T]he Court hereby finds and concludes that members of the Settlement Class have been provided the best notice practicable of the Settlement and that such notice satisfies all requirements of federal and applicable state laws and due process.

Judge Gene E.K. Pratter, Tashica Fulton-Green et al. v. Accolade, Inc. (Sept. 24, 2019) 2:18-cv-00274 (E.D. Pa.):

The Court finds that such Notice as therein ordered, constitutes the best possible notice practicable under the circumstances and constitutes valid, due, and sufficient notice to all Settlement Class Members in compliance with the requirements of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(c)(2)(B).

Judge Edwin Torres, Burrow et al. v. Forjas Taurus S.A. et al. (Sept. 6, 2019) 1:16-cv-21606 (S.D. Fla.):

Because the Parties complied with the agreed-to notice provisions as preliminarily approved by this Court, and given that there are no developments or changes in the facts to alter the Court’s previous conclusion, the Court finds that the notice provided in this case satisfied the requirements of due process and of Rule 23(c)(2)(B).

Judge Amos L. Mazzant, Fessler v. Porcelana Corona De Mexico, S.A. DE C.V f/k/a Sanitarios Lamosa S.A. DE C.V. a/k/a Vortens (Aug. 30, 2019) 4:19-cv-00248 (E.D. Tex.):

The Court has reviewed the Notice Plan and its implementation and efficacy, and finds that it constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances and was reasonably calculated, under the circumstances, to apprise Settlement Class Members of the pendency of the Action and their right to object to the proposed settlement or opt out of the Settlement Class in full compliance with the requirements of applicable law, including the Due Process Clause of the United States Constitution and Rules 23(c) and (e) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

In addition, Class Notice clearly and concisely stated in plain, easily understood language: (i) the nature of the action; (ii) the definition of the certified 2011 Settlement Class; (iii) the claims and issues of the 2011 Settlement Class; (iv) that a Settlement Class Member may enter an appearance through an attorney if the member so desires; (v) that the Court will exclude from the Settlement Class any member who requests exclusions; (vi) the time and manner for requesting exclusion; and (vii) the binding effect of a class judgment on members under Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(c)(3).

Judge Karon Owen Bowdre, In re Community Health Systems, Inc. Customer Data Security Breach Litigation (Aug. 22, 2019) MDL No. 2595, 2:15-cv-00222 (N.D. Ala.):

The court finds that the Notice Program: (1) satisfied the requirements of Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(c)(2)(B) and due process; (2) was the best practicable notice under the circumstances; (3) reasonably apprised Settlement Class members of the pendency of the Action and their right to object to the settlement or opt-out of the Settlement Class; and (4) was reasonable and constituted due, adequate and sufficient notice to all persons entitled to receive notice. Approximately 90% of the 6,081,189 individuals identified as Settlement Class members received the Initial Postcard Notice of this Settlement Action.

The court further finds, pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(c)(2)(B), that the Class Notice adequately informed Settlement Class members of their rights with respect to this action.

Judge Christina A. Snyder, Zaklit et al. v. Nationstar Mortgage LLC et al. (Aug. 21, 2019) 5:15-cv-02190 (C.D. Cal.):

The Class Notice provided to the Settlement Class conforms with the requirements of Fed. Rule Civ. Proc. 23, the California and United States Constitutions, and any other applicable law, and constitutes the best notice practicable under the circumstances, by providing individual notice to all Settlement Class Members who could be identified through reasonable effort, and by providing due and adequate notice of the proceedings and of the matters set forth therein to the other Settlement Class Members. The notice fully satisfied the requirements of Due Process. No Settlement Class Members have objected to the terms of the Settlement.

Judge Brian M. Cogan, Luib v. Henkel Consumer Goods Inc. (Aug. 19, 2019) 1:17-cv-03021 (E.D.N.Y.):

The Court finds that the Notice Plan, set forth in the Settlement Agreement and effectuated pursuant to the Preliminary Approval Order: (i) was the best notice practicable under the circumstances; (ii) was reasonably calculated to provide, and did provide, due and sufficient notice to the Settlement Class regarding the existence and nature of the Action, certification of the Settlement Class for settlement purposes only, the existence and terms of the Settlement Agreement, and the rights of Settlement Class members to exclude themselves from the Settlement Agreement, to object and appear at the Final Approval Hearing, and to receive benefits under the Settlement Agreement; and (iii) satisfied the requirements of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the United States Constitution, and all other applicable law.

Judge Yvonne Gonzalez Rogers, In re Lithium Ion Batteries Antitrust Litigation (Aug. 16, 2019) MDL No. 2420, 4:13-md-02420 (N.D. Cal.):

The proposed notice plan was undertaken and carried out pursuant to this Court's preliminary approval order. [T]he notice program reached approximately 87 percent of adults who purchased portable computers, power tools, camcorders, or replacement batteries, and these class members were notified an average of 3.5 times each. As a result of Plaintiffs' notice efforts, in total, 1,025,449 class members have submitted claims. That includes 51,961 new claims, and 973,488 claims filed under the prior settlements.

Judge Jon Tigar, McKnight et al. v. Uber Technologies, Inc. et al. (Aug. 13, 2019) 3:14-cv-05615 (N.D. Cal.):

The settlement administrator, Epiq Systems, Inc., carried out the notice procedures as outlined in the preliminary approval. ECF No. 162 at 17-18. Notices were mailed to over 22 million class members with a success rate of over 90%. Id. at 17. Epiq also created a website, banner ads, and a toll free number. Id. at 17-18. Epiq estimates that it reached through mail and other formats 94.3% of class members. ECF No. 164 ¶ 28. In light of these actions, and the Court's prior order granting preliminary approval, the Court finds that the parties have provided adequate notice to class members.

Judge Gary W.B. Chang, Robinson v. First Hawaiian Bank (Aug. 8, 2019) 17-1-0167-01 (Cir. Ct. of First Cir. Haw.):

This Court determines that the Notice Program satisfies all of the due process requirements for a class action settlement.

Judge Karin Crump, Hyder et al. v. Consumers County Mutual Insurance Company (July 30, 2019) D-1-GN-16-000596 (D. Ct. of Travis Cnty. Tex.):

Due and adequate Notice of the pendency of this Action and of this Settlement has been provided to members of the Settlement Class, and this Court hereby finds that the Notice Plan described in the Preliminary Approval Order and completed by Defendant complied fully with the requirements of due process, the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure, and the requirements of due process under the Texas and United States Constitutions, and any other applicable laws.

Judge Wendy Bettelstone, Underwood v. Kohl's Department Stores, Inc. et al. (July 24, 2019) 2:15-cv-00730 (E.D. Pa.):

The Notice, the contents of which were previously approved by the Court, was disseminated in accordance with the procedures required by the Court's Preliminary Approval Order in accordance with applicable law.

Judge Andrew G. Ceresia, J.S.C., Denier et al. v. Taconic Biosciences, Inc. (July 15, 2019) 00255851 (Sup. Ct. N.Y.):

The Court finds that such Notice as therein ordered, constitutes the best possible notice practicable under the circumstances and constitutes valid, due, and sufficient notice to all Settlement Class Members in compliance with the requirements of the CPLR.

Judge Vince G. Chhabria, Parsons v. Kimpton Hotel & Restaurant Group, LLC (July 11, 2019) 3:16-cv-05387 (N.D. Cal.):

Pursuant to the Preliminary Approval Order, the notice documents were sent to Settlement Class Members by email or by first-class mail, and further notice was achieved via publication in People magazine, internet banner notices, and internet sponsored search listings. The Court finds that the manner and form of notice (the "Notice Program") set forth in the Settlement Agreement was provided to Settlement Class Members. The Court finds that the Notice Program, as implemented, was the best practicable under the circumstances. The Notice Program was reasonably calculated under the circumstances to apprise the Settlement Class of the pendency of the Action, class certification, the terms of the Settlement, and their rights to opt-out of the Settlement Class and object to the Settlement, Class Counsel's fee request, and the request for Service Award for Plaintiff. The Notice and Notice Program constituted sufficient notice to all persons entitled to notice. The Notice and Notice Program satisfy all applicable requirements of law, including, but not limited to, Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23 and the constitutional requirement of due process.

Judge Daniel J. Buckley, Adlouni v. UCLA Health Systems Auxiliary et al. (June 28, 2019) BC589243 (Sup. Ct. Cal.):

The Court finds that the notice to the Settlement Class pursuant to the Preliminary Approval Order was appropriate, adequate, and sufficient, and constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances to all Persons within the definition of the Settlement Class to apprise interested parties of the pendency of the Action, the nature of the claims, the definition of the Settlement Class, and the opportunity to exclude themselves from the Settlement Class or present objections to the settlement. The notice fully complied with the requirements of due process and all applicable statutes and laws and with the California Rules of Court.

Judge John C. Hayes III, Lightsey et al. v. South Carolina Electric & Gas Company, a Wholly Owned Subsidiary of SCANA et al. (June 11, 2019) 2017-CP-25-335 (Ct. of Com. Pleas., S.C.):

These multiple efforts at notification far exceed the due process requirement that the class representative provide the best practical notice.... Following this extensive notice campaign reaching over 1.6 million potential class member accounts, Class counsel have received just two objections to the settlement and only 24 opt outs.

Judge Stephen K. Bushong, Scharfstein v. BP West Coast Products, LLC (June 4, 2019) 1112-17046 (Ore. Cir., Cnty. of Multnomah):

The Court finds that the Notice Plan ... fully met the requirements of the Oregon Rules of Civil Procedure, due process, the United States Constitution, the Oregon Constitution, and any other applicable law.

Judge Cynthia Bashant, Lloyd et al. v. Navy Federal Credit Union (May 28, 2019) 17-cv-1280 (S.D. Cal.):

This Court previously reviewed, and conditionally approved Plaintiffs' class notices subject to certain amendments. The Court affirms once more that notice was adequate.

Judge Robert W. Gettleman, Cowen v. Lenny & Larry's Inc. (May 2, 2019) 1:17-cv-01530 (N.D. Ill.):

Notice to the Settlement Class and other potentially interested parties has been provided in accordance with the elements specified by the Court in the preliminary approval order. Adequate notice of the amended settlement and the final approval hearing has also been given. Such notice informed the Settlement Class members of all material elements of the proposed Settlement and of their opportunity to object or comment thereon or to exclude themselves from the Settlement; provided Settlement Class Members adequate instructions and a means to obtain additional information; was adequate notice under the circumstances; was valid, due, and sufficient notice to all Settlement Class [M]embers; and complied fully with the laws of the State of Illinois, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the United States Constitution, due process, and other applicable law.

Judge Edward J. Davila, In re HP Printer Firmware Update Litigation (Apr. 25, 2019) 5:16-cv-05820 (N.D. Cal.):

Due and adequate notice has been given of the Settlement as required by the Preliminary Approval Order. The Court finds that notice of this Settlement was given to Class Members in accordance with the Preliminary Approval Order and constituted the best notice practicable of the proceedings and matters set forth therein, including the Settlement, to all Persons entitled to such notice, and that this notice satisfied the requirements of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23 and of due process.

Judge Claudia Wilken, Naiman v. Total Merchant Services, Inc. et al. (Apr. 16, 2019) 4:17-cv-03806 (N.D. Cal.):

The Court also finds that the notice program satisfied the requirements of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23 and due process. The notice approved by the Court and disseminated by Epiq constituted the best practicable method for informing the class about the Final Settlement Agreement and relevant aspects of the litigation.

Judge Paul Gardephe, 37 Besen Parkway, LLC v. John Hancock Life Insurance Company (U.S.A.) (Mar. 31, 2019) 15-cv-9924 (S.D.N.Y.):

The Notice given to Class Members complied in all respects with the requirements of Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and due process and provided due and adequate notice to the Class.

Judge Alison J. Nathan, Pantelyat et al. v. Bank of America, N.A. et al. (Jan. 31, 2019) 16-cv-08964 (S.D.N.Y.):

The Class Notice provided to the Settlement Class in accordance with the Preliminary Approval Order was the best notice practicable under the circumstances, and constituted due and sufficient notice of the proceedings and matters set forth therein, to all persons entitled to notice. The notice fully satisfied the requirements of due process, Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and all other applicable law and rules.

Judge Kenneth M. Hoyt, Al's Pals Pet Card, LLC et al. v. Woodforest National Bank, N.A. et al. (Jan. 30, 2019) 4:17-cv-3852 (S.D. Tex.):

[T]he Court finds that the class has been notified of the Settlement pursuant to the plan approved by the Court. The Court further finds that the notice program constituted the best practicable notice to the class under the circumstances and fully satisfies the requirements of due process, including Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(1) and 28 U.S.C. § 1715.

Judge Robert M. Dow, Jr., In re Dealer Management Systems Antitrust Litigation (Jan. 23, 2019) MDL No. 2817, 18-cv-00864 (N.D. Ill.):

The Court finds that the Settlement Administrator fully complied with the Preliminary Approval Order and that the form and manner of providing notice to the Dealership Class of the proposed Settlement with Reynolds was the best notice practicable under the circumstances, including individual notice to all members of the Dealership Class who could be identified through the exercise of reasonable effort. The Court further finds that the notice program provided due and adequate notice of these proceedings and of the matters set forth therein, including the terms of the Agreement, to all parties entitled to such notice and fully satisfied the requirements of Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, 28 U.S.C. § 1715(b), and constitutional due process.

Judge Federico A. Moreno, In re Takata Airbag Products Liability Litigation (Ford) (Dec. 20, 2018) MDL No. 2599 (S.D. Fla.):

The record shows and the Court finds that the Class Notice has been given to the Class in the manner approved by the Court in its Preliminary Approval Order. The Court finds that such Class Notice: (i) is reasonable and constitutes the best practicable notice to Class Members under the circumstances; (ii) constitutes notice that was reasonably calculated, under the circumstances, to apprise Class Members of the pendency of the Action and the terms of the Settlement Agreement, their right to exclude themselves from the Class or to object to all or any part of the Settlement Agreement, their right to appear at the Fairness Hearing (either on their own or through counsel hired at their own expense) and the binding effect of the orders and Final Order and Final Judgment in the Action, whether favorable or unfavorable, on all persons and entities who or which do not exclude themselves from the Class; (iii) constitutes due, adequate, and sufficient notice to all persons or entities entitled to receive notice; and (iv) fully satisfied the requirements of the United States Constitution (including the Due Process Clause), FED. R. Civ. P. 23 and any other applicable law as well as complying with the Federal Judicial Center's illustrative class action notices.

Judge Herndon, Hale v. State Farm Mutual Automobile Insurance Company et al. (Dec. 16, 2018) 3:12-cv-00660 (S.D. Ill.):

The Class here is estimated to include approximately 4.7 million members. Approximately 1.43 million of them received individual postcard or email notice of the terms of the proposed Settlement, and the rest were notified via a robust publication program “estimated to reach 78.8% of all U.S. Adults Aged 35+ approximately 2.4 times.” Doc. 966-2 ¶¶ 26, 41. The Court previously approved the notice plan (Doc. 947), and now, having carefully reviewed the declaration of the Notice Administrator (Doc. 966-2), concludes that it was fully and properly executed, and reflected “the best notice that is practicable under the circumstances, including individual notice to all members who can be identified through reasonable effort.” See Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(c)(2)(B). The Court further concludes that CAFA notice was properly effectuated to the attorneys general and insurance commissioners of all 50 states and District of Columbia.

Judge Jesse M. Furman, Alaska Electrical Pension Fund et al. v. Bank of America, N.A. et al. (Nov. 13, 2018) 14-cv-07126 (S.D.N.Y.):

The mailing and distribution of the Notice to all members of the Settlement Class who could be identified through reasonable effort, the publication of the Summary Notice, and the other Notice efforts described in the Motion for Final Approval, as provided for in the Court's June 26, 2018 Preliminary Approval Order, satisfy the requirements of Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and due process, constitute the best notice practicable under the circumstances, and constitute due and sufficient notice to all Persons entitled to notice.

Judge William L. Campbell, Jr., Ajose et al. v. Interline Brands, Inc. (Oct. 23, 2018) 3:14-cv-01707 (M.D. Tenn.):

The Court finds that the Notice Plan, as approved by the Preliminary Approval Order: (i) satisfied the requirements of Rule 23(c)(3) and due process; (ii) was reasonable and the best practicable notice under the circumstances; (iii) reasonably apprised the Settlement Class of the pendency of the action, the terms of the Agreement, their right to object to the proposed settlement or opt out of the Settlement Class, the right to appear at the Final Fairness Hearing, and the Claims Process; and (iv) was reasonable and constituted due, adequate, and sufficient notice to all those entitled to receive notice.

Judge Joseph C. Spero, Abante Rooter and Plumbing v. Pivotal Payments Inc., d/b/a/ Capital Processing Network and CPN (Oct. 15, 2018) 3:16-cv-05486 (N.D. Cal.):

[T]he Court finds that notice to the class of the settlement complied with Rule 23(c)(3) and (e) and due process. Rule 23(e)(1) states that “[t]he court must direct notice in a reasonable manner to all class members who would be bound by” a proposed settlement, voluntary dismissal, or compromise. Class members are entitled to the “best notice that is practicable under the circumstances” of any proposed settlement before it is finally approved by the Court. Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(c)(2)(B) ... The notice program included notice sent by first class mail to 1,750,564 class members and reached approximately 95.2% of the class.

Judge Marcia G. Cooke, Dipuglia v. US Coachways, Inc. (Sept. 28, 2018) 1:17-cv-23006 (S.D. Fla.):

The Settlement Class Notice Program was the best notice practicable under the circumstances. The Notice Program provided due and adequate notice of the proceedings and of the matters set forth therein, including the proposed settlement set forth in the Agreement, to all persons entitled to such notice and said notice fully satisfied the requirements of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the United States Constitution, which include the requirement of due process.

Judge Beth Labson Freeman, Gergetz v. Telenav, Inc. (Sept. 27, 2018) 5:16-cv-04261 (N.D. Cal.):

The Court finds that the Notice and Notice Plan implemented pursuant to the Settlement Agreement, which consists of individual notice sent via first-class U.S. Mail postcard, notice provided via email, and the posting of relevant Settlement documents on the Settlement Website, has been successfully implemented and was the best notice practicable under the circumstances and: (1) constituted notice that was reasonably calculated, under the circumstances, to apprise the Settlement Class Members of the pendency of the Action, their right to object to or to exclude themselves from the Settlement Agreement, and their right to appear at the Final Approval Hearing; (2) was reasonable and constituted due, adequate, and sufficient notice to all persons entitled to receive notice; and (3) met all applicable requirements of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the Due Process Clause, and the Rules of this Court.

The mailing of the Notice to all members of the Settlement Class who could be identified through reasonable effort, the publication of the Summary Notice, and the other Notice distribution efforts described in the Motion for Final Approval, as provided for in the Court's October 24, 2017 Order Providing for Notice to the Settlement Class and Preliminarily Approving the Plan of Distribution, satisfy the requirements of Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and due process, constitute the best notice practicable under the circumstances, and constitute due and sufficient notice to all Persons entitled to notice.

Judge Brad Seligman, Larson v. John Hancock Life Insurance Company (U.S.A.) (May 8, 2018) RG16813803 (Sup. Ct. Cal.):

The Court finds that the Class Notice and dissemination of the Class Notice as carried out by the Settlement Administrator complied with the Court's order granting preliminary approval and all applicable requirements of law, including, but not limited to California Rules of Court, rule 3.769(f) and the Constitutional requirements of due process, and constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances and sufficient notice to all persons entitled to notice of the Settlement.

[T]he dissemination of the Class Notice constituted the best notice practicable because it included mailing individual notice to all Settlement Class Members who are reasonably identifiable using the same method used to inform class members of certification of the class, following a National Change of Address search and run through the LexisNexis Deceased Database.

Judge Federico A. Moreno, Masson v. Tallahassee Dodge Chrysler Jeep, LLC (May 8, 2018) 17-cv-22967 (S.D. Fla.):

The Settlement Class Notice Program was the best notice practicable under the circumstances. The Notice Program provided due and adequate notice of the proceedings and of the matters set forth therein, including the proposed settlement set forth in the Agreement, to all persons entitled to such notice and said notice fully satisfied the requirements of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the United States Constitution, which include the requirement of due process.

Chancellor Russell T. Perkins, Morton v. GreenBank (Apr. 18, 2018) 11-135-IV (20th Jud. Dist. Tenn.):

The Notice Program as provided or in the Agreement and the Preliminary Amended Approval Order constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances, including individual notice to all Settlement Class members who could be identified through reasonable effort. The Notice Plan fully satisfied the requirements of Tennessee Rule of Civil Procedure 23.03, due process and any other applicable law.

Judge James V. Selna, Callaway v. Mercedes-Benz USA, LLC (Mar. 8, 2018) 8:14-cv-02011 (C.D. Cal.):

The Court finds that the notice given to the Class was the best notice practicable under the circumstances of this case, and that the notice complied with the requirements of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23 and due process.

The notice given by the Class Administrator constituted due and sufficient notice to the Settlement Class, and adequately informed members of the Settlement Class of their right to exclude themselves from the Settlement Class so as not to be bound by the terms of the Settlement Agreement and how to object to the Settlement.

The Court has considered and rejected the objection ... [regarding] the adequacy of the notice plan. The notice given provided ample information regarding the case. Class members also had the ability to seek additional information from the settlement website, from Class Counsel or from the Class Administrator.

Judge Thomas M. Durkin, Vergara et al., v. Uber Technologies, Inc. (Mar. 1, 2018) 1:15-cv-06972 (N.D. Ill.):

The Court finds that the Notice Plan set forth in Section IX of the Settlement Agreement and effectuated pursuant to the Preliminary Approval Order constitutes the best notice practicable under the circumstances and shall constitute due and sufficient notice to the Settlement Classes of the pendency of this case, certification of the Settlement Classes for settlement purposes only, the terms of the Settlement Agreement, and the Final Approval Hearing, and satisfies the requirements of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the United States Constitution, and any other applicable law. Further, the Court finds that Defendant has timely satisfied the notice requirements of 28 U.S.C. Section 1715.

Judge Federico A. Moreno, In re Takata Airbag Products Liability Litigation (Honda & Nissan) (Feb. 28, 2018) MDL No. 2599 (S.D. Fla.):

The Court finds that the Class Notice has been given to the Class in the manner approved by the Court in its Preliminary Approval Order. The Court finds that such Class Notice: (i) is reasonable and constitutes the best practicable notice to Class Members under the circumstances; (ii) constitutes notice that was reasonably calculated, under the circumstances, to apprise Class Members of the pendency of the Action and the terms of the Settlement Agreement, their right to exclude themselves from the Class or to object to all or any part of the Settlement Agreement, their right to appear at the Fairness Hearing (either on their own or through counsel hired at their own expense) and the binding effect of the orders and Final Order and Final Judgment in the Action, whether favorable or unfavorable, on all persons and entities who or which do not exclude themselves from the Class; (iii) constitutes due, adequate, and sufficient notice to all persons or entities entitled to receive notice; and (iv) fully satisfied the requirements of the United States Constitution (including the Due Process Clause), FED R. CIV. R. 23 and any other applicable law as well as complying with the Federal Judicial Center's illustrative class action notices.

Judge Susan O. Hickey, Larey v. Allstate Property and Casualty Insurance Company (Feb. 9, 2018) 4:14-cv-04008 (W.D. Kan.):

Based on the Court's review of the evidence submitted and argument of counsel, the Court finds and concludes that the Class Notice and Claim Form was mailed to potential Class Members in accordance with the provisions of the Preliminary Approval Order, and together with the Publication Notice, the automated toll-free telephone number, and the settlement website: (i) constituted, under the circumstances, the most effective and practicable notice of the pendency of the Lawsuit, this Stipulation, and the Final Approval Hearing to all Class Members who could be identified through reasonable effort; and (ii) met all requirements of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the requirements of due process under the United States Constitution, and the requirements of any other applicable rules or law.

Judge Muriel D. Hughes, Glasko v. Independent Bank Corporation (Jan. 11, 2018) 13-009983 (Cir. Ct. Mich.):

The Court-approved Notice Plan satisfied due process requirements ... The notice, among other things, was calculated to reach Settlement Class Members because it was sent to their last known email or mail address in the Bank's files.

Judge Naomi Reice Buchwald, Orlander v. Staples, Inc. (Dec. 13, 2017) 13-cv-00703 (S.D.N.Y.):

The Notice of Class Action Settlement ("Notice") was given to all Class Members who could be identified with reasonable effort in accordance with the terms of the Settlement Agreement and Preliminary Approval Order. The form and method of notifying the Class of the pendency of the Action as a class action and the terms and conditions of the proposed Settlement met the requirements of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23 and the Constitution of the United States (including the Due Process Clause); and any other applicable law, constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances, and constituted due and sufficient notice to all persons and entities entitled thereto.

Judge Lisa Godbey Wood, T.A.N. v. PNI Digital Media, Inc. (Dec. 1, 2017) 2:16-cv-132 (S.D. Ga.):

Notice to the Settlement Class Members required by Rule 23 has been provided as directed by this Court in the Preliminary Approval Order, and such notice constituted the best notice practicable, including, but not limited to, the forms of notice and methods of identifying and providing notice to the Settlement Class Members, and satisfied the requirements of Rule 23 and due process, and all other applicable laws.

Judge Robin L. Rosenberg, Gottlieb v. Citgo Petroleum Corporation (Nov. 29, 2017) 9:16-cv-81911 (S.D. Fla.):

The Settlement Class Notice Program was the best notice practicable under the circumstances. The Notice Program provided due and adequate notice of the proceedings and of the matters set forth therein, including the proposed settlement set forth in the Settlement Agreement, to all persons entitled to such notice and said notice fully satisfied the requirements of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the United States Constitution, which include the requirement of due process.

Judge Donald M. Middlebrooks, Mahoney v. TT of Pine Ridge, Inc. (Nov. 20, 2017) 9:17-cv-80029 (S.D. Fla.):

Based on the Settlement Agreement, Order Granting Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement Agreement, and upon the Declaration of Cameron Azari, Esq. (DE 61-1), the Court finds that Class Notice provided to the Settlement Class was the best notice practicable under the circumstances, and that it satisfied the requirements of due process and Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(e)(1).

Judge Gerald Austin McHugh, Sobiech v. U.S. Gas & Electric, Inc., i/t/d/b/a Pennsylvania Gas & Electric et al. (Nov. 8, 2017) 2:14-cv-04464 (E.D. Pa.):

Notice has been provided to the Settlement Class of the pendency of this Action, the conditional certification of the Settlement Class for purposes of this Settlement, and the preliminary approval of the Settlement Agreement and the Settlement contemplated thereby. The Court finds that the notice provided was the best notice practicable under the circumstances to all persons entitled to such notice and fully satisfied the requirements of Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the requirements of due process.

Judge Federico A. Moreno, In re Takata Airbag Products Liability Litigation (BMW, Mazda, Toyota, & Subaru) (Nov. 1, 2017) MDL No. 2599 (S.D. Fla.):

[T]he Court finds that the Class Notice has been given to the Class in the manner approved in the Preliminary Approval Order. The Class Notice: (i) is reasonable and constitutes the best practicable notice to Class Members under the circumstances; (ii) constitutes notice that was reasonably calculated, under the circumstances, to apprise Class Members of the pendency of the Action and the terms of the Settlement Agreement, their right to exclude themselves from the Class or to object to all or any part of the Settlement Agreement, their right to appear at the Fairness Hearing (either on their own or through counsel hired at their own expense), and the binding effect of the orders and Final Order and Final Judgment in the Action, whether favorable or unfavorable, on all persons and entities who or which do not exclude themselves from the Class; (iii) constitutes due, adequate, and sufficient notice to all persons or entities entitled to receive notice; and (iv) fully satisfied the requirements of the United States Constitution (including the Due Process Clause), Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23 and any other applicable law as well as complying with the Federal Judicial Center's illustrative class action notices.

Judge Charles R. Breyer, In re Volkswagen “Clean Diesel” Marketing, Sales Practices and Products Liability Litigation (May 17, 2017) MDL No. 2672 (N.D. Cal.):

The Court is satisfied that the Notice Program was reasonably calculated to notify Class Members of the proposed Settlement. The Notice “apprise[d] interested parties of the pendency of the action and afford[ed] them an opportunity to present their objections.” Mullane v. Cent. Hanover Bank & Trust Co., 339 U.S. 306, 314 (1950). Indeed, the Notice Administrator reports that the notice delivery rate of 97.04% “exceed[ed] the expected range and is indicative of the extensive address updating and re-mailing protocols used.”

Judge Rebecca Brett Nightingale, Ratzlaff et al. v. BOKF, NA d/b/a Bank of Oklahoma et al. (May 15, 2017) CJ-2015-00859 (Dist. Ct. Okla.):

The Court-approved Notice Plan satisfies Oklahoma law because it is “reasonable” (12 O.S. § 2023(E)(I)) and it satisfies due process requirements because it was “reasonably calculated, under [the] circumstances, to apprise interested parties of the pendency of the action and afford them an opportunity to present their objections.” Shutts, 472 U.S. at 812 (quoting Mullane, 339 U.S. at 314-15).

Judge Joseph F. Bataillon, Klug v. Watts Regulator Company (Apr. 13, 2017) 8:15-cv-00061 (D. Neb.):

The court finds that the notice to the Settlement Class of the pendency of the Class Action and of this settlement, as provided by the Settlement Agreement and by the Preliminary Approval Order dated December 7, 2017, constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances to all persons and entities within the definition of the Settlement Class, and fully complied with the requirements of Federal Rules of Civil Procedure Rule 23 and due process. Due and sufficient proof of the execution of the Notice Plan as outlined in the Preliminary Approval Order has been filed.

Judge Yvonne Gonzalez Rogers, Bias v. Wells Fargo & Company et al. (Apr. 13, 2017) 4:12-cv-00664 (N.D. Cal.):

The form, content, and method of dissemination of Notice of Settlement given to the Settlement Class was adequate and reasonable and constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances, including both individual notice to all Settlement Class Members who could be identified through reasonable effort and publication notice.

Notice of Settlement, as given, complied with the requirements of Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, satisfied the requirements of due process, and constituted due and sufficient notice of the matters set forth herein.

Notice of the Settlement was provided to the appropriate regulators pursuant to the Class Action Fairness Act, 28 U.S.C. § 1715(c)(1).

Judge Carlos Murguia, Whitton v. Deffenbaugh Industries, Inc. et al. (Dec. 14, 2016) 2:12-cv-02247 and Gary, LLC v. Deffenbaugh Industries, Inc. et al. 2:13-cv-02634 (D. Kan.):

The Court determines that the Notice Plan as implemented was reasonably calculated to provide the best notice practicable under the circumstances and contained all required information for members of the proposed Settlement Class to act to protect their interests. The Court also finds that Class Members were provided an adequate period of time to receive Notice and respond accordingly.

Judge Yvette Kane, In re Shop-Vac Marketing and Sales Practices Litigation (Dec. 9, 2016) MDL No. 2380 (M.D. Pa.):

The Court hereby finds and concludes that members of the Settlement Class have been provided the best notice practicable of the Settlement and that such notice satisfies all requirements of due process, Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the Class Action Fairness Act of 2005, 28 U.S.C. § 1715, and all other applicable laws.

Judge Timothy D. Fox, Miner v. Philip Morris USA, Inc. (Nov. 21, 2016) 60CV03-4661 (Ark. Cir. Ct.):

The Court finds that the Settlement Notice provided to potential members of the Class constituted the best and most practicable notice under the circumstances, thereby complying fully with due process and Rule 23 of the Arkansas Rules of Civil Procedure.

Judge David C. Norton, In re MI Windows and Doors Inc. Products Liability Litigation (July 22, 2015) MDL No. 2333, 2:12-mn-00001 (D.S.C.):

The court finds that the Notice Plan, as described in the Settlement and related declarations, has been faithfully carried out and constituted the best practicable notice to Class Members under the circumstances of this Action, and was reasonable and constituted due, adequate, and sufficient notice to all Persons entitled to be provided with Notice.

The court also finds that the Notice Plan was reasonably calculated, under the circumstances, to apprise Class Members of: (1) the pendency of this class action; (2) their right to exclude themselves from the Settlement Class and the proposed Settlement; (3) their right to object to any aspect of the proposed Settlement (including final certification of the Settlement Class, the fairness, reasonableness, or adequacy of the proposed Settlement, the adequacy of the Settlement Class's representation by Named Plaintiffs or Class Counsel, or the award of attorney's and representative fees); (4) their right to appear at the fairness hearing (either on their own or through counsel hired at their own expense); and (5) the binding and preclusive effect of the orders and Final Order and Judgment in this Action, whether favorable or unfavorable, on all Persons who do not request exclusion from the Settlement Class. As such, the court finds that the Notice fully satisfied the requirements of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, including Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(c)(2) and (e), the United States Constitution (including the Due Process Clause), the rules of this court, and any other applicable law, and provided sufficient notice to bind all Class Members, regardless of whether a particular Class Member received actual notice.

Judge Robert W. Gettleman, Adkins et al. v. Nestlé Purina PetCare Company et al. (June 23, 2015) 1:12-cv-02871 (N.D. Ill.):

Notice to the Settlement Class and other potentially interested parties has been provided in accordance with the notice requirements specified by the Court in the Preliminary Approval Order. Such notice fully and accurately informed the Settlement Class members of all material elements of the proposed Settlement and of their opportunity to object or comment thereon or to exclude themselves from the Settlement; provided Settlement Class Members adequate instructions and a variety of means to obtain additional information; was the best notice practicable under the circumstances; was valid, due, and sufficient notice to all Settlement Class members; and complied fully with the laws of the State of Illinois, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the United States Constitution, due process, and other applicable law.

Judge James Lawrence King, Steen v. Capital One, N.A. (May 22, 2015) 2:10-cv-01505 (E.D. La.) and 1:10-cv-22058 (S.D. Fla.) as part of In re Checking Account Overdraft Litigation, MDL No. 2036 (S.D. Fla.):

The Court finds that the Settlement Class Members were provided with the best practicable notice; the notice was reasonably calculated, under [the] circumstances, to apprise interested parties of the pendency of the action and afford them an opportunity to present their objections . . . This Settlement with Capital One was widely publicized, and any Settlement Class Member who wished to express comments or objections had ample opportunity and means to do so.

Judge Rya W. Zobel, Gulbankian et al. v. MW Manufacturers, Inc. (Dec. 29, 2014) 1:10-cv-10392 (D. Mass.):

This Court finds that the Class Notice was provided to the Settlement Class consistent with the Preliminary Approval Order and that it was the best notice practicable and fully satisfied the requirements of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, due process, and applicable law. The Court finds that the Notice Plan that was implemented by the Claims Administrator satisfies the requirements of FED. R. CIV. P. 23, 28 U.S.C. § 1715, and Due Process, and is the best notice practicable under the circumstances. The Notice Plan constituted due and sufficient notice of the Settlement, the Final Approval Hearing, and the other matters referred to in the notices. Proof of the giving of such notices has been filed with the Court via the Azari Declaration and its exhibits.

Judge Edward J. Davila, Rose v. Bank of America Corporation et al. (Aug. 29, 2014) 5:11-cv-02390 & 5:12-cv-00400 (N.D. Cal.):

The Court finds that the notice was reasonably calculated under the circumstances to apprise the Settlement Class of the pendency of this action, all material elements of the Settlement, the opportunity for Settlement Class Members to exclude themselves from, object to, or comment on the settlement and to appear at the final approval hearing. The notice was the best notice practicable under the circumstances, satisfying the requirements of Rule 23(c)(2)(B); provided notice in a reasonable manner to all class members, satisfying Rule 23(e)(1)(B); was adequate and sufficient notice to all Class Members; and, complied fully with the laws of the United States and of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, due process and any other applicable rules of court.

Judge James A. Robertson, II, Wong et al. v. Alacer Corp. (June 27, 2014) CGC-12-519221 (Sup. Ct. Cal.):

Notice to the Settlement Class has been provided in accordance with the Preliminary Approval Order. Based on the Declaration of Cameron Azari dated March 7, 2014, such Class Notice has been provided in an adequate and sufficient manner, constitutes the best notice practicable under the circumstances and satisfies the requirements of California Civil Code Section 1781, California Civil Code of Civil Procedure Section 382, Rules 3.766 of the California Rules of Court, and due process.

Judge John Gleeson, In re Payment Card Interchange Fee and Merchant Discount Antitrust Litigation (Dec. 13, 2013) MDL No. 1720, 05-md-01720 (E.D.N.Y.):

The Class Administrator notified class members of the terms of the proposed settlement through a mailed notice and publication campaign that included more than 20 million mailings and publication in more than 400 publications. The notice here meets the requirements of due process and notice standards . . . The objectors' complaints provide no reason to conclude that the purposes and requirements of a notice to a class were not met here.

Judge Lance M. Africk, Evans et al. v. TIN, Inc. et al. (July 7, 2013) 2:11-cv-02067 (E.D. La.):

The Court finds that the dissemination of the Class Notice... as described in Notice Agent Lauran Schultz's Declaration: (a) constituted the best practicable notice to Class Members under the circumstances; (b) constituted notice that was reasonably calculated, under the circumstances...; (c) constituted notice that was reasonable, due, adequate, and sufficient; and (d) constituted notice that fully satisfied all applicable legal requirements, including Rules 23(c)(2)(B) and (e)(1) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the United States Constitution (including Due Process Clause), the Rules of this Court, and any other applicable law, as well as complied with the Federal Judicial Center's illustrative class action notices.

Judge Edward M. Chen, Marolda v. Symantec Corporation (Apr. 5, 2013) 3:08-cv-05701 (N.D. Cal.):

Approximately 3.9 million notices were delivered by email to class members, but only a very small percentage objected or opted out ... The Court ... concludes that notice of settlement to the class was adequate and satisfied all requirements of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(e) and due process. Class members received direct notice by email, and additional notice was given by publication in numerous widely circulated publications as well as in numerous targeted publications. These were the best practicable means of informing class members of their rights and of the settlement's terms.

Judge Ann D. Montgomery, In re Zurn Pex Plumbing Products Liability Litigation (Feb. 27, 2013) MDL No. 1958, 08-md-01958 (D. Minn.):

*The form and content of the notices provided to the class were direct, understandable, and consistent with the "plain language" principles advanced by the Federal Judicial Center . . . The notice plan's multi-faceted approach to providing notice to settlement class members whose identity is not known to the settling parties constitutes "the best notice [26] that is practicable under the circumstances" consistent with Rule 23(c)(2)(B).

Magistrate Judge Stewart, Gessele et al. v. Jack in the Box, Inc. (Jan. 28, 2013) 3:10-cv-00960 (D. Ore.):

Moreover, plaintiffs have submitted [a] declaration from Cameron Azari, a nationally recognized notice expert, who attests that fashioning an effective joint notice is not unworkable or unduly confusing. Judge Carl J. Barbier, In re Oil Spill by the Oil Rig "Deepwater Horizon" in the Gulf of Mexico, on April 20, 2010 (Medical Benefits Settlement) (Jan. 11, 2013) MDL No. 2179 (E.D. La.):

Through August 9, 2012, 366,242 individual notices had been sent to potential [Medical Benefits] Settlement Class Members by postal mail and 56,136 individual notices had been e-mailed. Only 10,700 mailings—or 3.3%—were known to be undeliverable. (Azari Decl. ¶¶ 8, 9.) Notice was also provided through an extensive schedule of local newspaper, radio, television and Internet placements, well-read consumer magazines, a national daily business newspaper, highly-trafficked websites, and Sunday local newspapers (via newspaper supplements). Notice was also provided in non-measured trade, business and specialty publications, African-American, Vietnamese, and Spanish language publications, and Cajun radio programming. The combined measurable paid print, television, radio, and Internet effort reached an estimated 95% of adults aged 18+ in the Gulf Coast region an average of 10.3 times each, and an estimated 83% of all adults in the United States aged 18+ an average of 4 times each. (Id. ¶¶ 8, 10.) All notice documents were designed to be clear, substantive, and informative. (Id. ¶ 5.)

The Court received no objections to the scope or content of the [Medical Benefits] Notice Program. (Azari Supp. Decl. ¶ 12.) The Court finds that the Notice and Notice Plan as implemented satisfied the best notice practicable standard of Rule 23(c) and, in accordance with Rule 23(e)(1), provided notice in a reasonable manner to Class Members who would be bound by the Settlement, including individual notice to all Class Members who could be identified through reasonable effort. Likewise, the Notice and Notice Plan satisfied the requirements of Due Process. The Court also finds the Notice and Notice Plan satisfied the requirements of CAFA.

Judge Carl J. Barbier, In re Oil Spill by the Oil Rig "Deepwater Horizon" in the Gulf of Mexico, on April 20, 2010 (Economic and Property Damages Settlement) (Dec. 21, 2012) MDL No. 2179 (E.D. La.):

The Court finds that the Class Notice and Class Notice Plan satisfied and continue to satisfy the applicable requirements of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(c)(2)(b) and 23(e), the Class Action Fairness Act (28 U.S.C. § 1711 et seq.), and the Due Process Clause of the United States Constitution (U.S. Const., amend. V), constituting the best notice that is practicable under the circumstances of this litigation. The notice program surpassed the requirements of Due Process, Rule 23, and CAFA. Based on the factual elements of the Notice Program as detailed below, the Notice Program surpassed all of the requirements of Due Process, Rule 23, and CAFA.

The Notice Program, as duly implemented, surpasses other notice programs ... executed with court approval. The Notice Program included notification to known or potential Class Members via postal mail and e-mail; an extensive schedule of local newspaper, radio, television and Internet placements, well-read consumer magazines, a national daily business newspaper, and Sunday local newspapers. Notice placements also appeared in non-measured trade, business, and specialty publications, African-American, Vietnamese, and Spanish language publications, and Cajun radio programming. The Notice Program met the objective of reaching the greatest possible number of class members and providing them with every reasonable opportunity to understand their legal rights. See Azari Decl. ¶¶ 8, 15, 68. The Notice Program was substantially completed on July 15, 2012, allowing class members adequate time to make decisions before the opt-out and objections deadlines.

The media notice effort alone reached an estimated 95% of adults in the Gulf region an average of 10.3 times each, and an estimated 83% of all adults in the United States an average of 4 times each. These figures do not include notice efforts that cannot be measured, such as advertisements in trade publications and sponsored search engine listings. The Notice Program fairly and adequately covered and notified the class without excluding any demographic group or geographic area, and it exceeded the reach percentage achieved in most other court-approved notice programs.

Judge Alonzo Harris, Opelousas General Hospital Authority, A Public Trust, D/B/A Opelousas General Health System and ArklaMiss Surgery Center, L.L.C. v. FairPay Solutions, Inc. (Aug. 17, 2012) 12-C-1599 (27th Jud. D. Ct. La.):

Notice given to Class Members and all other interested parties pursuant to this Court's order of April 18, 2012, was reasonably calculated to apprise interested parties of the pendency of the action, the certification of the Class as Defined for settlement purposes only, the terms of the Settlement Agreement, Class Members rights to be represented by private counsel, at their own costs, and Class Members rights to appear in Court to have their objections heard, and to afford persons or entities within the Class Definition an opportunity to exclude themselves from the Class. Such notice complied with all requirements of the federal and state constitutions, including the Due Process Clause, and applicable articles of the Louisiana Code of Civil Procedure, and constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances and constituted due and sufficient notice to all potential members of the Class as Defined.

Judge James Lawrence King, Sachar v. Iberiabank Corporation (Apr. 26, 2012) as part of In re Checking Account Overdraft MDL No. 2036 (S.D. Fla.):

The Court finds that the Notice previously approved was fully and properly effectuated and was sufficient to satisfy the requirements of due process because it described "the substantive claims ... [and] contained information reasonably necessary to [allow Settlement Class Members to] make a decision to remain a class member and be bound by the final judgment.".... The Notice, among other things, defined the Settlement Class, described the release as well as the amount and method and manner of proposed distribution of the Settlement proceeds, and informed Settlement Class Members of their rights to opt-out or object, the procedures for doing so, and the time and place of the Final Approval Hearing. The Notice also informed Settlement Class Members that a class judgment would bind them unless they opted out, and told them where they could obtain more information, such as access to a full copy of the Agreement. Further, the Notice described in summary form the fact that Class Counsel would be seeking attorneys' fees of up to 30 percent of the Settlement. Settlement Class Members were provided with the best practicable notice "reasonably calculated, under [the] circumstances, to apprise them of the pendency of the action and afford them an opportunity to present their objections." Mullane, 339 U.S. at 314. The content of the Notice fully complied with the requirements of Rule 23.

Judge Bobby Peters, Vereen v. Lowe's Home Centers (Apr. 13, 2012) SU10-cv-2267B (Ga. Super. Ct.):

The Court finds that the Notice and the Notice Plan was fulfilled, in accordance with the terms of the Settlement Agreement, the Amendment, and this Court's Preliminary Approval Order and that this Notice and Notice Plan constituted the best practicable notice to Class Members under the circumstances of this action, constituted due and sufficient Notice of the proposed Settlement to all persons entitled to participate in the proposed Settlement, and was in full compliance with Ga. Code Ann § 9-11-23 and the constitutional requirements of due process. Extensive notice was provided to the class, including point of sale notification, publication notice and notice by first-class mail for certain potential Class Members.

The affidavit of the notice expert conclusively supports this Court's finding that the notice program was adequate, appropriate, and comported with Georgia Code Ann. § 9-11-23(b)(2), the Due Process Clause of the Constitution, and the guidance for effective notice articulate in the FJC's Manual for Complex Litigation, 4th.

Judge Lee Rosenthal, In re Heartland Payment Systems, Inc. Customer Data Security Breach Litigation (Mar. 2, 2012) MDL No. 2046 (S.D. Tex.):

*The notice that has been given clearly complies with Rule 23(e)(1)'s reasonableness requirement ... the notice plan after its implementation and conservatively estimated that notice reached 81.4 percent of the class members. (Docket Entry No. 106, ¶ 32). Both the summary notice and the detailed notice provided the information reasonably necessary for the presumptive class members to determine whether to object to the proposed settlement. See Katrina Canal Breaches, 628 F.3d at 197. Both the summary notice and the detailed notice "were written in easy-to-understand plain English." In re Black Farmers Discrimination Litig., — F. Supp. 2d —, 2011 WL 5117058, at *23 (D.D.C. 2011); accord AGGREGATE LITIGATION § 3.04(c).15 The notice provided "satisf[ies] the broad reasonableness standards imposed by due process" and Rule 23. Judge John D. Bates, Trombley v. National City Bank (Dec. 1, 2011) 1:10-cv-00232 (D.D.C.) as part of In re Checking Account Overdraft Litigation MDL No. 2036 (S.D. Fla.):

The form, content, and method of dissemination of Notice given to the Settlement Class were in full compliance with the Court's January 11, 2011 Order, the requirements of Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e), and due process. The notice was adequate and reasonable, and constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances. In addition, adequate notice of the proceedings and an opportunity to participate in the final fairness hearing were provided to the Settlement Class.

Judge Robert M. Dow, Jr., Schulte v. Fifth Third Bank (July 29, 2011) 1:09-cv-06655 (N.D. Ill.):

The Court has reviewed the content of all of the various notices, as well as the manner in which Notice was disseminated, and concludes that the Notice given to the Class fully complied with Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23, as it was the best notice practicable, satisfied all constitutional due process concerns, and provided the Court with jurisdiction over the absent Class Members.

Judge Ellis J. Daigle, Williams v. Hammerman & Gainer Inc. (June 30, 2011) 11-C-3187-B (27th Jud. D. Ct. La.):

Notices given to Settlement Class members and all other interested parties throughout this proceeding with respect to the certification of the Settlement Class, the proposed settlement, and all related procedures and hearings—including, without limitation, the notice to putative Settlement Class members and others ... were reasonably calculated under all the circumstances and have been sufficient, as to form, content, and manner of dissemination, to apprise interested parties and members of the Settlement Class of the pendency of the action, the certification of the Settlement Class, the Settlement Agreement and its contents, Settlement Class members' right to be represented by private counsel, at their own cost, and Settlement Class members' right to appear in Court to have their objections heard, and to afford Settlement Class members an opportunity to exclude themselves from the Settlement Class. Such notices complied with all requirements of the federal and state constitutions, including the due process clause, and applicable articles of the Louisiana Code of Civil Procedures, and constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances and constituted due and sufficient notice to all potential members of the Settlement Class.

Judge Stefan R. Underhill, Mathena v. Webster Bank, N.A. (Mar. 24, 2011) 3:10-cv-01448 (D. Conn.) as part of In re Checking Account Overdraft Litigation MDL No. 2036 (S.D. Fla.):

The form, content, and method of dissemination of Notice given to the Settlement Class were adequate and reasonable, and constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances. The Notice, as given, provided valid, due, and sufficient notice of the proposed settlement, the terms and conditions set forth in the Settlement Agreement, and these proceedings to all persons entitled to such notice, and said notice fully satisfied the requirements of Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and due process.

Judicial Quotes

Judge Ted Stewart, Miller v. Basic Research, LLC (Sept. 2, 2010) 2:07-cv-00871 (D. Utah):

Plaintiffs state that they have hired a firm specializing in designing and implementing large scale, unbiased, legal notification plans. Plaintiffs represent to the Court that such notice will include: 1) individual notice by electronic mail and/or first-class mail sent to all reasonably identifiable Class members; 2) nationwide paid media notice through a combination of print publications, including newspapers, consumer magazines, newspaper supplements and the Internet; 3) a neutral, Court-approved, informational press release; 4) a neutral, Court-approved Internet website; and 5) a toll-free telephone number. Similar mixed media plans have been approved by other district courts post class certification. The Court finds this plan is sufficient to meet the notice requirement.

Judge Sara Loi, Pavlov v. Continental Casualty Co. (Oct. 7, 2009) 5:07-cv-02580 (N.D. Ohio):

[T]he elaborate notice program contained in the Settlement Agreement provides for notice through a variety of means, including direct mail to each class member, notice to the United States Attorney General and each State, a toll free number, and a website designed to provide information about the settlement and instructions on submitting claims. With a 99.9% effective rate, the Court finds that the notice program constituted the “best notice that is practicable under the circumstances,” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(c)(2)(B), and clearly satisfies the requirements of Rule 23(c)(2)(B).

Judge James Robertson, In re Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) Data Theft Litigation (Sept. 23, 2009) MDL No. 1796 (D.D.C.):

The Notice Plan, as implemented, satisfied the requirements of due process and was the best notice practicable under the circumstances. The Notice Plan was reasonably calculated, under the circumstances, to apprise Class Members of the pendency of the action, the terms of the Settlement, and their right to appear, object to or exclude themselves from the Settlement. Further, the notice was reasonable and constituted due, adequate and sufficient notice to all persons entitled to receive notice.

CHRISTOPHER RUSSO, individually, and on behalf of all others similarly situated,

Plaintiff,

v.

OP PHARMACY, LLC a/k/a ONE POINT
PATIENT CARE, LLC,

Defendant.

Case No. 3:24-cv-649-RGJ

DECLARATION OF KYLE S. BINGHAM ON IMPLEMENTATION OF CAFA NOTICE

I, KYLE S. BINGHAM, hereby declare and state as follows:

1. My name is KYLE S. BINGHAM. I am over the age of 25 and I have personal knowledge of the matters set forth herein, and I believe them to be true and correct.

2. I am the Senior Director of Legal Noticing for Epiq Class Action & Claims Solutions, Inc. (“Epiq”), a firm that specializes in designing, developing, analyzing and implementing large-scale, un-biased, legal notification plans. I have overseen and handled Class Action Fairness Act (“CAFA”) notice mailings for more than 500 class action settlements.

3. Epiq is a firm with more than 25 years of experience in claims processing and settlement administration. Epiq’s class action case administration services include coordination of all notice requirements, design of direct-mail notices, establishment of fulfillment services, receipt and processing of opt-outs, coordination with the United States Postal Service (“USPS”), claims database management, claim adjudication, funds management and distribution services.

4. The facts in this Declaration are based on what I personally know, as well as information provided to me in the ordinary course of my business by my colleagues at Epiq.

DECLARATION OF KYLE S. BINGHAM ON IMPLEMENTATION OF CAFA NOTICE

CAFA NOTICE IMPLEMENTATION

5. At the direction of counsel for Defendant OP Pharmacy, LLC a/k/a One Point Patient Care, LLC, 55 federal and state officials (the Attorney General of the United States and the Attorneys General of each of the 50 states, the District of Columbia, the Virgin Islands, Puerto Rico, and Guam) were identified to receive CAFA notice.

6. Epiq maintains a list of these federal and state officials with contact information for the purpose of providing CAFA notice. Prior to mailing, the names and addresses selected from Epiq's list were verified, then run through the Coding Accuracy Support System ("CASS") maintained by the United States Postal Service ("USPS").¹

7. On June 2, 2025, Epiq sent 55 CAFA Notice Packages ("Notice"). The Notice was mailed via USPS Priority Mail to 51 officials (the Attorneys General of 47 states, the District of Columbia, the Virgin Islands, Puerto Rico, and Guam). As per the direction of the Office of the Nevada, New York, and Connecticut Attorneys General, the Notice was sent to the Nevada, New York, and Connecticut Attorneys General electronically via email. The Notice was also sent via United Parcel Service ("UPS") to the Attorney General of the United States. The CAFA Notice Service List (USPS Priority Mail, Email, and UPS) is included as Attachment 1.

8. The materials sent to the federal and state officials included a Cover Letter, which provided notice of the proposed Settlement of the above-captioned case. The Cover Letter is included as Attachment 2.

9. The cover letter was accompanied by a CD, which included the following:

¹ CASS improves the accuracy of carrier route, 5-digit ZIP®, ZIP + 4® and delivery point codes that appear on mail pieces. The USPS makes this system available to mailing firms who want to improve the accuracy of postal codes, i.e., 5-digit ZIP®, ZIP + 4®, delivery point (DPCs), and carrier route codes that appear on mail pieces.

a. Per 28 U.S.C. § 1715(b)(1) – Complaint and Any Amended Complaints:

- Class Action Complaint (filed November 8, 2024); and
- Consolidated Class Action Complaint (filed April 18, 2025).

b. Per 28 U.S.C. § 1715(b)(3) – Notification to Class Members:

- Postcard Notice (Exhibit 1 to the Class Action Settlement Agreement);
- Long Form Class Notice (Exhibit 2 to the Class Action Settlement Agreement); and
- Claim Form (Exhibit 3 to the Class Action Settlement Agreement).

c. Per 28 U.S.C. § 1715(b)(4) – Class Action Settlement Agreement: The following documents were included:

- Plaintiffs’ Unopposed Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement;
- Memorandum of Law in Support of Plaintiffs’ Unopposed Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement;
 - Class Action Settlement Agreement (Exhibit A to the Memorandum of Law);
- Joint Declaration of Class Counsel in Support of Unopposed Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement (Exhibit B to the Memorandum of Law);
 - Siri & Glimstad LLP Firm Resume (Exhibit 1 to the Class Counsel’s Declaration);
 - Murphy Law Firm Resume (Exhibit 2 to the Class Counsel’s Declaration);
 - Ahdoot & Wolfson, PC Firm Resume (Exhibit 3 to the Class Counsel’s Declaration);

- KO Lawyers Firm Resume (Exhibit 4 to the Class Counsel's Declaration); and
 - [Proposed] Preliminary Approval Order (Exhibit C to the Memorandum of Law).
- d. Per 28 U.S.C. § 1715(b)(7) – Estimate of Class Members: A Geographic Analysis of potential Class Members was included on the CD.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed on June 7, 2025.

A $2,115,000.00 settlement has been reached in a class action lawsuit against OP Pharmacy, LLC a/k/a OnePoint Patient Care, LLC ("Defendant") involving a Data Incident that took place on or about August 8, 2024, involving the Defendant and resulting in the unauthorized access to or acquisition of Settlement Class members' Private Information. The Private Information involved includes information collected by Defendant, directly or indirectly, pertaining to its current and former patients, including, but not limited to, names, addresses, facility location, and medical information.

Who is Included? Records show you are a member of the Settlement Class, defined as: all living individuals residing in the United States whose Private Information may have been accessed during the Data Incident, including those individuals who were sent a notice by OnePoint that their Private Information may have been impacted in the Data Incident.

What does the Settlement Provide? As a Settlement Class Member, you can submit a Claim Form online at www.OnePointSettlement.com, or by mail postmarked by October 8, 2026, for the following Settlement Class Member Benefits:

Cash Payment A – Documented Losses: You may submit a Claim Form and provide reasonable documentation for losses related to the Data Incident for up to $3,500.00 per Settlement Class Member;

OR

Cash Payment B – Alternative Cash: Instead of Cash Payment A, you may submit a Claim Form to receive an alternate cash payment in the estimated amount of $100.00 – no supporting documentation required;

Your Cash Payment may be subject to a pro rata (a legal term meaning equal share) increase or decrease depending upon the total value of all Valid Claims.

Information Security Enhancements: Defendant is implementing additional security measures following the Data Incident.

Other Options. If you do not want to be legally bound by the Settlement, you must submit an opt-out postmarked by August 24, 2026. If you do not opt-out, you will give up the right to sue and will release all claims against the Defendant and Released Parties related to the legal claims in this lawsuit. If you do not opt-out, you may object to the Settlement and/or Application for Attorneys' Fees, Costs, and Service Awards by August 24, 2026. The Long Form Notice on the Settlement Website explains how to opt-out or object. If you do nothing, you will get no Settlement Class Member Benefits, and you will be bound by the Settlement and any judgments and orders. The Court will hold a Final Approval Hearing on September 23, 2026, to consider whether to approve the Settlement, Class Counsel's attorneys' fees of up to 1/3 of the Settlement Fund and costs, and any objections. The Court may also decide to hold the hearing via video conference or by telephone. You should check the Settlement Website to confirm the date and time of the hearing have not changed. You or your lawyer may attend and ask to appear at the hearing if you object, but you are not required to do so.

If your Private Information was accessed in the Data Incident involving OP Pharmacy, LLC a/k/a OnePoint Patient Care, LLC, that took place on or about August 8, 2024, and you were sent notice, you may be entitled to Settlement Class Member Benefits from a Settlement.

A Court authorized this Notice. This is not a solicitation from a lawyer.

- A $2,115,000.00 settlement has been reached in a class action lawsuit against OP Pharmacy, LLC a/k/a OnePoint Patient Care, LLC (“Defendant”) involving a Data Incident that took place on or about August 8, 2024, involving the Defendant and resulting in the unauthorized access to or acquisition of Settlement Class Members’ Private Information. The Private Information involved includes information collected by Defendant, directly or indirectly, pertaining to its current and former patients, including, but not limited to, names, addresses, facility location, and medical information.
- Plaintiffs filed a class action lawsuit against Defendant as a result of the Data Incident, which alleges injuries such as lost privacy, diminution in value of the compromised Private Information, and lost time spent responding to and attempting to mitigate the negative effects of the Data Incident on their lives (the “Action”). The claims brought in the Action include negligence, negligence per se, breach of implied contract, unjust enrichment, breach of fiduciary duty, and declaratory and injunctive relief. Defendant denies any and all liability arising from these claims, and takes the position that (i) Defendant did not breach any legal duties and was itself the victim of criminal actions in the Data Incident; and (ii) Plaintiffs’ claims are not suited to class-wide treatment.
- The Settlement Class includes: all living individuals residing in the United States whose Private Information may have been accessed during the Data Incident, including those individuals who were sent a notice by OnePoint that their Private Information may have been impacted in the Data Incident.
- If you are a Settlement Class Member, you can submit a Claim Form for the following Settlement Class Member Benefits:

Cash Payment A – Documented Losses: You may submit a Claim Form and provide reasonable documentation for losses related to the Data Incident for up to $3,500.00 per Settlement Class Member;

OR

Cash Payment B – Alternate Cash: Instead of Cash Payment A, without providing documentation, you may submit a Claim Form to receive an alternate cash payment in the estimated amount of $100.00;

Your Cash Payment may be subject to a pro rata (a legal term meaning equal share) increase or decrease depending upon the total value of all Valid Claims.

If you submit a claim for Cash Payment A – Documented Losses and the Settlement Administrator determines your claim to be invalid, your claim will automatically be converted to a Cash Payment B – Alternate Cash.

Information Security Enhancements: Defendant is implementing additional security measures following the Data Incident.

This Notice may affect your rights. Please read it carefully.

Your Legal Rights & Options		Deadline
Submit a Claim Form	The only way to get Settlement Class Member Benefits is to submit a timely and valid Claim Form.	Submitted or Postmarked by: October 8, 2026
Exclude Yourself	Get no Settlement Class Member Benefits. Keep your right to file your own lawsuit against the Released Parties about the Released Claims that are released by the Settlement in this Action.	Postmarked by: August 24, 2026
Object to the Settlement	Stay in the Settlement, but tell the Court why you do not agree with the Settlement. You will still be bound by the Settlement if the Court approves it.	Filed by: August 24, 2026
Do Nothing	Get no Settlement Class Member Benefits. Give up your legal rights.

These rights and options—and the deadlines to exercise them—are explained in this Notice.

- The Court must decide whether to approve the Settlement, attorneys’ fees, costs, and Service Awards. No Settlement Class Member Benefits will be provided unless the Court approves the Settlement.

BASIC INFORMATION

1. Why is this Notice being provided?

A court authorized this Notice because you have the right to know about the Settlement of this class action lawsuit and about all of your rights and options before the Court decides whether to grant final approval to the Settlement. This Notice explains the lawsuit, the Settlement, your legal rights, what Settlement Class Member Benefits are available, who is eligible for the Settlement Class Member Benefits, and how to get them.

The Honorable Rebecca Grady Jennings of the United States District Court for the Western District of Kentucky is overseeing this class action. The lawsuit is known as Christopher Russo v. OP Pharmacy, LLC a/k/a OnePoint Patient Care, LLC, Case No. 3:24-cv-00649-RGJ (“Action”). The individuals who filed this Action are called the “Plaintiffs” and/or “Class Representatives” and the company sued, OP Pharmacy, LLC a/k/a OnePoint Patient Care, LLC, is called the “Defendant.”

2. What is this lawsuit about?

The Plaintiffs filed a class action lawsuit against Defendant as a result of the Data Incident, which alleges injuries such as lost privacy, diminution in value of the compromised Private Information, and lost time spent responding to and attempting to mitigate the negative effects of the Data Incident on their lives. The claims brought in the lawsuit include negligence, negligence per se, breach of implied contract, unjust enrichment, breach of fiduciary duty, and declaratory and injunctive relief. Defendant denies any and all liability arising from these claims, and takes the position that (i) Defendant did not breach any legal duties and was itself the victim of criminal actions in the Data Incident; and (ii) Plaintiffs’ claims are not suited to class-wide treatment.

Instead of litigating these issues, the Plaintiffs and Defendant have agreed to a settlement to avoid the risk, cost, and time of continuing the Action.

Questions? Go to www.OnePointSettlement.com or call 1-844-635-2035

3. Why is there a Settlement?

The Plaintiffs and Defendant do not agree about the legal claims made in this Action. The Action has not gone to trial, and the Court has not decided in favor of the Plaintiffs or Defendant. Instead, the Plaintiffs and Defendant have agreed to settle the Action. The Class Representatives, Defendant, and their lawyers believe the Settlement is best for the Settlement Class because of the Settlement Class Member Benefits available and the risks and uncertainty associated with continuing the Action.

4. Why is this lawsuit a class action?

In a class action, one or more people (called class representatives) sue on behalf of all people who have similar legal claims. Together, all these people are called a class or class members. One court resolves the issues for all class members, except for those class members who timely exclude themselves (opt-out) from the class.

WHO IS INCLUDED IN THE SETTLEMENT?

5. How do I know if I am included in the Settlement?

You are included in the Settlement Class if you are a living individual residing in the United States whose Private Information may have been accessed during the Data Incident, including those individuals who were sent notice by OnePoint that their Private Information may have been impacted in the Data Incident.

6. Are there exceptions to being included in the Settlement?

Yes. Excluded from the Settlement Class are all persons who are: (a) parents, subsidiaries, directors and officers of Defendant, and any entity in which Defendant has a controlling interest; (b) the Judge assigned to the Action, that Judge's immediate family, and Court staff; (c) all persons who submit a timely and valid exclusion request from the Settlement Class; and (d) any person found by a court of competent jurisdiction to be guilty under criminal law of initiating, causing, aiding or abetting the criminal activity occurrence of the Data Incident, or who pleads nolo contendere to any such charge.

7. What if I am still not sure whether I am part of the Settlement?

If you are still not sure whether you are a Settlement Class Member, you may go to www.OnePointSettlement.com or call toll-free 1-844-635-2035.

THE SETTLEMENT BENEFITS

8. What does this Settlement provide?

If you are a Settlement Class Member, you can submit a Claim Form for the following Settlement Class Member Benefits:

Cash Payment A – Documented Losses

You may submit a Claim Form with reasonable documentation for losses related to the Data Incident for up to $3,500.00 per Settlement Class Member.

Examples of expenses incurred as a result of the Data Incident, include (without limitation) bank fees,

Questions? Go to www.OnePointSettlement.com or call 1-844-635-2035

long distance phone charges, cell phone charges (only charged by the minute), data charges (only if charged based on the amount of data used), postage, gasoline for local travel and fees for credit reports, credit monitoring, or other identity theft insurance products purchased.

Examples of reasonable documentation include (but are not limited to): telephone records, correspondence including emails, or receipts. Personal certifications, declarations, or affidavits from the Settlement Class Member do not constitute reasonable documentation but may be included to provide clarification, context, or support for other submitted reasonable documentation. You will not be reimbursed for expenses if you have been reimbursed for the same expenses by another source, including compensation provided in connection with the medical monitoring and identity theft protection product offered as part of the notification letter provided by the Defendant or otherwise.

If you do not submit reasonable documentation supporting a loss, or if your Claim Form is invalid as determined by the Settlement Administrator, and you do not cure your Claim Form, your Claim Form will be converted to a Cash Payment B – Alternate Cash.

Cash Payment B – Alternate Cash

Instead of selecting Cash Payment A – Documented Losses, without providing documentation, you may submit a Claim Form to receive an alternate cash payment in the estimated amount of $100.00.

Your Cash Payment may be subject to a pro rata (a legal term meaning equal share) increase if the amount of Valid Claims does not use the entire Net Settlement Fund, as further explained in Section V of the Settlement Agreement accessible on the Settlement Website. Alternatively, if the amount of Valid Claims exceeds the amount of the Net Settlement Fund, your Cash Payment may be subject to a pro rata reduction.

Any pro rata increases or decreases to Cash Payments will be on an equal percentage basis.

Information Security Enhancements

Defendant is implementing additional security measures following the Data Incident, the costs of which are the responsibility of the Defendant and will not in any way reduce the Settlement Fund.

9. What am I giving up to receive Settlement Class Member Benefits or stay in the Settlement Class?

Unless you exclude yourself (opt-out), you will remain in the Settlement Class. If the Settlement is approved and becomes final, all Court orders and any judgments will apply to you and legally bind you. You will not be able to sue, continue to sue, or be part of any other lawsuit against the Released Parties about the Released Claims in this Action. The specific rights you are giving up are called “Released Claims.”

10. What are the Released Claims?

Section XIII of the Settlement Agreement describes the Releases, Released Claims, and Released Parties, in necessary legal terminology, so please read this section carefully. The Settlement Agreement is available at www.OnePointSettlement.com. For questions regarding the Releases, Released Claims, or Released Parties and what the language in the Settlement Agreement means, you can also contact Class Counsel listed below for free, or you can talk to your own lawyer at your own expense.

HOW TO GET BENEFITS FROM THE SETTLEMENT

11. How do I submit a Claim Form?

You must submit a timely and valid Claim Form to receive any Settlement Class Member Benefits as described above. Your Claim Form must be submitted online at www.OnePointSettlement.com by October 8, 2026, or mailed to the Settlement Administrator at the address on the Claim Form, postmarked by October 8, 2026. Claim Forms are also available at www.OnePointSettlement.com or by calling 1-844-635-2035 or by writing to:

OnePoint Data Incident
Settlement Administrator
PO Box 2688
Portland, OR 97208-2688

12. What happens if my contact information changes after I submit a Claim Form?

If you change your mailing address or email address after you submit a Claim Form, it is your responsibility to inform the Settlement Administrator of your updated information. You may notify the Settlement Administrator of any changes by writing to:

OnePoint Data Incident
Settlement Administrator
PO Box 2688
Portland, OR 97208-2688

13. When will I receive my Settlement Class Member Benefits?

If you file a timely and valid Claim Form, the Settlement Class Member Benefits will be provided after the Settlement is approved by the Court and becomes final.

It may take time for the Settlement to be approved and become final. Please be patient and check www.OnePointSettlement.com for updates.

EXCLUDE YOURSELF OR OPT-OUT OF THE SETTLEMENT

If you are a member of the Settlement Class and want to keep any right you may have to sue or continue to sue the Released Parties on your own related to the legal claims in this Action or the Released Claims, then you must take steps to get out of the Settlement. This is called excluding yourself from—or “opting-out” of—the Settlement.

14. How do I opt-out of the Settlement?

To exclude yourself from the Settlement, you must mail a written request for exclusion, which includes the following:

- 1) Your name, mailing address, telephone number, and email address (if any);
- 2) Your personal physical signature; and
- 3) A statement that you want to be excluded from the Settlement Class, such as “I hereby request to be excluded from the Settlement Class in Christopher Russo v. OP Pharmacy, LLC a/k/a OnePoint Patient Care, LLC.”

Questions? Go to www.OnePointSettlement.com or call 1-844-635-2035

The exclusion request must be mailed to the Settlement Administrator at the following address, and be postmarked by August 24, 2026:

OnePoint Data Incident
Settlement Administrator
PO Box 2688
Portland, OR 97208-2688

You cannot opt-out (exclude yourself) by telephone or by email.

“Mass” or “class” requests for exclusion filed by third parties on behalf of a “mass” or “class” of Settlement Class Members or multiple Settlement Class Members will not be allowed.

15. If I opt-out can I still get anything from the Settlement?

No. If you opt-out, you will not be able to receive Settlement Class Member Benefits, and you will not be bound by the Settlement or any judgments in this Action. You can only get Settlement Class Member Benefits if you stay in the Settlement and submit a timely and valid Claim Form.

16. If I do not opt-out, can I sue the Defendant for the same thing later?

No. Unless you opt-out, you give up any right to sue any of the Released Parties for the legal claims this Settlement resolves and Releases, and you will be bound by all the terms of the Settlement, proceedings, orders, and judgments in the Action. You must opt-out of this Action to start or continue your own lawsuit or be part of any other lawsuit against the Released Parties about the Released Claims in this Settlement. If you have a pending lawsuit, speak to your lawyer in that lawsuit immediately.

OBJECTING TO THE SETTLEMENT

17. How do I tell the Court I do not like the Settlement?

If you are a Settlement Class Member, you can tell the Court you do not agree with all or any part of the Settlement and/or Application for Attorneys’ Fees, Costs, and Service Awards.

To object, you must file your timely written objection with the Court as provided below by August 24, 2026, and send by U.S. mail to Class Counsel, Defendant’s Counsel, and the Settlement Administrator postmarked by or shipped by private courier (such as Federal Express) by August 24, 2026, stating you object to the Settlement in Christopher Russo v. OP Pharmacy, LLC a/k/a OnePoint Patient Care, LLC, Case No. 3:24-cv-00649-RGJ.

To file an objection, you cannot exclude yourself from the Settlement Class. Your objection must include all of the following information:

- 1) Your full name, mailing address, telephone number, and email address (if any);
- 2) The case name and case number, Christopher Russo v. OP Pharmacy, LLC a/k/a OnePoint Patient Care, LLC, Case No. 3:24-cv-00649-RGJ;
- 3) Documentation sufficient to establish membership in the Settlement Class, such as a copy of the Postcard Notice you received;
- 4) All grounds for the objection, accompanied by any legal support for the objection known to you as the objector or your own lawyer;
- 5) The number of times you have objected to a class action settlement within the five (5) years preceding the date that you file the objection, the caption of each case in which you have made such objection, and a copy of any orders related to or ruling upon your prior objections that were issued by the trial and appellate courts in each listed case;

Questions? Go to www.OnePointSettlement.com or call 1-844-635-2035

- 6) The identity of all lawyers representing you in connection with the objection (if any), including any former or current lawyers who may be entitled to compensation for any reason related to the objection to the Settlement and/or Application for Attorneys' Fees, Costs, and Service Awards;
- 7) The number of times your lawyer or your lawyer's law firm have objected to a class action settlement within the five (5) years preceding the date of the filed objection, the caption of each case in which your lawyer or the firm has made such objection and a copy of any orders related to or ruling upon your lawyer's or the lawyer's law firm's prior objections that were issued by the trial and appellate courts in each listed case;
- 8) The identity of all lawyers (if any) representing you as an objector, and whether they will appear at the Final Approval Hearing;
- 9) A list of all persons who will be called to testify at the Final Approval Hearing in support of your objection (if any);
- 10) A statement confirming whether you intend to personally appear and/or testify at the Final Approval Hearing; and
- 11) Your signature as the objector (a lawyer's signature is not sufficient). Class Counsel and/or Defendant's Counsel may conduct limited discovery on any objector or objector's lawyer.

To object, you must file your timely written objection with the Court by August 24, 2026, and send it by U.S. mail to Class Counsel, Defendant's Counsel, and the Settlement Administrator postmarked by or shipped by private courier (such as Federal Express) by August 24, 2026, at the following addresses:

18. What is the difference between objecting and asking to be excluded?

Objecting is simply telling the Court that you do not like something about the Settlement. You can object only if you stay in the Settlement Class. Opting-out is telling the Court that you do not want to be part of the Settlement Class. If you opt-out, you cannot object because you are no longer part of the Settlement.

Questions? Go to www.OnePointSettlement.com or call 1-844-635-2035

THE LAWYERS REPRESENTING YOU

19. Do I have a lawyer in the lawsuit?

Yes. The Court has appointed Jeff Ostrow of Kopelowitz Ostrow P.A., A. Brooke Murphy of Murphy Law Firm, Tyler J. Bean of Siri & Glimstad LLP, and Andrew W. Ferich of Ahdoot & Wolfson PC as Class Counsel to represent you and the Settlement Class for the purposes of this Settlement. You may hire your own lawyer at your own cost if you want someone other than Class Counsel to represent you in this Action.

20. How will Class Counsel be paid?

Class Counsel will file a motion asking the Court to award the attorneys' fees of up to 1/3 of the Settlement Fund, plus reimbursement of reasonable costs. Class Counsel will also ask the Court to approve the Service Awards for the Class Representatives of up to $2,500.00 each for their efforts. If awarded by the Court, the attorneys' fees and costs, and the Service Awards will be paid from the Settlement Fund. The Court may award less than these amounts.

THE FINAL APPROVAL HEARING

The Court will hold a "Final Approval Hearing" to decide whether to approve the Settlement and Application for Attorneys' Fees, Costs, and Service Awards. You may attend and you may ask to speak if you file an objection by the deadline, but you do not have to.

21. When and where will the Court decide whether to approve the Settlement?

The Court will hold a Final Approval Hearing on September 23, 2026, at 1:30 p.m. before the Honorable Rebecca Grady Jennings at the Gene Snyder United States Courthouse, 601 West Broadway, Louisville KY 40202. At this hearing, the Court will consider whether the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate and decide whether to approve the Settlement, Class Counsel's Application for Attorneys' Fees, Costs, and Service Awards.

If there are objections that were filed by the deadline, the Court will consider them. If you file a timely objection, and you (or your lawyer) ask to speak at the hearing, the Court may hear objections at the hearing.

Note: The date and time of the Final Approval Hearing are subject to change without further notice to the Settlement Class. The Court may also decide to hold the hearing via video conference or by telephone. You should check the Settlement Website www.OnePointSettlement.com to confirm the date and time of the Final Approval Hearing have not changed.

22. Do I have to attend the Final Approval Hearing?

No. Class Counsel will answer any questions the Court may have. However, you are welcome to attend at your own expense. If you file an objection, you do not have to attend the Final Approval Hearing to speak about it. As long as you file your written objection by the deadline, the Court will consider it.

Questions? Go to www.OnePointSettlement.com or call 1-844-635-2035

23. May I speak at the Final Approval Hearing?

If there are objections that were filed by the deadline, the Court will consider them. If you file a timely objection, and you (or your lawyer) ask to speak at the Final Approval Hearing, the Court may hear objections at the hearing.

Russo v. OP Pharmacy, LLC, a/k/a OnePoint Patient Care, LLC
Case No. 3:24-cv-00649-RGJ

GENERAL INFORMATION

If you received notice of this Settlement, the Settlement Administrator identified you as a potential living member of the Settlement Class because you were identified by OP Pharmacy, LLC, a/k/a OnePoint Patient Care, LLC ("Defendant"), as someone whose Private Information may have been impacted in the cybersecurity incident that took place August 8, 2024, involving the Defendant and resulting in the unauthorized access to or acquisition of Settlement Class Members' Private Information. The Private Information involved includes information collected by Defendant, directly or indirectly, pertaining to its current and former patients, including but not limited to names, addresses, facility location, and medical information.

You may submit a Claim Form for Settlement Class Member Benefits, outlined below, by filling out and returning this Claim Form by mail or by visiting the Settlement Website at www.OnePointSettlement.com. Claims must be mailed or submitted online by October 8, 2026, to be considered timely. If you would prefer to submit by mail, please use the return address at the top of this form.

SETTLEMENT BENEFITS – WHAT YOU MAY GET

You may submit a Claim for one of the Cash Payment options:

1. Cash Payment A – Documented Losses: You may submit a Claim Form and provide reasonable documentation for losses related to the Data Incident for up to $3,500 per Settlement Class Member. Supporting documentation is required. If you submit a claim for Cash Payment A and the Settlement Administrator determines your claim to be invalid, your claim will automatically be converted to a claim for Cash Payment B.

OR

2. Cash Payment B – Alternate Cash: Instead of Cash Payment A, without providing documentation, you may submit a Claim Form to receive an alternate cash payment in the estimated amount of $100.00.

The actual amount of Cash Payment B will be determined based on the amount remaining in the Net Settlement Fund. Your Alternate Cash payment may be subject to a pro rata (a legal term meaning equal) adjustment based upon the total value of all Valid Claims.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF KENTUCKY
LOUISVILLE DIVISION

*In re: One Point Patient Care, LLC., Data
Breach Litigation*

Case No. 3:24-cv-00649-RGJ

Judge Rebecca Grady Jennings

CLASS ACTION

ORDER GRANTING FINAL APPROVAL OF SETTLEMENT

The Court having held a Final Approval Hearing on September 23, 2026 before the Honorable Rebecca Grady Jennings in the United States District Court for the Western District of Kentucky, Gene Snyder United States Courthouse, 601 West Broadway, Louisville, KY 40202, and having considered all matters submitted to it at the Final Approval Hearing and otherwise, and finding no just reason for delay in entry of this Order Granting Final Approval of Settlement (the “Order”) and the separate Final Judgement, and good cause appearing therefore, and having considered the papers filed and proceedings held in connection with the Settlement, having considered all of the other files, records, and proceedings in the Litigation, and being otherwise fully advised,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED AS FOLLOWS:

1. This Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this Action and all matters relating to the Settlement, as well as personal jurisdiction over all the Parties and each of the Settlement Class Members. Venue is proper in this Court.

2. This Order incorporates and makes a part hereof: (a) the Class Action Settlement Agreement and Release, including the definitions in the Settlement Agreement, and (b) the notices attached as exhibits thereto, respectively, all of which were filed with the Court on May 23, 2025.

See ECF No. 30-2 (“Settlement,” “Settlement Agreement,” or “SA”). All terms used in this Order have the same meanings as set forth in the Settlement Agreement, unless otherwise defined herein.

3. Certification of the Settlement Class for Purposes of Settlement Only. Pursuant to Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, this Court certifies, solely for purposes of effectuating the Settlement, this Action as a class action on behalf of a Settlement Class defined as:

All living individuals residing in the United States whose Private Information may have been accessed during the Data Incident, including those individuals who were sent a notice by Defendant that their Private Information may have been impacted in the Data Incident.

SA ¶ 61. Excluded from the Settlement Class are all persons who are: (a) parents, subsidiaries, directors and officers of Defendant, and any entity in which Defendant has a controlling interest; (b) the Judge assigned to the Action, that Judge’s immediate family, and Court staff; (c) all persons who submit a timely and valid Request for Exclusion from the Settlement Class; and (d) any person found by a court of competent jurisdiction to be guilty under criminal law of initiating, causing, aiding or abetting the criminal activity occurrence of the Data Incident, or who pleads nolo contendere to any such charge. Id.

4. Class Representatives. Plaintiffs Christopher Russo and Shannon Cobb (“Class Representatives”) are hereby appointed, for settlement purposes only, as representatives for the Settlement Class for purposes of Fed. R. Civ. P. 23.

5. Class Counsel. Tyler J. Bean of Siri Glimstad LLP, A. Brooke Murphy of Murphy Law Firm, Andrew W. Ferich of Ahdoot & Wolfson, PC, and Jeff Ostrow of Kopelowitz Ostrow PA, are hereby appointed, for settlement purposes only, as counsel for the Settlement Class pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(c)(1)(B) and (g).

6. Class Notice. The Court finds that the dissemination of the Class Notice(s) attached as Exhibits to the Settlement Agreement: (a) was implemented in accordance with the Preliminary Approval Order; (b) constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances; (c) constituted notice that was reasonably calculated, under the circumstances, to apprise Settlement Class Members of (i) the pendency of the Action; (ii) their right to submit a Claim (where applicable) by submitting a Claim Form; (iii) their right to exclude themselves from the Settlement Class; (iv) the effect of the proposed Settlement (including the releases to be provided thereunder); (v) Class Counsel's Application for Attorneys' Fees, Costs, Expenses, and Service Awards to the Class Representatives ("Fee Motion"); (vi) their right to object to any aspect of the Settlement, and/or the Fee Motion; and (vii) their right to appear at the Final Approval Hearing; (d) constituted due, adequate, and sufficient notice to all persons entitled to receive notice of the proposed Settlement; and (e) satisfied the requirements of Fed. R. Civ. P. 23, the Constitution of the United States (including the Due Process Clause), and all other applicable laws and rules.

7. Class Action Fairness Act Notice. The notice to government officials, as given, complied with 28 U.S.C. § 1715.

8. Objections. There are no objections for the Court to consider.

9. Final Settlement Approval and Dismissal of Claims. Pursuant to, and in accordance with, Fed. R. Civ. P. 23, this Court hereby fully and finally approves the Settlement set forth in the Settlement Agreement in all respects (including, without limitation: the consideration provided for in the Settlement; the releases provided for therein; and the dismissal with prejudice of the claims asserted against Defendant OnePoint Patient Care, LLC ("Defendant" or "OnePoint") in the action as provided for in SA § XIII, and finds that the Settlement is, in all respects, fair, reasonable, and adequate to the Settlement Class. The Court finds that, pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(2): (a) the Class Representatives and Class Counsel have adequately represented the Settlement Class; (b) the Settlement was negotiated at arm's length; (c) the relief provided for the Settlement Class is fair, reasonable, and adequate taking into account: (i) the costs, risks, and delay of trial and appeal; (ii) the effectiveness of the proposed method of distributing relief to the Settlement Class, including the method of processing Settlement Class Member Claims; (iii) the terms of the proposed award of attorneys' fees and reimbursement of costs, as well as the Service Awards to the Class Representatives; and (iv) any agreement required to be identified under Rule 23(e)(3);¹ and (d) the Settlement treats Settlement Class Members equitably relative to each other.

The Settlement also satisfies each of the traditional factors considered in the Sixth Circuit when evaluating the fairness of a class action settlement, including: (1) the risk of fraud or collusion; (2) the complexity, expense and likely duration of the litigation; (3) the amount of discovery engaged in by the Parties; (4) the likelihood of success on the merits; (5) the opinions of class counsel and class representatives; (6) the reaction of absent class members; and (7) the public interest.

The Parties are directed to implement, perform, and consummate the Settlement in accordance with the terms and provisions contained in the Settlement Agreement.

10. Dismissal with Prejudice. The Action is hereby dismissed with prejudice and the Class Members' claims are released and enjoined. SA § XIII. The Parties shall bear their own costs and expenses, except as otherwise expressly provided in the Settlement Agreement.

11. Binding Effect. The terms of the Settlement Agreement and of this Order shall be forever binding on Defendant, Plaintiffs, and all Settlement Class Members (regardless of whether any individual Settlement Class Member submits a Claim Form, seeks or obtains a Settlement Class Member Benefit, or objected to the Settlement), as well as their respective successors and assigns.

12. Releases. The releases set forth in Section XIII (the “Releases”) of the Settlement Agreement are expressly incorporated herein in all respects. The Releases are effective as of the Effective Date. Accordingly, this Court orders pursuant to this Order, without further action by anyone, upon the Effective Date of the Settlement, and as provided in the Settlement Agreement, that Plaintiffs and each and every member of the Settlement Class shall have released the Released Claims against the Releasees. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Order shall bar any action by any of the Parties to enforce or effectuate the terms of the Settlement Agreement or this Order.

13. Future Prosecutions Barred. Plaintiffs and all Settlement Class Members are hereby barred and permanently enjoined from instituting, asserting, or prosecuting any or all the Released Claims against any of the Releasees.

14. No Admission of Liability. The Court hereby decrees that the Settlement, this Order, and the fact of the Settlement do not constitute admissions or concessions by the Defendant of any fault, wrongdoing, or liability whatsoever, or as an admission of the appropriateness of class certification for trial or dispositive motion practice. This Order is not a finding of the validity or invalidity of any of the claims asserted or defenses raised in the Litigation. Nothing relating to the Settlement shall be offered or received in evidence as an admission, concession, presumption or inference against Defendant or any of the Released Parties in any proceeding, other than such proceedings as may be necessary to consummate or enforce the Settlement Agreement or to support a defense based on principles of res judicata, collateral estoppel, release, good faith settlement, judgment bar or reduction, or any other theory of claim preclusion or issue preclusion or similar defense.

15. Retention of Jurisdiction. Without affecting the finality of this Order in any way, this Court retains continuing and exclusive jurisdiction over: (a) the Parties for purposes of the administration, interpretation, implementation, consummation, and enforcement of the Settlement; (b) the administration of this Settlement; and (c) the Settlement Class Members for all matters relating to the Action.

16. Attorneys' Fees and Expenses. Class Counsel are awarded attorneys' fees of $705,000.00 and reimbursement of litigation costs in the amount of $33,770.55, and such amount shall be paid by Defendant pursuant to and consistent with the terms of the Settlement Agreement.

17. Service Awards. The Class Representatives are both awarded a Service Award as of $2,500.00 ($5,000.00 total), and such amounts shall be paid by Defendant pursuant to and consistent with the terms of the Settlement Agreement.

18. Modification of the Agreement of Settlement. Without further approval from the Court, Plaintiffs, by and through Class Counsel, and Defendant are hereby authorized to agree to and adopt such amendments or modifications of the Settlement Agreement or any exhibits attached thereto to effectuate the Settlement that: (a) are not materially inconsistent with this Order; and (b) do not materially limit the rights of Settlement Class Members in connection with the Settlement. Without further order of the Court, Plaintiffs, by and through Class Counsel, and Defendant may agree to reasonable extensions of time to carry out any of the provision of the Settlement Agreement.

19. Jurisdiction. The Court hereby retains and reserves jurisdiction over: (a) implementation of this Settlement and any distributions pursuant to the Settlement; (b) the action, until the Effective Date and until each and every act agreed to be performed by the Parties shall have been performed pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Settlement Agreement, including the exhibits appended thereto; and (c) all Parties, for the purpose of enforcing and administering the Settlement Agreement and the Settlement.

20. Termination of Settlement. If the Settlement is terminated as provided in the Settlement Agreement or the Effective Date of the Settlement otherwise fails to occur, this Order shall be vacated, rendered null and void and be of no further force and effect, except as otherwise provided by the Settlement Agreement, and this Order shall be without prejudice to the rights of Plaintiffs, Settlement Class Members, and the Defendant, and the Parties shall be deemed to have reverted nunc pro tunc to their respective litigation positions in the action immediately prior to the execution of the Settlement Agreement.
